OFFICIAL REPORT FROM CAPITAL

Account of Monday's Events as Given by Russian Government.

ST. PETERSBURG—An official account of Monday's events is as follows:

During Monday there was no collision between the rioters and the troops.

Workers at the electric station joined the strike in the evening.

No person was killed or wounded on Monday.

RUSSIAN PAPER CREATES SENSATION.

Says Force Is Not Powerful Enough to Quench Aspirations.

MOSCOW.—The Liberal paper, Russki Vidomski, has created a sensation owing to its comment on the official statement of the St. Petersburg shooting.

This official report does not come from the scene of war; the victims have not fallen on the battlefields of Manchuria...

RUSSIAN PAPERS DEFY CENSORSHIP.

Announce They Will Print the News at Whatever Cost.

ST. PETERSBURG.—The editors of four newspapers, the Russ, the Vidomosti, the Novosti and the Grashidni, declare their intention, as soon as the printers return to work...

It is understood a number of mills and factories will start up tomorrow.

Father Gopin's message to his followers was: "The czar does not exist; no longer pray for liberty."

WORKMEN ARE SHOT DOWN.

Their Appeal is Met With Bullets and Bayonets of Soldiers.

ST. PETERSBURG.—This has been a day of unspeakable horror in St. Petersburg. The strikers of yesterday, goaded to desperation...

Many workmen, deceived by this rumor, shouted "hurrah" in token of victory and this possibly was the reason that the strikers, believing they had already won the day, refrained from committing excesses yesterday.

IMPORTED WHEAT FOR SEED

Secretary Shaw Recommends Refund of Duty.

WASHINGTON.—Secretary Shaw has sent the following letter to both houses of congress recommending the refund of the duties paid on imported wheat when used for seed:

"This department is in receipt of a large number of letters indicating that a scarcity of suitable wheat for seeding purposes exists in several of the northwestern states. By act approved January 15, 1903, the secretary of the treasury was directed to refund the duty paid on coal for the period of one year...

Lincoln Has a Serious Fire.

LINCOLN, Neb.—Fire discovered shortly after midnight Tuesday, which is still raging, has completely destroyed an entire block of five-story buildings at Thirteenth and P streets, known as the Halter block and the Furniture block.

There were last year 532 paper mills in operation in European Russia, employing 41,600 hands and turning out paper to the value of about $24,000,000.

EYES ON MOSCOW

REGARDED AS THE STORM CENTER OF DISTURBANCES.

TERROR PERVADES THE CITY

Strike is Spreading and General Alarm is Expressed at the Outlook.—Trepoff's Appointment to the Governorship a Surprise in Moscow.

MOSCOW.—There is complete tranquility within the boundaries of this city, but the people are keeping indoors owing to the official warning. The strike is spreading gradually, but thus far is confined to the smaller mills.

Captain Grove, the British consul, has called upon M. Roudneff, the assistant police master, who is acting in the absence of Chief Volkoff...

M. Roudneff produced the original telegram in evidence of good faith. Captain Grove stated that he would report the matter to the embassy at St. Petersburg...

M. Roudneff assured him that there was absolutely no cause for apprehension, but assumed the responsibility for the publication.

M. Roudneff also offered Captain Grove personal satisfaction in a resort to arms.

General Trepoff's appointment to the governor generalship of St. Petersburg was a surprise here. It is rumored that Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky may be appointed governor general of Moscow.

A squadron of Cossacks this evening dispersed about 3,000 workmen who were growing obstreperous across the Moskva. No fatalities are reported.

GRAIN RATE WAR IS NOW ON.

Eastern Roads Meet the Tariffs Lately Prevailing Omaha to Gulf.

CHICAGO.—The dogs of a real railroad war were let loose Thursday, when the Chicago gateway and the Gulf of Mexico outlet began to fight in earnest for the grain trade of the corn belt.

For the first time in weeks Chicago shippers were able to compete with their rivals, using the low rates that had been effective to the Gulf of Mexico.

Late in the day came the reply from the Gulf lines, which met the open rates of the Chicago roads by an open tariff 1 1/2 cents lower than the "midnight tariffs" of a fortnight ago.

Brazilian ants make little gardens in the tree tops and sow them with pineapple and other seeds. The gardens are found of all sizes, some containing a single sprout and others a densely grown ball as large as a man's head.
