Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, unless it is cured by the use of the Deafness Cure, which is a powerful medicine that cures deafness by restoring the hearing to its normal condition. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 3/4-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 ozs." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

GOOD BLOOD FOR BAD

Rheumatism and Other Blood Diseases are Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"In the lead mines I was at work on my knees with my elbows pressed against rock walls, in dampness and extremes of cold," said Mr. J. G. Menkel, of 2975 Jackson avenue, Dubuque, Iowa, in describing his experience to a reporter, "and it is not surprising that I contracted rheumatism. For three years I had attacks affecting the joints of my ankles, knees and elbows. My ankles and knees became so swollen I could scarcely walk on uneven ground and a little pressure from a stone under my feet would cause me so much pain that I would nearly sink down. I was often obliged to lie in bed for several days at a time. My friends who were similarly troubled were getting no relief from doctors and I did not feel encouraged to throw money away for nothing. By chance I read the story of Robert Yates, of the Klauer Manufacturing Co., of Dubuque, who had a very bad case of rheumatism. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the remedy he had used. In three or four weeks after beginning to use the pills, I was much better and in three months I was well. The swelling of the joints and the tenderness disappeared, I could work steadily and for eight years I have had no return of the trouble. My whole family believe in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Both my sons use them. We consider them a household remedy that we are sure about."

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for Mr. Menkel they are doing for hundreds of others. Every dose sends galloping through the veins, pure, strong, rich, red blood that strikes straight at the cause of all ill health. The new blood restores regularity, and braces all the organs for their special tasks. Get the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at your druggist's or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Victor Emanuel Monument.

Giuseppe Sacconi is dead, and the colossal Victor Emanuel monument in Rome which was selected to build is far from completed. "Petrified megalomania," his enemies have called it. It will probably be completed by G. Koch, who, though a son of a German painter, is himself an out-and-out Italian. It was he who built the palace of the Banca d'Italia.

Storm in Swimming Bath.

In Munich, Germany, there is a large bath where the sea is imitated by means of sea salt added to fresh water, and an ingenious electrical contrivance which heats the water at frequent intervals, causing big waves to roll along the bath. A smoker can do without dining and wining, they say, but he cannot do without smoking. MESSAGE IS READ

MEMBERS OF BOTH HOUSES LISTEN TO THE DOCUMENT.

RECEIVED WITH GREAT APPLAUSE

Marked Attention Given to the Utterances of the Chief Executive—A Resolution Expressing American Sympathy With the Jews.

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt's message to congress received the attention of the house for two and a half hours. Its reading was listened to with marked attention and at its conclusion the document was applauded. Preliminary steps were taken toward appropriating the needed emergency funds for the Panama canal, and this matter will be the business for Wednesday. Should unanimous consent be refused for its consideration, a special rule from the committee on rules will be available, which will put the bill on its passage after a limited period for discussion.

The house received and ordered referred to one of the regular election committees a protest from the Fifth Congressional district of Illinois stating that Anthony Michalek, who was yesterday sworn in as a member of the house from that district is not a citizen of the United States. The protest was presented by Mr. Rainey of that state, who asked for consideration of the matter by a special committee. This point was the only one contested, it being suggested by Mr. Mann that it was a matter for the proper elections committee to consider and his amendment to the effect was adopted on a ye a and nay vote.

Upon motion of Mr. Goldfogle of New York a resolution was read expressing the sympathy of the American people for the distressed Russian Jews. The resolution was ordered printed in the Record and referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

When the house met at noon there was a full attendance of members present and the galleries were comfortably filled in anticipation of the reading of the message of President Roosevelt.

Representatives Humphreys (Miss.) and Claud Kitchen (N. C.) presented themselves and took the oath of office.

NEBRASKA DELEGATION GET GOOD SEATS

WASHINGTON—All members of the Nebraska delegation were present at the opening of the opening of the fifty-ninth congress. In the drawing for seats in the house the Nebraskans generally fared well in securing locations. The first to be seated was Representative Hinshaw, who drew an allotment near the seat he formerly occupied. He is surrounded by such leaders as Delzell of Pennsylvania, Payne of New York, Hull of Iowa, and ex-Speaker E. Warren Keefe of Ohio being among the last few members to draw seats. Judge Kinkaid had the misfortune to land in what is termed "the Cherokee strip," which is on the democratic side of the chamber.

Seed Dealers Make a Protest.

WASHINGTON—Thirty of the leading dealers of the country have sent President Roosevelt a petition protesting against the free distribution of seeds by members of congress, and urging him to include in his message a paragraph disapproving the present practice and recommending that only the intent of the original act authorizing seed distribution be the future policy. This intent, the petition says, was that the seeds should be obtained from remote corners of the earth for distribution.

IS MADE SPEAKER.

The Republican Caucus Again Selects Cannon.

