ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself a candidate representative of the 56 Representative district of Nebraska, subject to the will of the Republican district convention.
WM. WARREN,
 4t. Triumph Township, Neb.

Steer Clear of the Radicals.

There seems to be no scarcity in gubernatorial candidates. Those already announced are John Wall, of Valley county; Geo. L. Rouse, of Hall county; Senator Sheldon, of Nemaha county; Ex-Com., Weston, Mayor Miles, of Hastings, Senator Steele of Fairbury and Mr. Conway of York. This is a fine list to select from and there is but little doubt but the republican state convention will exercise good judgment in making its choice. The party should steer clear of the most radical and select one who is level headed, conservative and has courage to carry out the will of the people.

It is not always safe to select the one who makes the most noise. The same is true in making the choice of United States Senator.

The republican party is in a position at the present time that demands very careful and wise council to avoid the breakers ahead. There is a growing sentiment of radicalism abroad that is calculated to weaken rather than strengthen republicanism in the state. We do not mean there should be a backward step in the matter against corporation control, or for just and equitable legislation that will protect the interests of the producer and business men.

What the party needs just now are men who are conservative, yet able and courageous men who are judicious and have the courage of their convictions, who will serve the interests of the people, guarding the just and equitable rights of all classes of business.

But from the experience of the populists a few years ago, as well as from our better judgment, we have learned that the radical ones are not the best, in whose charge should be entrusted the affairs of the government. The republican party has its Shraders, Kem's, Bill Green's and Porter's within its ranks and judging from their recent declarations some of them have senatorial and gubernatorial aspirations.

The republican party should steer clear of that class in selecting its candidates.

It was the radical element that killed off the populist party and should the same class get control of the republican party similar results may be expected.

We have aspirants for state and senatorial honors who are with the people that are not resorting to demagogic methods to promote their individual interests. Look them up and see that they are chosen for the standard bearers of the republican party this year and the result of the election need not be feared.

Edward Rosewater won a signal victory yesterday in the primaries in Douglas county. All his delegates to the state conventions were elected by large majorities over the Crouse delegates.

C. L. Gutterson has consented to allow his name to go before the Republican County Convention as candidate for county attorney. His nomination would mean certain election.

Fourth of July.

The national holiday was appropriately observed in Broken Bow under the auspices of members of the G. A. R. in the park. The exercises consisted in reading of the declarations of Independence by Mr. N. T. Gadd, speech by Judge Cowles, music by Rahma Reyerson, Mrs. Langston and others.

A shower of pennies for the little folks ended the exercises before dinner.

A table was constructed and dinner was spread for the crowd. A ball game in the afternoon attracted a good crowd. It was played by the High school and a picked nine. The proceeds from the entrance fees was appropriated for fire works, which were exploded from the reservoir in the evening. Besides there were private enterprises that kept up a fusillade on main street until a late hour.

Jules Haumont reports a large crowd at Mosley's Grove yesterday. A fine program was rendered, consisting in recitations, music and an oration, by Rev. Epley. A ball game between the boys of Round and Swiss Valleys vs. the Dutchmen resulted in favor of the former. Another game was played between the victors and Elton resulted in favor of the Elton boys.

Mason City had a large crowd yesterday and a big time was enjoyed. Judge Sullivan was orator of the day. The Colonial parade was fine. Two ball games in the afternoon were played. The first game was Merna vs. Ravena, Merna coming out best. The second game was Merna vs. Ansley, the latter winning the $50 prize. The ring sparring contest was exciting and a number competed for the prizes, among whom was Miss Spencer.

Drawing For Crow Lands.

In the first days drawing at Billings, Montana, which was last Tuesday, four citizens of Custer county were among those who drew. They are George Wright, J. B. Henderickson, C. C. Cooper of Ansley and N. D. Hooker of Oconto.

The man that drew No. 1 is Owen B. Williams of Custer, Mont. He is a section foreman in the employ of the Northern Pacific railroad. As $10,000 was made a standing offer for No. 1 Mr. Williams will be able to retire from the section.

A Business Change.

Jas. Peale has bought Dan Keelin's restaurant he took possession Tuesday. Mr. Keelin thinks he has served his time in the business and will take a rest. After accompanying Co. M to Fort Riley next month. He expects to visit a sister in Iowa that he has not seen for twenty years.

The restaurant business is new to Mr. Peale but we predict that his place will soon become a popular resort for the hungry.

Hail Damages Crops.

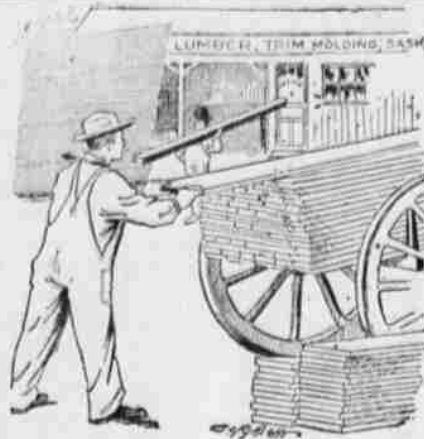

It is reported that severe hail storm struck about four miles north of Merna and mowed a strip six miles long and a mile wide, completely ruining the small grain and greatly damaging the corn. About four miles northeast of Broken Bow a strip about half mile wide did considerable damage. M. D. Callen lost 25 acres of oats and W. W. Bishop 30 acres. Nine McComas says his garden was beat down flat. The corn was badly damaged in the strip, but it will come out again with favorable weather. We understand that I. N. Pershall & Son's corn northeast of town was badly cut. They think their crop will not make more than a half crop.

WILL DRIVE AN OSTRICH.

Jac'sonville, an Ostrich With a 2;12 Record will Show His Speed at the Custer County Fair.

W. W. Ford, who represents an ostrich farm at Jacksonville, Fla., and who has seventeen ostriches at Dreemland, will give a driving exhibition at that resort today. Two ostriches have been broken, one for driving and the other for riding. Jacksonville, the ostrich Mr. Ford will drive, has a record of 2:12, made last year on the Old Point Breeze track, at Philadelphia. The ostrich raced against a horse with a record of 2:07.

The ostrich is driven to a Martin Payne four-wheel speed wagon with pneumatic tires. The harness used consists of a halter without bit, the reins snapping into a ring on each side of the beak, breast collar, saddle, surcingle, girth and crupper and traces.—New York Herald, July, 1905.

This ostrich will be driven at the Custer county fair. Do not fail to see the race.
