Herd Headed By
Original Bull No. 1708.

J. G. BRENZER, Breeder of Pure Scotch and Scotch Topped Short Horn Cattle. My herd numbers 40 cows. Will compare in breeding and quality with any west of Chicago. My experience has taught me that to give good satisfaction, breeding cattle must be raised to this standard. I expect to raise it in here the quantity of anything raised in the U. S. I now have 25 bulls suitable for this and next year's service. My cows weigh from 1400 to 2500 pounds. Come and see 'em.

Walter Herrick is thinking of leaving the farm and going to Ohio to attend college.

Santa Clause has an appointment this (Monday) evening at the Ash Creek school house.

One of our young men got hold of a cigar recently that was left over from election, and thought he would take a lesson in smoking. He felt too indisposed to husk corn next day.

Quite an enjoyable time was had at the McCall school house last Saturday evening. A program suitable to the season was rendered after which Santa Clause distributed presents to all those in attendance.

Charley Meek and wife, who have been working and keeping house for Mr. Landreth since last harvest, are moving to Oconto for the rest of the winter. In the spring they expect to move onto the farm of Mr. Simonson near Lomax.

Who is Jesus?

(X. Y. Z.'s reply to Mr. Harmon.)

I frankly confess I was taken somewhat by surprise, when I found that the Rev. Harmon had picked up the supposed gauntlet and answered my article, thereby acknowledging that he is the man who is teaching the erroneous doctrine, and that it is the few people who belong to the People's Liberal Association, whose strongest point in their faith is doubt. Now I am very sure that I never mentioned Mr. Harmon's name nor did I mention the People's Liberal Association once in my article. Why did Mr. Harmon suppose the article referred to his teaching? It is said, if you crack a whip when driving a lot of hogs, and you hear one squeal, you know he is hit. So it seems Mr. Harmon is hit, and that we struck the foundation of his theory the first lick, and made him squirm so he made the following contradictory statement in the same paragraph. He says, "We do not teach that Jesus was the natural son of Joseph, but what we did say, and continue to say is, that we believe him to have been Joseph's legitimate son. The words natural and legitimate are used as equivalent words and according to the primary definition which Webster gives of the word natural. So here he makes a distinction without a difference. We will call this squirm No. 1. It makes no difference what construction Mr. H. puts on either word, it places Jesus under the same conditions.

In engaging in this controversy my sole object is the fair elicitation of truth.

Mr. H. heretofore has been cautious and reserved on the subject of religion but of late he has become more bold and underneath may be observed the artfully infused poison in the golden chalice which he presents to the public.

We hope Mr. H. will stick to his proposition.
