One of the prettiest marriages seen hear this year, took place eight o'clock Monday evening at St. John's Episcopal church, when Mr. Ralph Ferris, a prominent young banker of Tuscola, Ill., was wedded to Miss Nannie Barrett, daughter of Wm. Barrett, a well known Broken Bow citizen. Rev. W. H. Xanders offiicated, while Miss Janie Cooper acted as bride's maid and Ramah Reyerson, a cousin of the groom, was best man. The interior of the church was handsomely decorated for the occassion with numerous hot house plants and flowers. After the ceremony, the happy couple received the congratulations of friends in the vestry room. This was followed by a supptious wedding repast, in which only relatives and intimate friends participated. Mr. and Mrs. Ferris departed for their future home at Tuscola, Tuesday morning on No. 42, admid showers of rice and congratulations of many friends who had assembled at the depot to see them off.

MARRIED

Anderson, Griffith.—Wednesday evening 7:30 p. m., April 26, 1905, in the Baptist church, Mason City. Wm. A. Anderson and Miss Grace M. Griffith, Rev. J. R. Woods officiating.

The bride is a lady of culture and refinement and enjoys the esteem of a large circle of friends. For the past two years' up to the first of this month, when she sold out she had been a resident of Broken Bow, engaged in the emporium business. She is the daughter of G. A. Griffith, of Ryno, who is an old resident and successful farmer of that vicinity.

The groom is the son of Nels Anderson, of Mason City, where he has grown up to manhood. He is the editor and proprietor of the Mason City Star. He is a man of good moral habits, a christian gentleman and enjoys the confidence and esteem of the community. The PEPUBLICAN joins the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson in wishing them a happy and prosperous life together.

DEAD.

Peter Mohat, who was stricken some two weeks ago with paralysis, died last Saturday at his home north of the city. Mr. Mohat was among the early settlers of the county and was one of our most highly respected citizens. He was a union soldier in the war of the rebellion. He was a faithful and active member of the Catholic church and seldom failed to attend the regular services. He leaves a wife and several grown children to mourn his death. His funeral was held in the Catholic church of this city Monday and his remains laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery west of town.

Martha E. Fales, Kate A. L. Chapin, and Henry Margery, Plaintiffs.

Henry Lewis, Kate May Lewis and Henry Margery Lewis, minor heirs at law and devisees under the last will and testament of Henry J. Lewis, deceased, and Mary Emma Lewis, mother and natural guardian of said minor defendants.

To Henry Lewis, Kate May Lewis and Helen Maagery Lewis, and mary Emma Lewis, mother and natural guardian of said minor defendants:

You will take notice that on the 14th day of February, 1905, the above named plaintiffs filed their petition in the district court for Custer county, Neb., the object and prayer of which is to determine the interest of said parties in and for the partition between said plaintiffs and said defendants according to their respective interests, the following described real estate in Custer county, Neb., to-wit:

The south one-half (½) of northwest quarter (¼), and the north one-half (½) of southwest quarter (¼) of section four (4) town sixteen (16) range eighteen (18) west 6th P. M.

The west one-half (½) of northwest quarter (¼) and west one-half (½) of southwest quarter (¼) and north one-half (½) of northeast quarter (¼), the southeast quarter (¼) of northeast quarter (¼) and northeast quarter (¼) of northwest quarter (¼) of section eight (8), town sixteen (16) range eighteen (18) west 6th P. M. and the northwest quarter (¼) of section nine (9), town sixteen (16) range eighteen (18) west of 6th P. M.

And praying further that if said lands cannot be divided and partitioned without damage and prejudice to the interests of said parties that it be decreed and ordered that said lands be sold by referees and the proceeds of said sale be divided between said parties according to their respective interests.

You will appear, plead and answer said petition on or beforte June 5th, 1905, or default will be taken and entered against you.
