

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the result! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

THEY HAD MET BEFORE.

When Arnold Daly and His Leading Lady Exchanged Reminiscences.

Arnold Daly, who has made such a good thing of Bernard Shaw and who speaks of bringing that lively Irishman to this side next winter, is involved in the following:

Miss Louise Closser, who played Prosperie the typewriter in "Canada" last season, told the story at a well-known dramatic school the other day. "When I resolved to go upon the stage," said Miss Closser, "being still a young thing, I went to Mr. Frohman's office, staidy my nerves at the door by repeating over and over again 'Perseverance is the price of success' and such-like bracing sentiments. In that way I got as far as the room. There I saw an office boy sitting with his feet upon the desk and a newspaper before him.

"Is Mr. Frohman in?" I asked.

"Naw," said the office boy, without changing his position or raising his eyes.

"Then I'll wait," said I. I waited an hour in silence. Then it occurred to me to put a simple question. I addressed the still absorbed office boy.

"When will Mr. Frohman be in?"

"He ain't goin' to be in," he answered shortly. "He's in Europe."

"Naturally I retired after that. When I went into Mr. Daly's company last winter I told him the story.

"Were you that girl?" he said. "I was that office boy."—New York Times.

SNAPSHOT PRIZED BY ACTOR.

Camera Caught Sir Henry Irving in the Act of Sneezing.

Sir Henry Irving has in his possession a photograph taken many years ago, in which he is the center of a small group of people, which he says nothing would make him part with. The occasion on which the photograph was taken was the landing of Sir Henry Irving and some of the members of his company from an Atlantic liner, and a snap-shot artist who was there took a picture of the group just before they left the vessel.

The weather was cold and raw, and just as the camera was about to snap Sir Henry started to sneeze. The photograph represented him, well in the foreground of the group, with his face drawn and contorted, in the very act of sneezing.

In showing the photograph to some friends one day Sir Henry remarked: "I prize that photograph more than any I ever had in which I appear, because it represents me in an entirely unconventional light."—New York Times.

An Awkward Situation.

Congressman Morrell, of Philadelphia, said in the course of an address to National Guardsmen:

"As colonel of the Third Regiment of Pennsylvania, I once took part in an odd and amusing episode.

"My regiment was marching down Broad street in the van of an immense and magnificent parade when, near Walnut street, it became necessary to push the people back a little. The ropes had broken at this point, and the people, quite unintentionally, encroached on the line of the parade.

"I assigned a handful of young privates to help the police handle the crowd, and one private, stationed near me, I kept my eye on. He got everybody back except a fat man. This person did not move.

"Private," said I, 'put that fat man back.'

"He says he can't get back, the crowd is pushing so," the private answered.

"Put your musket butt in his chest," said I, 'and force him back. You are the stronger.'

"Yes," said the private, "I know I'm the stronger, but he's the foreman of our shop."

Dainties for the Invalid.

Simeon Ford tells of some amusing experiences of a lady he knows who is most charitably disposed toward the poor of the slums. One day this worthy woman in the goodness of her heart visited a small boy in whom she was interested and who was convalescing from a long illness. With her she carried some fine fruit for the lad; but to her surprise the mother received the offering rather dubiously, evincing little appreciation or gratitude for what the charitable lady thought would be most acceptable to the little sufferer.

When next the good Samaritan called at the place she asked the mother how the boy had enjoyed the fruit.

"Very well," was the laconic answer.

"And did he eat all of it?"

"Oh, yes," responded the mother, carelessly; "he got away with it all right; but the boy is like me, he don't care much for frills; likes something substantial and tasty, fr instance, pig's feet."—New York Times.

Freedom and Love.

How delicious is the winning of a kiss at love's beginning. When two mutual hearts are sighing for the knot there's no untying!

Yet remember, mid your wooing, Love has bliss, but love has ruing; Others' smiles may make you fickle, Tears for other charms may trickle.

Love he comes, and Love he tries, Just as fate or fancy carries; Longest stays where worst children, Laughs and flies when pressed and bid- den.

Bind the sea to slumber stilly, Bind its odor to the lily, Bind the aspen ne'er to quiver, Then bind love to last forever.

Love's a fire that needs renewal Of fresh breath for its fuel, Love's wing moult when caged and cap- tured; Only free, he soars enraptured.

Can you keep the bee from ranging, Or the ring-dove's neck from changing? No; nor feathered Love from dying In the knot there's no untying.

NAMES BEST DOCTOR

MR. BAYSSON PUBLISHES RESULTS OF VALUABLE EXPERIENCE.

A Former Pronounced Dyspeptic He Now Rejoices in Perfect Freedom from Miseries of Indigestion.

