Candidacy of Norris Brown

It Was Formally Launched in a Republican Mass Meeting.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Buffalo county republicans at a mass meeting Wednesday of last week:

The republicans of Buffalo county, the friends and neighbors of Hon. Norris Brown, in mass convention, assembled at Kearney, Nebraska, February, 28th, 1906, observe with pride and gratification the spontaneous expressions of public sentiment which have been made throughout the state in his favor for the office of United States senator. We take pleasure in testifying to his sterling integrity and genuine worth as a citizen and his ability and faithfulness as a public officer. Therefore be it

Resolved; That we hereby unqualifiedly endorse the official acts of Attorney General Brown and pledge him our unanimous and loyal support in his candidacy for the United States senate; that we commend him as a man faithful and conscientious in the discharge of public duties, loyal to the principles of the party he represents and worthy of the confidence and support of the people of the state.

Hon. Norris Brown, whom the people of Buffalo county have announced as a candidate for United States Senator, is a familiar character in Nebraska where his ability as a lawyer is known and where his republican principles have been fearlessly declared from the rostrum.

He was born at Maquoketa, Iowa, May 2, 1863, attended the public schools, graduated from the University of Iowa, studied law and was admitted to the bar in Iowa, October 1, 1883. He practiced law at Perry, Iowa, until April 28, 1888, when he moved to Kearney, Nebraska, where he has since resided and practiced law. In 1885 he married Lucile H. Beeler, and has two daughters in the Lincoln High School. In 1898 he ran for Congress against Congressman Greene, and in a series of joint debates with that accomplished orator attracted attention as a public speaker.

Mr. Brown was county attorney of Buffalo county for two terms, and deputy attorney general for four years. In a single year as attorney general he defeated two great railway corporations in the federal court and saved the state over $300,000 in taxes; crushed the Nebraska grain trust in a suit in the supreme court, thus securing the only competition among grain dealers in Nebraska since 1896, and saving the farmers at least two cents a bushel on all grain sold, amounting to more than $2,000,000 in a year, triumphed in a case in the supreme court requiring foreign insurance companies to pay into the state treasury reciprocal taxes amounting to $37,000; and defeated the suit brought by the sugar trusts to recover from the state $40,000 in bounties.

Norris Brown is an ideal candidate—brave, gifted, genial, upright, an untiring worker, and a staunch republican. In all relations of life, both public and private, no breath of scandal has ever been attached to his name.

Lee Park Locals.

Mr. Smallwood who owns the finest farm in Lee Park intends making a sale and will remove to the state of Washington where he will make his future home.

Our school taught by Miss Benson of Mason City is nearing the end and to appreciate her good work the scholars are making up a purse to purchase a nice present for her.

Mr. W. Hill was offered $8,000, for his farm but wants $9,000, providing he can find a farm to suit him. Mr. H. has a fine farm in the northern part of the Park and near the school with good buildings, fine pasture and plenty of good farming land.

Joseph Murray one of the oldest settlers in the Park has been ailing all winter although Mr. Murray's health is better this winter than last winter. He had to go to Arizona for his health last winter. It is to be hoped that his health will improve.

There have been several public sales in our vicinity during the winter and all of them seem to be well attended and the stock seems to be selling well. There is to be another soon—that of W. S. Delano he having stock, implements and grain for sale.

Mr. J. Bellinger who has been living in Arcadia the past two years is removing back to his fine farm and expects to remain there as it was too much trouble going to and from his farm looking after his many interests there. Mr. Bellinger has over 1300 acres of fine land.

We hear some of our farmers speaking of beginning farm work as soon as the ground shall dry off. We think, however, it is too early as we all know what Nebraska can do in a very short time when she wants to show herself when it comes to the weather proposition. Thus far she has behaved remarkably well so let's not venture out too early with our seeding.

Ryno.

Several families from this vicinity will move to the sand hills.

Ray Griffith will move from the Dean place and Mr. Gilmore will move in.

Frank Luke and Theodore Eggleston left for a short visit down on the Republican River.

Jud Clark, of Callaway, has been helping his brother-in-law, Charles Conley for a few days.

Mr. Gilmore was up recently from Tuckerville, to make arrangements about moving here soon.

Charles Smith is going to move to Broken Bow and Mr. Marquis will farm the Prettyman ranch this season.

Walter Herrick had a public sale at his fathers place a week ago Monday. He is preparing to quit farming and go to college.

George Logaw and wife are back from Pierce county. They made the trip by wagon and were very glad to get back in Custer. They expect to farm here the coming season.

C. H. Landreth had a visit from his sister, Mrs. Flora Johnstone, of Iowa, recently. They had not seen each other for twenty-three years. Mrs. Johnstone did not seem to be very favorably impressed with the country.

A Good Showing.

At Jas. Ledwich's sale of personal property held a week ago last Saturday at Filen's barn the sales amounted to $2,400 and all but $400 was paid for in cash.

The farmers are the people who have the cash in republican times.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our most sincere and heart-felt thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kind assistance and sympathy at the burial of our dearly beloved wife and mother.

We further wish to thank the W. R. C. and friends who presented flowers.

G. W. HERRSH AND CHILDREN.
