

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:
"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 60th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—It saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

SWINGING ROCK FIRMLY FIXED.

South American Natural Wonder Defied Dictator of Argentina.

One of the strangest of natural wonders of South America, is the swinging rock of Tandil (La piedra horvada), says the Philadelphia Record. The stone lies about half an hour's walk from the city of Tandil, province of Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, upon the highest summit of a little rocky ridge. When seen from the ravine it has the form of a giant pyramid, while from another view it resembles an enormous cone. It is twenty-one feet long and twenty-eight feet high, and its weight is judged to be about 12,500 hundredweight, or about 627 tons. From the distance the stone presents a peculiar aspect. It is so highly poised on the rocky slope that it seems as if we were watching a stone roll down the hill and resting for a second upon a very small base. But when we approach this swinging rock we are astonished by a new wonder. We can set the stone in motion by merely pushing it with the hand. Very often the traveler is spared even the trouble of pushing the stone, as the wind will cause it to swing.

Early in the nineteenth century the Argentine Republic was ruled by the dictator Rosa with unparalleled cruelty for about twenty-five years. To show his supreme power the tyrant ordered that the stone be encircled with ropes and many horses to be harnessed to these ropes—but the stone could not be moved one inch from its resting place.

In Old New York.
It is the custom of the New York papers to sneer at the unsophisticated doings of the people in other parts of the country. Apparently, however, judging from the revelations made in the evidence of Col. Mann in the libel case now on trial, many of the most prominent and wealthy men of the metropolis were the easiest kinds of easy marks for parties who merely proposed to write them up favorably or unfavorably, according as they paid out their cash, generously or not. It is marvelous to read how easy it was to get large sums of money ostensibly as loans or in return for certificates of stock whose value bore no proper proportion to the money paid out. That the leaders of New York society should have been held up in this way argues ill for their common sense, and at the same time shows the total lack of real value to the utterances of the so-called society journal.—Pittsburg Post.

Quoted to a Purpose.
The private secretary of the eminent statesman dropped a polite note to the railway magnate, suggesting that the eminent statesman would be pleased to be favored with an annual pass. But the railway magnate, having formulated a new policy and also having some wit, returned the application with a printed slip containing the text: "Suffer not a man to pass," and "So he paid the fare and went."

"I guess that will hold him," chuckled the railway magnate.
But the private secretary of the eminent statesman approached a railway magnate who operated a parallel line, and soon was able to drop a brief note to the first magnate. The brief note consisted of the simple text:
"And he passed by on the other side."

Too Cheap.
An Omaha man who claims he can live on nine cents a day has received hundreds of letters from women who want to marry him. This seems to prove the statement that there are a great many women in this country who would be glad to marry if they could afford to support a husband. Many of these women presumably earn almost enough to warrant them in securing one of these luxuries, and a man who can be fed for 63 cents a week, or something like $2.50 a month, strongly appeals to them.
At the same time a 9-cent a day man seems to be too much of a bargain to be really attractive to the careful purchaser.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sacrifice Imperative.
It was her first proposal, and, although somewhat rattled, she remembered the proprieties.
"You would give up everything for me?" she asked.
He answered her that he would.
"Even smoking?"
"I couldn't do that."
"Sir!"
"No; for I never smoked."
Then he had to promise to learn to smoke so as to have something to sacrifice. And in the heart of each the joy bells rang.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Everything Worn.
"And you still delay the wedding," sighed the beautiful girl. "My heart is worn out."
"Is that all?" demanded the suitor who was an advocate of procrastination.
"No, the carpet is worn out, the parlor sofa is worn out, ma's hopes are worn out and pa's patience is worn out."
The suitor whistled.
"Well, by gum!" he retorted. "My shoes are worn out coming here every two or three nights."
Haakon and the Hawkinses.
You pronounce the double "aa" in Haakon like "aw" in "awful" and the "la" in Claf as "laugh." The two names fall on the ear as "Hawkin" and "O-laugh." The numerous Hawkinses are descended from marauding crews of Northern who flew on their flat bottomed boats not the raver but the hawk flag.—London Truth.

WORST FORM OF ECZEMA.

Black Spots All Over Face—Affected Parts Now Clear as Ever—Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black spots all over my face and a few covering my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of annoyance and suffering, to such an extent that I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of my town. After a thorough examination of the dreaded complaint they announced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. They treated me for the same for the length of one year, but the treatment did me no good. Finally my husband purchased a set of the Cuticura Remedies, and after using the contents of the first bottle of Cuticura Resolvent in connection with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, the breaking out entirely stopped. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every spot was entirely gone and the affected parts were left as clear as ever. The Cuticura Remedies not only cured me of that dreadful disease, eczema, but other complicated troubles as well. Lizzie E. Sledge, 540 Jones Ave., Selma, Ala. Oct. 28, 1905."

Unprecedented Action.

"Young Boomwaller is a rank failure as a legislator!" indignantly said the Hon. Thomas Rott. "Why, when in the course of debate I denominated him a falsifier he struck me on the nose, when, if he had been at all acquainted with parliamentary usage, he would have known that it was permissible only to hurl the calumny back in my teeth! There is a yellow streak in that fellow, as sure as you are born!"—Puck.
