The Woman Question.

Women's Clubs all over the country are joining in a demand on Congress for a Federal investigation of the industrial condition of Women. A number of petitions from Nebraska women appeared last week—REPUBLICAN, 4-5-06.

How would it do for the Woman's Clubs to investigate and see how many are good cooks, housekeepers, etc.

SUBSCRIBER.

In recording the above news item the REPUBLICAN had no thought of evoking a controversy but if Subscriber will compare the present condition of women with their condition fifty years ago he must concede that they enjoy a great many privileges now that they did not then. Their enjoyment of life in a higher atmosphere of knowledge, refinement and usefulness is appreciated by a very large percent of their brethren. They fill many positions in public life that men could not supply. The office girl is in demand everywhere because of her special fitness for the work. Their rise in the literary world has created a friendly rivalry that spurs their brothers to greater efforts to attain efficiencies. Women's present attainments have been secured by that patient and energy that commands the admiration of the progressive world. In fact the male population of this country has reason to feel alarm for their future supremacy. Every high school and college is annually graduating five girls to one boy. The girls are improving their opportunities to educate themselves for the higher duties of life. Unless the boys are made to realize the situation and prepare themselves for the duties of this progressive age, ere another fifty years they will be doing the cooking, washing the dishes, mending the stockings and caring for the children with other household duties while their wives will be filling the executive chairs and the legislative assemblies.

Yet until that time does come their education along the lines suggested by Subscriber should not be neglected. There are few girls but who look forward to the time when she will become the happy wife of some industrious, wide awake, intelligent and prosperous young man. To preside over the home of such a man, efficiency in music and letters are not the only accomplishments required to make the home happy. It is indispensable that she should be just as efficient in cooking and the general work of a house wife. What she lacks in these will detract from the home.

No mother will have discharged her full duty to her daughter until she has taught her the details of housekeeping, the same as every son should be schooled in some special work or trade. But when the girls have become skilled in house keeping they should not be discouraged in their aspirations to fill positions in public life for which they are qualified that will broaden their usefulness and give them practical knowledge of life.

Her later life was one of plenty and sufficient wealth. Her late illness which she bore with great patience and suffering was a complication of diseases. All that loving hearts and willing hands could do was done. She was a devoted wife, an affectionate mother, a loving friend and in all stations of life she well filled her part.

She left four children to mourn her death. One son, Oatis, of Wheeland, Wyo.; Mrs. Eva Funk, of Ill.; Mrs. Della Hubert, of Austin, Nebraska, and Mrs. Ruth Straight, who lived with her at home.

Her remains were laid to rest in the New Helena cemetery. We bade her goodby and left her asleep. MRS. C. A. TUPPER.

Tabernacle Meetings Closed.

Last Sunday evening brought to a close the most successful and inspiring evangelistic campaign ever held in this city. For the last three weeks special services have been conducted by Rev. Lincoln McConnell, assisted by Mr. L. G. Jones, soloist and choir director, in a tabernacle erected for the campaign and seating 1200 people.

Mr. McConnell, invited by the ministers of several churches of the town to conduct union services, began work in the Methodist church. On finding that this building was not large enough to accommodate, steps were at once taken to build a temporary structure. Amidst much criticism and prophesying of failure, of many deaths through exposure, the tabernacle which was to be the town's church home was erected.

What have been the result of these meetings? Have they justified the expense and labor entailed? It may be safely said that Broken Bow is a better town today than it was a month ago. A stronger moral tide has set in, homes have been brightened and blessed, many have sought and found Christ, many are now seriously considering their relation to God. Night after night for the past weeks congregations numbering as high as 1500 have met to hear the word of life preached and sung. The talk of the town has been the "meeting." Many could be seen hurrying to the tabernacle half an hour before the set time in order to secure a front seat. So great has been the interest that a three hours service only increased and deepened the enthusiasm.

The addresses of Mr. McConnell were a splendid combination of logic, science, scripture, apt illustration and keen mother wit. His appeals to the conscience, to the intellect, to the best in a man showed that he understood the get up of a man. Evangelist McConnell is a man of brain and heart.

The hearty singing of the large chorus choir conducted by Mr. Jones contributed to the success of the services. Mr. Jones has proved himself to be a conductor of no mean order. His solo singing was characterized by sympathetic rendering and clear enunciation.

