ESTABLISHED 1882. THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CUSTER COUNTY. LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN THE COUNTY.

VOL. XXIV.

BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1905.--EIGHT PAGES.

NO. 21.

EXTRAORDINARY

WATCH VALUES.

Do you want a watch? Most every one does. Everybody needs one. Some people, however, don't feel like paying a large sum of money for one. They try to get along by depending on the public clocks and their friends for the time. Inconvenient, of course. I have a number of watches taken in exchange that I shall sell at bottom prices. All the leading makes. I have put them in first-class condition and they keep as good time as new ones. There's no further excuse for your going without a watch.

How I Make The Blind See and Cure All Eye Diseases.

Without the knife or pain. Mr. Ben Miller, who was blind for 12 years in a recent letter expresses his enthusiastic gratitude for his eyes have been cured with out the knife and without any pain or inconvenience. Let me show you his letter. Schapiro's Actinic Lenses will do the same for you if your eyes are affected with any trouble whatever. If you see spots or sting beware of delay for delay means blindness. Surgery not necessary in eye diseases eyesight can be strengthened and all forms of diseased eyes cured without cutting or dragging, by the use Schapiro's Actinic Lenses. Eye glasses not necessary.

LOCAL MENTION.

B. C. Empfield of Anselmo, was a city visitor Friday.

Walter Scott of Anselmo, was a welcome caller at this office Thursday.

W. P. Rogers has his new tin shop completed. It is located just south of C. S. Martin's new implement building.

Mrs. C. E. Snider returned Friday from Cambria, Wyoming, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. O. Wantz.

Uncle Joe Chrisman left at this office a fine sample of corn raised by his son, Gene, this season. It is of the white corn variety and the ears are both long and large.

The fire company was called out Friday forenoon by a fire at Frank Shreves' residence in the south west part of town. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done.

The Advo Grocery has purchased the Oyster Bay Restaurant. Jack Woods will have charge of the Advo which guarantees first class service. See the Advo Restaurant advertisement in this issue.

Will Darnell, who has been working at the carpenters trade in this vicinity this season left the first of the week for Los Angeles, California, to spend the winter with his parents, who recently moved there from Indiana. He expects to return to Broken Bow in the spring.

Miss Edith Heller, formerly a teacher in Custer county, who has been homesteading and teaching in Eastern Colorado, was a friendly caller at this office Monday. She arrived in the city Wednesday of last week to see her father, who was at that time seriously ill, but is better at this writing.

The three delegates of the Presbyterian C. E. Society, who attended the state C. E. Convention will each give a talk at the Business College building, Sunday evening, November 5th, at 6:15. Mr. Kamaha Ryerson will also give at the same time some of the Baltimore Convention echoes. All are cordially invited.

Jas. Whitehead called at Forest Grove, Oregon, while west. He reports that A. G. Hoffman and Marion Allen have a large store, with about $28,000 stock and that they are doing a thriving business. He also met W. H. Phillips and son, Eugene, in Oregon, who were former residents of Broken Bow. They own a saw mill and are manufacturing lumber.

Mrs. Hettie Mock of Coatesville, Mo., who has been visiting with her sister, Mary Woodson and her niece, Mrs. Joseph Bradburn, for the past two weeks returned home Tuesday. She had a very enjoyable visit and admired the beautiful scenery of the Cedar Canyon very much and was favorably impressed with Custer county as a farming country.

Jas. Bertwell, who left here a year ago for Wyoming arrived in the city Friday morning from Lincoln, Nebraska, where he has been for the past two months. Mr. Bertwell says that while labor is higher in the west than here in Custer county, that expenses are enough higher to make the difference. His conclusions are that a young man can do just as well, if not better by remaining in Custer county.

Mrs. A. E. Scoville and daughter Ruth, of Anselmo, were city visitors Tuesday. For a number of years these two women have resided on the old homestead and can now rejoice in the success they have attained. They have an apple orchard from which they gathered one hundred bushels of apples, both last year and this, besides they have small fruits sufficient for their own use. They also have bearing pear and apricot trees. They are comfortably situated and are happy in realizing they have a home of their own without debt obligation to any one except Uncle Sam who granted the virgin soil for the occupancy and cultivation. They called at the REPUBLICAN office to advance their subscription to 1906.

Jas. McGraw of Gates, was a business caller at this office Tuesday.

