

Your Money BACK

THIS is but a sane and safe principle. It earns the approbation and satisfaction of customers, and that is what we are striving for. No business can endure that labors along under the discontent of the community. The escapal profit on an individual sale is nothing compared to the alienation of a neighbor's good will and his just resentment. Therefore our motto: MONEY BACK—and cheerfully at that. Our drugs and other goods are all A1. Our prices are just. When you trade with us you will get full satisfaction or your money back.

JAMES LEDWICH, Broken Bow, Neb.

Broken Bow and Ansley are to play ball here this afternoon.

Prof. Garlich of North Platte is in the city for a few days.

Tom Wright and Dan Hagin are up from Ansley today to see the ball game.

Mrs. Joe Booth, living fourteen miles west, was sent to Omaha yesterday for a surgical operation for gall stones.

Miss Stella Woodburn returned last Saturday evening from Holbrook to be in attendance at the teachers' institute.

Andrew Snyder and wife left Tuesday morning on a pleasure trip to Hot Springs, S. D. They will be gone two weeks.

Ted Pittaway, who has been visiting in the city several weeks with the family of M. Shackelford, returned on 42 today.

Dr. T. E. Morris, of whom we made mention recently, informs us that we got him in the wrong "path." He is an osteopath physician.

Miss Mamie Hams of Lincoln, will be in Custer county four or five days from 8 to 11 of August to give four days to District Sunday school work.

J. M. Kimberling wife and children left yesterday for Hot Springs, S. D., for rest and recuperation. They expect to be gone three weeks.

Rev. A. M. Levack will leave tomorrow for Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he has been invited to occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday.

J. M. Shively, Deputy Land commissioner, was a friendly caller at this office this morning. He has been viewing school land of the county which has been appraised for sale.

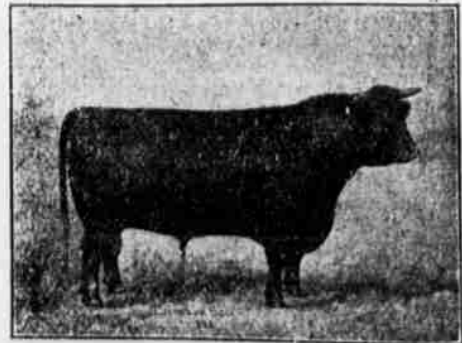

Prof. Monroe and wife of Iowa, who came last Saturday to assist in the Teachers Institute work are stopping with the family of A. R. Humphrey. Messrs Monroe and Humphrey were school mates.

A can of cream fell on the foot of R. G. Betts last Saturday and as a result he has been on crutches ever since. It cut through his shoe and penetrated the bone of the foot just above the toes and caused an ugly wound.

Herd Headed By.....

Chas. Scott, No. 177,035.

J. G. BRENER, Breeder of Pure Scotch and Scotch Topped Short Horn Cattle. My herd numbers 40 cows. Will compare in breeding and quality with any west of Chicago. My experience has taught me that to give good satisfaction, breeding cattle must be raised in this climate. I expect to raise them here the equal of anything raised in the U. S. I now have 25 bulls suitable for this, and next year's service. My cows weigh from 1400 to 2300 pounds. Come and see them.

WE DO GOOD WORK

Our Portland Letter.

PORTLAND, Oregon, July 23, 1905.—Editor Republican. Some weeks ago the president of the Commercial club of this city addressed a letter to President Roosevelt advocating a change in the Chinese exclusion law and favoring admission of a limited number of Chinese laborers. It appeared strange that such a proposition should come from such a source. I have made diligent inquiries of every grade and class of citizens here and I have not found one who favors such a policy. The leaders of the laboring classes here very clearly estimate that such a change would meet very stubborn resistance. I do not believe the request reflected the sentiment of any considerable number of people here. I think it quite true that there is work in the Pacific states for many more laborers than are here now and much that American laborers shun yet the admission of Cooley labor would cause a great commotion and would certainly meet very strong opposition.

The exposition is having a very large and steady attendance, insuring its financial success. The rainy season is past and the weather is delightful. The atmosphere is not nearly so clear as during the rainy time. It gets smoky and hides much of the beauty of the scenery. During the last half of September and the first of October will be the most pleasant time to visit the Fair. In some of the buildings especially in the Oriental one it is hard to escape buying some of the goods they offer for sale. They convince you, in spite of yourself, that they have the most beautiful things ever produced. They show you that the price is a mere nothing. That you are rich. That you never will have the opportunity to get such goods or such bargains again. The visitor becomes thoroughly convinced that this mild eyed representative the "Orient" is selling him the most exquisite article at a normal price just to favor him and at a great sacrifice to the vendor. He buys and goes on to another part where he discovers an article just like the one he bought at half the price he paid.

We visited yesterday, two places on the "Trial" the Klondike placer mine in full operation. They have $10,000 in gold flakes and nuggets that they mix with gravel and sand and actually go through the whole process of mining, separating the gold from the gravel. It is worth the price charged to see it. We also saw the wonderfully trained mare "Trixie." She does some strange things; it may be horse sense, it certainly exhibits a lot of sense. Count tells the time of day by a watch, picks out a certain lady, tells the color of her hat, her waist, and her skirt. No end to the strange things it does and yet it is a very ordinary looking little mare.

There are a great many people from Nebraska visiting the Fair. None of us have any reason to be ashamed of the exhibit from our state. It is good and beautifully arranged. Rah for Nebraska.
