The man who has a velvety lawn in front of his residence and well kept grounds probably gets more enjoyment from its beauty than his neighbors—except the providing it and working to keep it attractive—but he does add much to the beauty of the city and gives enjoyment to every individual who passes by his door.

Our old friend, W. J. Rice, the sage of the West Table, and a veteran politician, was in the city Tuesday on a business proposition and reported that farmers in his neck-o'-woods are actively engaged in preparing for the crop campaign—getting ready as it were, to tickle the soil of good old Custer county.

Chas. O. Jones, day operator at the depot, received word last week that his sister, residing at Bingham, near Alliance, was ill, and Mrs. Jones went there last Saturday night with the intention of bringing her here for treatment, but found her too weak to come at present. But on Monday she received another telegram that her mother was dead and she left for Boise Monday afternoon. Epley and wife desire to thank the Christians of Custer Center and the people of the community and especially the committee who had the matter in hand, for a cash donation amounting to $40.80 besides supplies and other gifts amounting to several dollars more which were recently presented to them. This makes a cash donation of nearly $60 raised at this point for Mr. Epley and wife during the past few months. Sheriff Richardson received a telegram from the clerk of the Supreme Court to arrest Scott Haddix, this a. m.

The case was appealed to the Supreme Court and a stay of execution granted. The defendant gave a bail bond of $7,000 and was released.