The free will offering received on Sunday amounted to $1,205. The total number of those who came forward expressing a desire to live a better life is 412. On Sunday evening the last night of the mission the ministerial conference passed the following resolution:

As pastors we desire to express our high esteem of Rev. Lincoln McConnell and Mr. L. G. Jones, who so ably and efficiently led us in this evangelistic campaign. We consider Mr. McConnell to be a man among men, an able preacher of the word of God and an untiring worker. His relation to us has been all that could be desired. The terms of his coming have been fulfilled to the letter. We heartily endorse his work and methods and wish him God speed. We also bear testimony to Mr. Jones, who has conducted the singing to the satisfaction of all. His solos have been one of the helpful features of these services.

Obituary.

Mrs. A. E. Scoville, died at her home near Anselmo, March 29, 1906, age 77 years. Her funeral was held Sunday, March 31, at her late home. It was largely attended by her many friends and neighbors. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. John Hancy, assisted by Rev. Gissell, who bore testimony of her many excellencies and of her Christian character as well as to her patience in suffering and to her abiding faith in Heaven.

Mrs. Scoville was born in northern New York, February 15, 1829. She was married to A. E. Scoville, February 15, 1849. She with her husband moved to Ill. in 1857 and to Nebraska in 1880. Her husband died March 31, 1891. In early life she was schooled in the habits of industry and integrity and given such discipline as enabled her to make her life well and well she did it. Since the death of her husband she and her daughter Ruth, have worked zealously to make a home. The life of a pioneer at best is inglorious, but as often and usually to the worthy comes glory so to Mrs. Scoville. The last few years came glory to her as a laurel wreath well earned through years of hard work and activity.

Created With a Large Crowd.

Evangelist McConnell was greeted with a large crowd at his lecture given in the tabernacle Monday night. The required admission fee did not seem to diminish the attendance in the least. He and Mrs. McConnell and son and his musical director, Loren Jones, left for the south on 44 after the lecture. He promised the audience that he would stop off here on June 8, and deliver a lecture for the benefit of the Young Man's Christian Club, if they would arrange and fit up reading and bath rooms in connection for the benefit of the young men. He designated Ross Pickett, of the Security State Bank, as the temporary secretary of the organization to enroll those who desire to become members. The age limit is from 99 down.

A Close Call.

Lief Clinebell was confined to the bed from Sunday evening until Tuesday morning by a fall received in front of the Custer National Bank. He with a large number who could not crowd into the tabernacle Sunday night, were standing on the walk in front. Young Burton came up to Clinebell and caught him around the legs in an effort to lift him. As Clinebell had his hands in his pockets he was not in position to protect himself and being too heavy for the boy he fell backwards striking his head on the stone pavement and rendered unconscious. He was carried to Robinson Bros. restaurant and a doctor called when he was restored to consciousness. At first it was thought his skull was fractured, but there is no external indications to that effect and after being confined to bed for two nights and a day was able to be out.

Christian Church.

Regular preaching services will be held at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

County Supt. Pinckney on Crutches.

County Superintendent Pinckney met with quite a serious accident on Wednesday of last week. He had just started to Redfern where he was billed for a lecture that evening. When he reached the railroad crossing a bolt holding the tongue of the buggy came out which excited his team and they started to run. Mr. Pinckney was thrown out. The bone of his right ankle was fractured and the ligaments on the opposite side of the ankle were sprained. He was able for the first time to get out of the house Monday by the use of crutches. His limb is badly swollen yet and it will be several weeks before he will be able to use it.

A Fund for the Japs.

We have been requested to receive contributions for the Japs in response to the appeal of our President to the citizens of the United States and the proclamation of Gov. Mickey, calling upon the people of Nebraska to make generous contributions for the 2,000,000 suffering people in northern Japan.

In order that the people of Broken Bow and vicinity may have an opportunity to contribute to this call for help the REPUBLICAN will receive such contributions that any may be disposed to make and forward the same to F. M. Sisson, Chaplain of the First Regiment, Nebraska National Guards, at South Omaha, who has been appointed to take charge of the Nebraska contributions.

From week to week we will publish the names and amounts contributed—if a sufficient response justifies it.