Thousands of sufferers know that the reason why they are irritable and depressed and nervous and sleepless is because their food does not digest, but how to get rid of the difficulty is the puzzling question.

Good digestion calls for strong digestive organs, and strength comes from a supply of good rich blood. For this reason Mr. Baysson took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the cure of indigestion.

"They have been my best doctor," he says. "I was suffering from dyspepsia. The pains in my stomach after meals were almost unbearable. My sleep was very irregular and my complexion was sallow. As the result of using eight boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, about the merits of which I learned from friends in France, I have escaped all these troubles, and am able again to take pleasure in eating."

A very simple story, but if it had not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills it might have been a tragic one. When discomfort begins with eating, fills up the intervals between meals with pain, and prevents sleep at night, there certainly cannot be much pleasure in living. A final general breaking down must be merely a question of time.

Mr. Joseph Baysson is a native of Aix-les-Bains, France, but now resides at No. 2439 Larkin street, San Francisco, Cal. He is one of a great number who can testify to the remarkable efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the treatment of obstinate disorders of the stomach.

If you would get rid of nausea, pain or burning in the stomach, vertigo, nervousness, insomnia, or any of the other miseries of a dyspeptic, get rid of the weakness of the digestive organs by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are sold by druggists everywhere.

Proper diet is, of course, a great aid in forwarding recovery once begun, and a little book, "What to Eat and How to Eat," may be obtained by any one who makes a request for it by writing to the Dr. Williams Medical Co., Schenectady, N. Y. This valuable diet book contains an important chapter on the simplest means for the cure of constipation.

AN AWFUL SKIN HUMOR.

Covered Head, Neck and Shoulders—Suffered Agony for Twenty-five Years Until Cured by Cuticura.

"For twenty-five years I suffered agony from a terrible humor, completely covering my head, neck and shoulders, discharging matter of such offensiveness to sight and smell that I became an object of dread. I consulted the most able doctors far and near, to no avail. Then I got Cuticura, and in a surprisingly short time I was completely cured. For this I thank Cuticura, and advise all those suffering from skin humors to get it and end their misery at once. S. P. Keyes, 149 Congress Street, Boston, Mass."

It is not always well to declare you are getting less than you deserve.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. For the Nursery.

A plain green cartridge paper is used as the basis of a pretty wall covering for a nursery. On it are pasted at intervals figures of children of the Kate Greenaway order, cut from a special paper furnished for the purpose. Around the top is a deep frieze of jolly looking cats, looking down over a wall. The idea of pasting any suitable pictures on a plain green background for a child's room is worth carrying out.

A Centenarian's Breakfast.

A New York man who died at the age of 104 years, a few days ago had the same things for breakfast during the last ninety years—coffee and doughnuts or cutters, followed by a pipe of tobacco. This is a sad case for dietary reformers to consider, but probably they will maintain that he would have lived twenty years longer but for the coffee, doughnuts and tobacco.

Real Absent-mindedness.

"As for absent-minded men," said the youth with red hair, who had just been reading a 'Live Topic' about one "the best sample I ever saw was a man who was lighting his cigar on the platform of a car. He had a silver match safe. When the cigar was lit he threw away the match box and carefully folded up the wax match and put it in his pocket."—New York Sun.

Attractive Garden Caprice.

The lovely gardens of Lady Windsor in England are rendered doubly attractive by an ingenious little device. High holes are bored at regular intervals in the sides of an upright barrel. This is filled with rich soil and plants are put in so that they grow out of the holes. These barrels are covered with blooms of ivy geraniums.

Second-hand Goods.

The reason that widows have so much attention and have so much difficulty in getting married is because a man usually objects to paying a fancy price for shop-worn goods.

His Health Was Wrecked Per-na Gave New Life.

HON. JOHN TIGHE. Assemblyman Tighe's letter should be read by every brain worker leading a strenuous life.

Hon. John Tighe, No. 98 Remsen St., Cohoes, N. Y., Member of Assembly from the Fourth district, Albany county, N. Y., writes as follows:

"Peruna has my hearty indorsement as a restorative tonic of superior merit. At times when I have been completely broken down from excess of work, so that my faculties seemed actually at a standstill, Peruna has acted as a healing restorer, starting the machinery of mind and body afresh with new life and energy."

"I recommend it to a man tired in mind and body as a tonic superior to anything I know of and well worthy serious consideration."—J. Tighe.

Excess of work so common in our country causes impaired nerves, leading to catarrh and catarrhal nervousness—a disease that is responsible for half of all nervous troubles.

Peruna cures this trouble because it cures catarrh wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
