Victor Rosewater has announced that his father, Edward Rosewater, who is now in Rome, representing the United States in the Universal Postal Congress, will be a candidate for United States Senator. This evidently means a lively campaign in Douglas county. It is announced that Senator Millard will be a candidate for reelection. The Senator has a very large following in Douglas county, among whom are some of the best political workers in the state.

Rosewater's Announcement

The following announcement appeared in the Omaha Bee on May 7th under the following heading:

"Edward Rosewater for Senator.

Many people in all parts of Nebraska have for some time been urging that Edward Rosewater become their candidate for United States senate. Responding to these requests, I hereby announce for my father, in his absence at Rome as the official representative of the United States at the Universal Postal congress, that a delegation will be offered for the endorsement of the republicans of Douglas county and invite the co-operation of Roosevelt republicans throughout the state for his nomination in state convention.

The position of Edward Rosewater on public questions is too well known to require recital. For more than a third of a century he has been working as a consistent republican, in season and out of season, for the very measures that constitute the principal features of the legislation program now advocated by President Roosevelt. His whole political career has been an unremitting battle for the common people as against the domination of corporate interests and the encroachment of overgreedy capital.

All the property interests of Mr. Rosewater are in Nebraska, to whose upbuilding he has devoted his life energy, and as senator he would have no interests elsewhere to divert or divide his attention. His intimate familiarity with the resources and needs of Nebraska and his wide personal acquaintance with influential public men should make him most useful in the service of his fellow citizens as their representative in Washington. Were it not for the conviction that he could in that capacity accomplish substantial good for the development and prosperity of Nebraska and the west he would not consent to submit his name for consideration.

One thing more should be distinctly understood in advance. Mr. Rosewater will not enter into a contest of dollars to secure the nomination for United States senator; he could not if he would and would not if he could. He will look to the whole people of Nebraska, to the wage workers, the farmers and producers, whom he has championed for so many years, as well as to the substantial business interests, to rally to his support. But neither will he be a mere passive candidate. A vigorous effort will be made in his behalf, if necessary, both in his home county and in other counties.

All Nebraskans who want their state represented in the United States senate by a man of mental vigor and positive opinions on every important question of the hour, who at the same time is absolutely free from corporation strings, are cordially invited to join in this movement. I also invite all in accord with Mr. Rosewater's candidacy to communicate with me.

—Victor Rosewater.

Obituary

Minor Taylor was born near Rochester, Michigan, February 26, 1825, and died May 4th, 1906, being 81 years, 2 months and 9 days old.

He was married to Anna Norder, at Jordan, Wisconsin, in 1848. Two children were born of this union, Mrs. Louisa Wiggins, of Cooper, Iowa; Elisha Taylor, of Broken Bow.

Five years later his wife died, the two children is still surviving them.

He was again married in 1856 to Lenora Stearns, of Juda, Wisconsin. Nine children were born of this union, viz: Jerome, Frank, Willis, Allen and Nellie Taylor, Julia Wells, Althea Bell, Jessie Dietz and Hettie Jacobs, all of whom together with his wife survive him, except Julia Wells. He was a soldier in the Union army of the 60's.

In 1883 he moved from Wisconsin to Kearney, Nebraska, where he resided until 1889, when he moved to Broken Bow, near where he has since lived.

He was a man of strong convictions and a fearless and strong advocate of his views. For a number of years he was a member of the Baptist church and a believer in the Christian religion and until his death he maintained high ideals of integrity and morality and was a strict prohibitionist. Ever since we have known him he has been a strong believer in spiritualism. He was an independent in politics and for a time was an active worker in the populist party, but of late years he favored socialism.

Withal he was a good citizen and enjoyed the respect of his neighbors. He had secured a sufficient amount of wealth to

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood, instead of being removed from the body daily as nature intended. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills, liver pills. All vegetable.

His funeral was held at the Custer Center church, Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Harmon, assisted by Rev's. Epley and Sanders.

The funeral was largely at-Ryno.

Mr. Davison and family left Monday for Alberta, after a residence of twenty-three years in Custer County. We may confidently look for him back in a little while.

An Omaha man, peddling watches, visited Ryno last Friday, but did not tarry long.

Victor Landreth had the misfortune to sprain his wrist last Saturday.

Sam Thomas is back from Lincoln county, looking after his interests here. His father talks of moving out there if he can dispose of his property on Ash Creek at a satisfactory price.

Mr. Huff had quite an encounter with a vicious bull a while back. The animal caught him in the pasture without any means of defense. Mr. H. backed up to a high bank and rolled off and then sprinted to the fence ahead of the bull. A recourse to the shot gun and deborning knife cooled the angry animal.

How About Your Lawn Mower? Does it need Sharpening? Having purchased and placed in operation, in my wagon shop, a new Ideal Power Lawn Mower Sharpener I am prepared to do first-class work in the line of sharpening lawn mower knives. There is Nothing Like It on the Market. By its use each blade is sharpened alike, the bevel on the knives being kept at the same degree all along the knife. All high and low spots are taken out and any degree of clearance can be given the blade so a lawn mower will run and cut easier than when new. More good lawn mowers are spoiled by bunglesome sharpening than by the work they do. Bring your cranky mower to me. Fred H. Ream, JOHNSON'S OLD STAND.
