 Thursday, January 4, 1906.

During the year just passed Broken Bow has witnessed great building prosperity in her midst. The new buildings, which reach the vicinity of one hundred have been principally dwelling houses. The year 1906, if present prospects prove good, will see as many more residences erected and several important business blocks. Among the latter in contemplation of erection is a two-story, three-room, block between the postoffice and the Custer National Bank by Morgan & Anderson and a three-room brick block by the Oddfellows and Masons with double hall in second story. The Woodmen are also planning to build a lodge room and Co. M. of the National Guards an armory.

Among the important measures that are liable to demand the attention of congress on its reconvening this week is the statehood bill. The bill ready to be reported makes Indian Territory and Oklahoma one state to be called Oklahoma and another state of New Mexico and Arizona to be one state with the name of Arizona. The consolidation of the first two territories named will not be opposed, but it is stated the democrats will strongly oppose the combining of New Mexico and Arizona.

The gold nugget story, reported by the Lincoln Daily Star, seems to have been a joke that Burns worked off on the Star reporter and John Wall. It is not disputed that Mr. Burns did receive a Christmas turkey from John Wall, the Arcadia candidate for governor, but that part of the story relating to the finding of the gold nugget in the turkey's "craw" was manufactured for the occasion. Prospecting in the sands of the Loup river will not be pushed vigorously in search of free gold.

The Russian government has overpowered the revolutionists and arrested their leaders. The struggle seems to have ended for a time at least and business in disturbed districts is resuming normal conditions and the new year sets in with brighter prospects for Russia than have appeared upon the horizon for months.

There's room for the best of us to do better in 1906 than we did in 1905. Will we strive to do it?

Monday was the day of new resolutions. Did you make them?

The Pikers Farewell.
 "The first of the 'Pikers' to leave Broken Bow will be Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carlos, who leave for Hastings, where Mr. Carlos has accepted the position of manager for the Business Men's Telephone Co.

Monday evening the members of the above club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Snyder at an informal farewell where a pleasant evening was spent. Just before good-byes were said at a late hour, Mr. Huntington, on behalf of the club, presented Mr. and Mrs. Carlos with a decoration for the walls of their new home in the form of a beautiful picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos are well known in Broken Bow as two of our best young people and although we are sorry to see them leave yet we are confident that they will find many good friends

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only hair-food you can buy. For 60 years it has been doing just what we claim it will do. It will not disappoint you.

"My hair used to be very short. But after using Ayer's Hair Vigor a short time it began to grow, and now it is fourteen inches long. This seems a splendid result to me after being almost without any hair for a year."—Miss J. H. H. 1904, Colorado Springs, Colo.

among their new associates in Hastings. Those present besides the guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Carlos, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kimberling, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. England, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Moore, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Snyder.

Married.
 At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Roberson of Lomax, on the evening of December 25th, at 7 o'clock p. m. Mr. O. M. Roberson and Miss Edith Richards, both of Lomax. The bride and groom, groomsmen, Mr. Everett Roberson and bridesmaid Miss Elma Edmisten were accompanied by a wedding march by Mrs. Chas. Waters, after which a well prepared supper was served to the many guests. Rev. John Saetens, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating.

Johnson-Stevens.—At the home of the brides mother at Callaway, Tuesday night, P. D. Johnson of Colorado and Miss Ethel May Stevens, Miss Stevens for nearly three years held a position as clerk in the Register of Deeds office under C. O. Lind until about three months ago she resigned. The REPUBLICAN joins her many friends of this city in extending congratulations.

Ryerson-Imbree.—At the residence of the groom's parents, January 1, 1906, Ramah Ryerson of Broken Bow, and Miss Mildred Imbree of Indiana, Penn., Rev. Jesse R. Teagarden, officiating. The groom is one of Broken Bow's most highly respected young men. He is a member of the firm of Ryerson Bros., proprietors of a large department store of this city and a general store at Merna. The bride is a stranger to us, but her wisdom exercised in capturing one of "Broken Bow's best young men" stamps her as worthy of the prize she has won. It was 8 o'clock p. m. when the wedding march, played by Miss Mable Holcomb announced the approach of the bridal party.

The bride was beautifully dressed in white silk Crepe De Chine and white lace. The groom looked his best in the conventional black.

The marriage ceremony was witnessed by twenty-five relatives of the bride and groom. After congratulations the guests enjoyed an elegant supper, provided with the best the season affords. The dining room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with green and white.

The REPUBLICAN joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ryerson in extending congratulations.

R. D. Pickett Promoted.
 R. D. Pickett, who for several years has filled the position of bookkeeper in the Bank of Commerce, which was succeeded by the Security State Bank has been promoted to the position of cashier of the Security State Bank to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Joe Pigman, county clerk elect.

Mr. Pickett is a young man of high moral character, strict integrity and splendid business qualifications and the REPUBLICAN is pleased to note his well earned promotion.

