The building boom is on in earnest in Broken Bow and vicinity. Ellis and Munk gave us a list of twelve buildings they have completed and have under construction since the fifteenth of February. As there are several other contractors and builders in the city all of whom are kept busy we infer that the report of Ellis and Munk only gives a fair index of what the others have been doing.

Saturday morning at about eleven o'clock, Mrs. Merit Gordon was busily engaged getting ready to clean her floors having a pan of boiling water on the floor when a little child came bounding in the door, childlike and little Georgia turning around to watch her little brother, fell in the pan backwards scalding her so badly that she died from the effects at eleven o'clock that same evening. She was conscious until about two o'clock in the afternoon when she fell asleep and never awakened from the same. Georgia would have been four years old the fourteenth day of August. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their bereavement.—Merna Postal Care.
