LOCAL MENTION.

Jas. Lindley of Anselmo, was a business caller Monday.
P. F. Campbell of Georgetown was a city visitor yesterday.
S. S. McConnell of Georgetown was among the city visitors last night.
Miss Christina Springer has accepted a position as clerk in H. B. Drakes dry goods store.
Mrs. Milt Whitney of Merna, remembered this office Monday with a welcome call while in the city.
We understand there has been some wholesale fence cutting in the Georgetown community this week.

Ross Humphrey, who has been attending Wesley University, returned home Friday morning on two weeks vacation.

The Degree of Honor will meet December 26th at 7:30. All members are requested to be present for the election of officers.

We are in receipt of a card from Judge Hostetler dated in Mexico, December 13, 1905. From this we infer that the Judge has gone to Mexico to spend his vacation.

Mrs. A. G. Alberts of Baraboo, Wisconsin who has been visiting in this county for a month, was a friendly caller at this office Tuesday with her brother-in-law, Fred Alberts of this city. She left for her Wisconsin home today.

Rev. L. C. H. Biggs, Sunday School Missionary, arrived in the city last Saturday remaining over until Tuesday morning. He occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon he preached in Merna returning in the evening and gave a talk to the Senior B. Y. P. U.

MARRIED—Neth—Kelsey, at the home of the brides brother, Frank Kelsey of this city, Saturday Dec. 16, 1905, Walter L. Neth and Effie Kelsey, Rev. A. M. Leveck officiating. The bride has grown up in this city and enjoys the esteem of a large circle of friends. The groom is a young man recently from Illinois, and we understand that he is a brother of Ed Neth of McKinley. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations to them wishing happy and prosperous lives together.

Look over our clubbing offer. Henry Beal is holding down a case in this office this week.

Mrs. John Campbell of Weisert was a city visitor yesterday.

W. A. Thompson and wife of Dunning arrived in this city Tuesday returning the next day.

Tony Hiderbrand of Anselmo, has bought the Advo Restaurant and has been in charge for the past week.

W. H. Andrews of Somerford has been in this city several days having a well put down on his city premises.

Mr. C. R. Deming accompanied by Miss Bertha Kooser left today for Geneva to spend Christmas with relatives and old neighbors.

Luther Miller of Cambria, Ia., was in this city Saturday with a car load of registered short horn cattle which he will sell at auction December 21 at Finlen's barn.

J. F. Spurgeon, formerly editor of The Real Estate Trade Journal Council Bluffs, Iowa, arrived in the city Tuesday to work on the REPUBLICAN, for a time at least.

C. R. Kranz, of Merna, kindly remembered the Republican office Tuesday while in the city. His daughter Anna who has been attending the Normal School at Kearney accompanied him home to spend the holidays.

Mrs. Webb of Southwestern Colorado is visiting in this community with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gibbs. She arrived last Friday. Mrs. Webb is very much pleased with her Colorado home and likes the climate very much.

J. Spain has put in a blacksmith shop, just east of his barn, on the north side. Ira Sturdevant is in charge. He informs us that he has not yet got possession of the livery barn he recently purchased but is patiently waiting.

S. P. Groat's late sale Monday was quite a success from a financial stand point and it was a splendid opportunity for those who wanted to purchase property at reasonable figures on easy terms. He sold about one-third of the three hundred lots he purchased of the Lincoln Land Co. He has about two hundred left to sell at private sale to parties wanting them. He is well pleased with the results of the sale Monday.

Merry Christmas!

To all our customers:
We thank you very much for your
