The County Court.

The county court was engaged Monday in hearing a case of the State vs Hiram Kissell of West Union, who was charged with stealing a hog. It appears that in some way got with Kissells hogs and he took it to market with his own and sold it. the matter was adjusted financially between Kissell and Goodrich as the story goes, but a third party having knowledge of the case filed a complaint with the County Attorney which resulted in the arrest of both Kissell and wife.

The court after hearing the evidence against Kissell dismissed the case and set him free. The County Attorney then dismissed the case against Mrs.
