Claude Wahl, who recently purchased the Hutton barber shop needs no introduction to the people of Broken Bow and vicinity. He is now the oldest, in experience in business here. He has been associated in the business for most of the time for fifteen years, having owned two or three shops in that time. For the past year or two, since he sold his shop on the west side of the square to Leo Dean he has tried other lines of business and other localities. But now he informs us that he has settled down permanently in the barber business in Broken Bow. As a tonsorial artist he stands second to none, and his many friends are pleased to know that he is here to stay.

Buggy Talk!

I have received another car direct from the factory, all of the very latest styles. Come in and see them whether you want to buy or not and if you want to buy I will guarantee to sell you a buggy, carriage or spring wagon, for less money than you can buy anywhere else, and give you the very latest output of the factory, something no other dealer in the county can do.
