J. G. BRENNER, Breeder of

Pure Scotch and Scotch Topped Short Horn Cattle. My herd numbers 40 cows. Will compare in breeding and quality with any west of Chicago. My experience has taught me that to give good satisfaction, breeding cattle must be raised in this manner. I expect to raise them here the equal of anything raised in the U. S. I now have 25 bulls suitable for this, and next year's service. My cows weigh from 1400 to 2000 pounds. Come and see them.

The Grand Island College.

The Grand Island Baptist College has its new Dormitory nearly completed and it will be ready for occupancy by the students at the fall term. The building is built of brick and one hundred and forty feet long, two stories besides the basement and attic. The building, when complete with power house, heating and lighting fixtures cost $45,000. It contains more than sixty rooms besides the kitchen, apartments and a large dining hall.

The building is modern in all its arrangements and will make a delightful and economical quarters for the students. The faculty is one of the strongest in the west and special advantages are offered to those who want to secure a college education. For particulars write the President Rev. Geo. Sutherland D. D. Grand Island.

Ralph George Gets The Medal.

At the A'helic contest at the Grand Island Baptist College yesterday, Ralph George, son of Nc. George of Cumro was awarded the medal. Custer county boys are holding their own where ever placed in competition.

A Merry Party.

A picnic was held at Boblits farm near Tuckerville last Wednesday by the College graduates and their friends. They were taken in two large carry alls, leaving here about seven o'clock and returning near midnight. They all report having had a most enjoyable time and a bountiful dinner and supper. Those who were in the jolly crowd were as follows:

Elmer Jensen, C. I. Mohler, C. E. Huff, James Thomas, B. R. Richard, Ben Hutt, Earl Doman, V. E. Lowrey, James Leonard, C. Johnson, Hattie Lilly, Anna Bishop, Milla Luce, Stella Phillips, Myrtus Miller, Mrs. Leonard, Muriel Miller, Emma Johnson, Bertha Craig and Ben Hutt.

The "Burlington."

O. H. Mevis has named his new hotel the Burlington. The front of the building supports a fine sign in gold letters designating the name. The sign is a creditable piece of work, Chal England being the artist. We are informed that Dr. Bass has leased the building and expects to open it for business about the first of July.