Farmers Institute.
 We will have a farmer's institute some time in February. There will be good premiums offered for corn exhibits and corn judging. We desire to make this a very interesting and profitable institute and wish all those interested will favor us with any suggestion they may have to offer and if you know of any one who can give us a good paper on any timely topic kindly let us know. J. D. REAM, Pres. WILLIS CADWELL, Secretary.

Want to Hold On.

All the county officers elect assumes their respective offices today except Register of Deeds John T. Wood and Supervisor R. R. Welch. C. O. Lind, register, whose time expires under the old law, refuses to vacate as does also Geo. Greenwalt, supervisor from Garfield. Welch's bond was approved by Judge Armour, but Wood's bond, which is subject to the approval of the county board was laid over as a matter of compromise between Lind and Wood. Greenwalt filed a hold over bond with the view of retaining the office if possible.

Dr. C. Pickett returned Sunday from a visit to Springfield, Mo., and Pittsburg, Kansas. He stopped at Seneca, Kansas, on his return and spent a couple of days visiting J. C. Maulick.

J. A. Kellenbarger and wife of Merna, left Tuesday morning on a months visit to Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma.

ORDINANCE NO.

An ordinance to provide for the tearing down and removal or destruction of unsafe buildings or parts of buildings, or structures, or standing walls of any sort, or signs, or awnings, or porches, or firewalls and for the abatement and removal of any obstruction of the same within the city of Broken Bow and to declare the same a nuisance and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof and to provide for the costs of enforcing or destroying such property and for notices to be served upon the owners or agents or occupiers thereof.

Section I.
 That whenever any building or part of building, or structure, or standing wall of any sort, or sign, awning, or porch or firewall within the corporate limits of the city of Broken Bow shall become, by reason of decay or otherwise or from any cause whatever, so unsafe as to be a nuisance and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof and to provide for the costs of enforcing or destroying such property and for notices to be served upon the owners or agents or occupiers thereof.

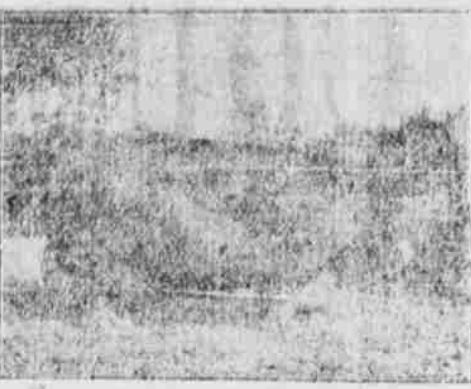

Section II.
 That whenever any building or part of building, or structure, or standing wall of any sort, or sign, awning, or porch, or firewall to be removed immediately, without notice to the owner or agent of said described property as the exigencies of the case may require.

Section III.
 The costs attendant upon the removal or abatement of such unsafe or partly as is described in this ordinance shall be paid by the owner of the property so removed and real estate upon which the same is situated and shall be collected by sale of such property either in person or by the City Marshal.

Section IV.
 The costs attendant upon the removal or abatement of such unsafe or partly as is described in this ordinance shall be paid over to the owner of such property, and such sale shall be in the manner provided by law for sales of real estate.

Section V.
 Any owner or agent of such unsafe or condemned property named herein, after being notified by the City Marshal in writing, of the unsafe condition of such property and who shall not proceed at once to abate such nuisance or to remove such unsafe property as described and contemplated in this ordinance shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $100 and stand committed until such fine and costs are paid.

Passed, adopted, approved and ordered published this 31st day of December, 1905.
 G. W. APPEL, Mayor.
 E. S. HOLCOMB, City Clerk.

EXPANSION HOG SALE

40 Brood Sows and a few Boars of the big bone and good producing kind of Poland Chinas will be at Broken Bow

Saturday, January 6th, 1906
 IN THE AFTERNOON.

This offering is as good as ever offered, consisting mostly of March and April gilts, bred to farrow in the spring.

OLD EXPANSION stands today as the greatest sire of show hogs in the west and the producer of the big-boned, great sized, big litter type of hogs that breeders and farmers all want.

EXPANSION SEE, son, weighed at 17 months old, 850 lbs, the greatest weight ever attained at that age.

A number of our brood sows weigh 700 to 800 pounds, show farm.

We have won more ribbons at the Nebraska State Fair than any other breeder in the west. We show every year and are in the business to stay.

Have been 40 years breeding hogs. We sell to you on merits. Come in and inspect our offering. Buy it if it is your kind.

A square deal to all. No hog too good for a farmer.

Hogs are now in Broken Bow, at Finlen's Barn, for inspection. Pedigree and Catalogue on day of sale.

TERMS---Usual time and interest will be given on bankable paper.

IT'S A LUCKY THING

'tis said to see the new moon over the right shoulder. It's a lucky thing too for the men of Broken Bow to have a laundry in Broken Bow that they can depend upon every time to launder their linens in the artistic manner that the Broken Bow Steam Laundry does. It is never a question of luck whether you get it in first-class condition and of faultless color and finish, but a settled fact. When you want A1 work go to the