W. E. Henman was in the city Tuesday making proof on his homestead, before Judge Armour.

G. L. Turner has bought the resident property in the southeast part of town formerly owned by Mrs. Ada Philpot, but more recently owned by Nicholas Smets.

Alvin Daily, the pop candidate for county clerk, was a social caller at this office Saturday. He informed us that he had been away from home two weeks campaigning.

F. H. Bentley of Ansley, was a friendly caller at this office Tuesday, while waiting for the delayed train, to return home. He reports the prospects for the republican ticket in his vicinity good.

Deputy Organizer for the Highlanders, who has been doing splendid work for that order at Ansley of late, is expected to arrive in Broken Bow the first week of November for special work.

J. M. Fodge passed through the city Saturday on his way to Second Endell to attend the Sunday School District Convention of the south-east quarter, which was held at the Second Endell church Sunday.

Willis Cadwell returned yesterday morning from a business trip to Illinois, where he had been visiting and looking after real estate deals for a couple or three weeks. He informs us that he invested in some thoroughbred Herford cattle and black hogs while gone.

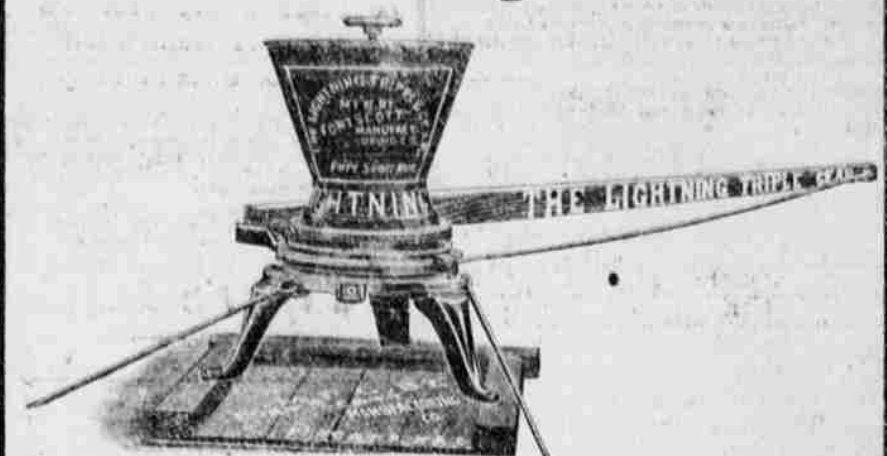

D. H. Thomson of Ansley, who came up Saturday night to spend Sunday at home got left Monday morning by the train being ahead of time and remained over until Tuesday. Mr. Thomson is a pretty close figure on election returns and he figures the entire republican ticket will be elected, if there is anything like a reasonable vote out next Tuesday.

Joe Remington of Georgetown, was in the city Tuesday on his way to Dunning where he goes with the view of making arrangements to move on his homestead within the six months of his allotted time. He bought the relinquishment on Jesse Wilson's claim, one of the best hay claims in that valley subject to entry at the opening under the Kinkaid law.

Lars Blist of Callaway, was a friendly caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Blist lives on the Tallin Table west of Callaway. He reports land prices doubled in his community in the past year. He bought a half section a year ago for $2,000 and was offered $4,000 for it a few days ago. He informs us that the republican ticket stands well in his locality and that he has great hopes of its success in the county.

Jas. Whitehead returned Friday night from his trip to Portland, where he was summoned as a witness against Frank Lambert, formerly of Mullen. It appears that Lambert had induced inmates of the Soldiers home to file on government land in the vicinity of Mullen and then take a lease for ninety-nine years. One of these soldiers on learning he had been misinformed as to his right to lease land under those conditions returned Lambert his money and perfected his proof by residing on the land and held it for his own use. Cudabeck of Mullen got onto the deal and informed the government authorities, who, after securing sufficient evidence found their man Lambert had left for parts unknown. Cudabeck again was able to give the required information and informed the officials that he was in Portland running a restaurant. It appears that he and Cudabeck's wife had skipped out together. Citizens of Broken Bow knew Mrs. Cudabeck as Mrs. B. W. Edwards. As Lambert resisted extradition papers a trial of his case was had which made Mr. Whitehead's presence, as Register of the U. S. land office necessary as a witness. Lambert was held to appear for trial before the Federal Court of Nebraska. Mr. Whitehead reports having enjoyed the trip while gone and met a number of former Broken Bow people.