WASHINGTON—The republican members of the Fifty-ninth congress met in caucus in the hall of the house of representatives and renominated all of the elective officers of the house who served during the last session. William P. Hepburn was again chosen chairman of the caucus. The principal feature of the evening was the speech of Joseph C. Cannon, who was for a second time unanimously chosen for speaker. The nomination of Mr. Cannon and his speech of acceptance created hearty enthusiasm among the republican members and his remarks were generally approved. In accepting the nomination, Mr. Cannon said:

"Gentlemen—One year ago, after full consideration, the people under the lead of the republican party elected its candidate for president and vice president, continued a strong majority in the senate and gave a republican majority in the house of representatives of 112. The congress will be organized on Monday next and will promptly receive the annual message from the president. I will not speculate as to what may be the contents of the message, I have no doubt it will be both wise and patriotic in its recommendations.

"The changes in the methods of production and commerce so salutary and beneficial, involving as they do the extraordinary use of combined capital, emphasizes the necessity for preventing agreements in restraint of trade, and the regulation of commerce among the states and with foreign nations. The congress, within the limits of its jurisdiction enacted legislation touching these subjects. In the fullness of time, may be, under the law as it now is and by the operation of competitive forces, that matters of difference between the corporations, the carrier, and the people they serve, would be adjusted in justice to all.

"The consensus of opinion of the people, however, is that congress has the power by amendment to the law to provide better remedies for real abuses existing, so that the producer and consumer can find a more speedy and less expensive remedy than we now have. In this opinion I for one concur. The burden is upon congress and our party having power is primarily responsible. Let us go forward. But it is our duty to see that legislation is wise in the premises, just to the corporation, just to the carrier and to the people. We cannot oppress one by foolish or unjust legislation without in the end bringing disaster upon all. We should be especially careful to not unduly interfere with the operation of the competitive forces, for after all, our very civilization rests upon it; each individual living in the sweat of his face, hustling to promote his own interest. We may regulate commerce among the states and as an incident thereto we may regulate the competitive forces. We dare not destroy them."

The officers of the house were renominated as follows:

Clerk, Alexander McDowell, Pennsylvania; sergeant at arms, Henry Casson, Wisconsin; doorkeeper, F. B. Lyon, New York; postmaster, Joseph C. McElroy, Ohio; chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, Michigan.

WEATHER BUREAU'S MONTHLY BULLETIN

WASHINGTON—The weather bureau's monthly bulletin for November summarizes crop conditions as follows:

The long continued drouth in California was relieved by generous rains near the close of the month, while a heavy fall of snow occurred throughout the northern Rocky mountain regions and thence eastward to the upper lakes.

A West Virginian's Awful Distress Through Kidney Troubles.

W. L. Jackson, merchant, of Parkersburg, W. Va., says: "Driving about in bad weather brought kidney troubles on me, and I suffered 20 years with sharp, cramping pains in the back and urinary disorders. Small Village; Small Pledge.

Here is an English story: A factory foreman used to drink inordinately; afterwards he reformed, and then there was a conspicuous relapse. His employer rebuked him for not sticking to his solemn agreement. But the man, in good faith and with perfect gravity, explained, "I only took the pledge in a small village—quite a small village, in Yorkshire."

FROM PLANT TO CIGAR.

Frank P. Lewis has recently returned from a trip through the best tobacco sections, looking over the growing fields. He noted the best crops and engaged them, and will go later to watch the curing and packing of same. He also, while there, examined some of his large holdings of old tobacco and found this to be growing richer in quality every day. The Lewis Single Binder factory probably controls more fancy graded tobacco than any other cigar factory in the United States. Smokers of Single Binders have evidently learned this fact which accounts for the ever increasing demand. In spite of the fact that the factory sends out no traveling salesman to boom its good quality to the trade, the Single Binder Sales reached seven million last year and will exceed eight million in 1906. The Single Binder sells itself. For twenty-three months this factory has been behind in its orders.—Herald-Transcript.

No Place for Her.

Convert Dogs into Lamb.

Stolen dogs are said to be sold in Paris to butchers, who sell the meat particularly the hind legs, as "lamb."

THE "COFFEE HEART."

It is as Dangerous as the Tobacco or Whisky Heart.

"Coffee heart" is common to many coffee users and is liable to send the owner to his or her long home if the drug is persisted in. You can run 30 or 40 yards and find out if your heart is troubled. A lady who was once a victim of the "coffee heart" writes from Oregon:

"I have been a habitual user of coffee all my life and have suffered very much in recent years from ailments which I became satisfied were directly due to the poison in the beverage, such as torpid liver and indigestion, which in turn made my complexion blotchy and muddy.

"Then my heart became affected. It would beat most rapidly just after I drank my coffee, and go below normal as the coffee effect wore off. Sometimes my pulse would go as high as 137 beats to the minute. My family were greatly alarmed at my condition and at last mother persuaded me to begin the use of Postum Food Coffee.

"I gave up the old coffee entirely and absolutely, and made Postum my sole table beverage. This was six months ago, and all my ills, the indigestion, inactive liver and rickety heart action, have passed away, and my complexion has become clear and natural. The improvement set in very soon after I made the change, just as soon as the coffee poison had time to work out of my system.

"My husband has also been greatly benefited by the use of Postum, and we find that a simple breakfast with Postum is as satisfying and more strengthening than the old heavier meal we used to have with the other kind of coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
