

CUSTER COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

ESTABLISHED 1882. THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CUSTER COUNTY. LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN THE COUNTY.

VOL. XXIII.

BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1905.--EIGHT PAGES.

NO. 12.

P. T. Parson said: "The American people like to be humbugged." We should dislike to believe in the truth of this assertion. Yet the people almost prove its truth in their treatment of traveling spectacle peddlers. The rural districts especially are filled with these so-called "Doctors," "Oculists" and "Opticians" who make a good living by imposing on the credulity of humanity. These quacks are all glib talkers, and can convince any one who will give ear, that the listener is on the verge of blindness. I have people visit me almost weekly, who have paid $1 to $20, and often more, for glasses any located dealer could furnish for 50c to $1.00.

LOCAL MENTION.

The State fair at Lincoln next week.

The Baptist church has been treated to a new coat of paint in the past week.

Our people should remember that the county fair is held September 12, 13, 14 and 15.

Lewis Kimberling and M. Graham of Arnold, were social callers at this office yesterday.

W. J. Woods, wife and son left this morning for Portland, Oregon, where they will spend two months in seeing the sights.

The Live Stock show and the exhibits of farm products at the county fair, this year, will be well worth the trip to Broken Bow alone.

J. S. Staples and family who moved to Hastings, Nebraska, a month ago have returned to Broken Bow. They will locate if they can find a satisfactory house to rent.

Thos. Noonan informs us that his son-in-law, O. S. Trigg, who was married to his daughter Cora on the 16th of last July has located in New Castle, Wyoming where he has a harness and saddle shop.

Race horses are coming into Broken Bow almost every day to get in readiness for the county fair. The program announces twenty big racing events, and the racing this year will probably be the best ever seen in Custer county.

W. G. Wallace and C. A. Wahl have formed a partnership and engaged in the building and contracting together. They are both good carpenters and we bespeak for them a fair share of the business in their line. They are now building for Jas. Wood's at Dale.

Those who desire tents during the fair should notify E. R. Purcell, Secretary, Broken Bow, at once. You can get a tent big enough for your entire family during the fair for $1.50. There will be from fifty to 100 tents in use and to make sure of your tent you must order it by September 4th.

David Heller of Longwood, has recently bought the John Lowe residence property in the east part of town, consideration $1000. Mr. Heller is one of the pioneers of the Middle Loup valley and it is gratifying to see him able to tire from active life in his reclining days and enjoy the rest which, as an old veteran and a pioneer he has so richly earned.

E. M. Callen formerly of St. Louis made the REPUBLICAN office a social call Tuesday morning in company with his brother M. D. Callen of this vicinity. Mr. Callen moved to Portland, Oregon, last October, but his family being dissatisfied, he is now moving back to St. Louis and stopped off here to visit his brother a few days whom he had not seen for seventeen years.

We were surprised last week to see the Beacon's comments in defense of the manipulators of the kitchen cabinet deal. We infer from its statement that the Beacon was apprised of the methods, but did not have the courage to warn the public. The REPUBLICAN never had the acquaintance of those kind glove gentry and knew nothing of their methods until the week we exposed them. Our information came from a would be purchaser, who afterwards thanked us for our advice. If they were gone at the time we did not know it. If the Beacon as a publisher, had such intimate knowledge, owes an apology to the public for not putting its readers on their guard. The REPUBLICAN did not know or say a word against the merits of the cabinet. It may be worth all that it sells for, but even if that is true, those who bought a limited space of territory for a limited time at $288 a space, if not already, will live to see the day when they will regret it. The Beacon being aware of the methods these glittering fellows presented should be held responsible both as an apologist and an accomplice for not exposing them at a time when it might have saved scores of people from being caught in their meshes, as "all is not gold that glitters."

Remember the Custer county fair commences next Tuesday, week.

The Custer County fair is the only one in Nebraska that admits your teams free.

Miss Golda Cox of Merna, has accepted a position in the Central Telephone office of this city.

The Baptist parsonage will be completed and ready for occupancy by the last of this week.

No charge is made at the county fair, this year, for admitting teams, vehicles or saddle horses into the grounds.

Broken Bow is doing the right thing this year, by putting on a big street fair and carnival each night during the county fair.

There will be some great games of ball during the county fair. Ansley and Ravenna has signified their intention of coming and there will be others on the ground.

Most fairs in Nebraska charge fifty cents for single admission and $2.50 for a family ticket, the Custer County fair charges only twenty-five cents for single admission and $1.50 for a family ticket.

Bent Thompson who went with his sons to Oklahoma last winter with the view of remaining permanently arrived in Broken Bow with the view of remaining permanently. He reports that the boys and their families will be back in the near future.

The public schools open next Monday morning Sept. 4. The school board urge the importance of every scholar being at his post at that time and giving undivided attention to school work till Tuesday evening of Fair week when school will be dismissed for the week.

L. M. Bond traveling auditor for the J. R. Watkin's medical company, spent several days here last week and this, the guest of F. R. Huxtable, who for several years had been traveling salesman in this county until he tendered his resignation some two months ago. Mr. Bond's visit here was to induce Mr. Huxtable to engage with the company again and resume his former work. He informed us that Mr. Huxtable is second to none of the 750 men with teams the company has on the road. Mr. Bond says the company prizes him very highly as his honesty and veracity is unquestionable. Mr. Huxtable has agreed to take up the work again, with renewed energy.

Important Notice.
J. E. Iszard, proprietor of the Globe Hotel for nearly 3 years past, has severed his connection with that place and is now located at the New Commercial, on the south side; a hotel larger and more commodious in every respect; where he will be glad to see and accommodate with everything befitting a first class hotel.

The Custer Baptist Association.
The Custer Baptist association held its annual meetings in Broken Bow last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

All the churches of the association except Taylor and Burwell were represented. There were seventy two delegates as well as a number of visitors from several churches. Those present, who live outside of the association boundaries were Rev. D. D. Proper, Des Moines, Iowa, Rev. Henry Williams, Des Moines, Rev. Biggs, Omaha, Rev. Geo. Sutherland, Grand Island and Rev. T. L. Smith of Bridgeport.

The local ministers present were J. R. Woods of Mason City, F. C. Barrett of Ansley, S. C. Cadwell, Lodi, J. H. Howard, Lomax, E. Wakeham, Merna, W. T. Powers, Weisert.

The sessions were interesting throughout and well attended. The date of the annual meeting was changed from last Friday in August to the second Friday in September. The next annual meeting will be held with the Mason City church.

The former officers were re-nominated. Mrs. J. H. Kerr of Ansley, was elected delegate to represent the association at the state convention.

Dead Letter List.
For week ending Aug. 29, 1905. Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. Sophia Chancel, Wallace Farmhools.
