A. D. Bangs attended the State Agricultural meeting three days last week. He reports that they were splendid but there were too many subjects of interest crowded in the time for a person to attend them all and not unfrequently two or three meetings were held at the same time.

The Central Telephone Co., is arranging to publish a new telephone directory in the near future. J. M. Bates is now engaged in soliciting the advertising. The book will contain several hundred more names than the last one, published six months ago, and thus is a much better advertising medium.

Ira Runyan and Henry Rumery passed through the city Tuesday on their way to Mason City from Julesburg, Colorado. The boys tried farming last season by irrigation but were so well satisfied that one year was sufficient. They will try old Custer again, where irrigation is not required.

The attention of the farmers and business men are called to the Farmers Institute to be held in this city, February 14 and 15. The officers are endeavoring to make this one of the most profitable Institutes ever held in the county. The program will include some of the best informed men of the state on Agriculture and Horticulture. Begin now to arrange to attend the entire session and help make it a success.

Luther Miller, who returned recently from Cambria, Iowa, bought two car load of horses for the eastern market. He has picked up some fine animals for which he paid good prices. He bought one team of Chas. Draper of Ansley, for which he paid $300. While at Ansley he bought a mare of J. B. Tierney for which he paid $175. As he expects to ship direct to Chicago market he is only buying large horses in good flesh. They averaged him $118.

A. C. Hapgood returned Tuesday night from a business trip to Fairbury, where he accepted a position as superintendent of painting and decorating for a contracting firm at a salary of $1,000 a year. He is to commence work March 1st.

G. W. Apple has bought the Wilde building on the northeast corner of the square of H. G. Rogers. As the building has been condemned, Mr. Apple will tear it down, but just what his plans are in regard to building on the lot we are uninformed.

J. C. Predmore, of Walworth, who suddenly became tottally deaf last December, was in the city Tuesday to consult Dr. Potter, the specialist. We hope relief may be realized. Mr. Predmore is one of Custer county's most highly respected and loyal citizens.

R. E. Allen and Dan Haskell, of Arnold, were city visitors Monday. Mr. Allen had a case in court against the U. P. railroad for damages for delay in shipping cattle to Omaha. After the jury was empanelled the contending parties settled the case and the jury was withdrawn.

Millard Hill, who has been endeavoring for over a year to sever his official relations with the U. S. government as postmaster at Ortello and finally succeeded by having the office discontinued, was a county seat visitor Tuesday. Notice to Royal Highlanders. A. H. Vanlandingham has been elected secretary of the Royal Highlanders to succeed Lulu Brown, resigned. All members of Berwick castle are requested to call at the Advo grocery and pay their dues within the month to prevent suspension. 33tf

A Business Change. Mrs. B. E. Predmore has sold her millner store to Mrs. Chas. Penn for the invoice price of $3400. Mrs. Predmore has been in business here for sixteen years. Few men in the community have succeeded as well in business in that time as she has. For several years she has been investing her surplus means in farms and town property, besides building a fine residence in the northwest part of the city. She retires with several hundred acres of land, some good city property and cash sufficient for a rainy day. Her large army of patrons will regret to see her retire as she was a great friend in time of need to the worthy and her kindness was appreciated. But we predict that the new proprietor will be able to please her customers about as well as any one that could have succeeded Mrs. Predmore. 33tf

Notice. To whom it may concern: All parties are hereby notified not to purchase a note given by Walter Bence to F. C. Albert for $15 as I have lost said note and it has not been paid. 33-36 F. C. ALBERT.

Woodman Masquade. The Woodman will give a masquade ball, February 14, at the Opera House.

Barn, Horses and Cows Burn. Wednesday night of last week Dan Mauk, who lives three miles south-east of town had the misfortune to loose his barn and contents by fire.

There were six head of horses, four head of cattle, four sets of harness in the barn at the time. Two of the cattle and one of the horses escaped but were badly burned. The two cattle that were burned to death were his milch cows. It was a frame barn and contained a small quantity of hay. The entire loss was about eight hundred dollars. No insurance. The fire was started from a match. About ten o'clock at night the boy went to the barn to get a halter to tie up a horse. It being dark he struck a match to find the halter. It is supposed that the fire was ignited from the match being thrown down before it was entirely out. It was about midnight when Mr. Mauk discovered the fire by the light shining through his bed room window. It was then too late to save anything.

Married. GRISWOLD—BROWN—At the residence of L. H. Jewett, this morning at 10 o'clock, Calvin A. Griswold of Little Rock, Wash., and Miss Lula Brown, of this city. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown. For the past three or more years she has been deputy under Postmaster Jewett. She was efficient and obliging and enjoyed the esteem of a large circle of friends. The groom is a stranger to us but in his choice of a life companion he has shown good judgement. He is an engineer.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Teagarden, in the presence of a few invited guests. Miss Mable Holcomb played the wedding march.

They left on 42 at 10:43 for their home in Washington. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations.

Meetings Closed. We omitted to mention last week the close of the series of meeting at the Baptist church Sunday night week by Chaplain White of Jackson, Michigan. Rev. White proved himself to be an able and eloquent speaker and a very agreeable gentleman. There were between twenty and thirty that professed conversion in the two weeks he was here. He went from here to Kansas where he had another engagement.

Another Rural Mail Route. E. Skinner has circulated a petition for a rural mail route from Broken Bow to Elton. The petition has been forwarded to Congressman Kinkaid. While the petition does not provide for a change in Rural Route No. 2, the probabilities are that if Route No. 3 is granted Route No. 2 will be shortened at the northeast and extended south. By such a change more people can be accommodated by Route No. 2 and discommoded none as Route No. 3 will take its place.

VanCott Branching Out. J. G. VanCott has purchased Rockwell & Konkels' stock of hardware and furniture and will combine his and their stock as soon as their stock can be reduced enough so their building will accommodate both stocks, which will probably take a month or six weeks.
