represents the total number of sales recorded up to date at

H. B. Drake's Great Mill End Sale,

and the total number of dollars taken in have surpassed our most sanguine expectations. We wish to thank the good people of this vicinity for the expressed appreciation of our efforts to occasionally give them a season of shopping opportunities such as they might expect in the larger cities.

SATURDAY, JULY 7th, will be the last day of this great sale, and it will also be the greatest day of the sale for Bargains. We never aim to carry over any goods from one season to another, and in order to "Lick the Platter Clean" we will try to have a price on all Remnants and Odd Lots that will MAKE THEM SKEDADDLE.

PLENTY OF MILL ENDS AT 2½ CENTS A YARD

are in stock to run through the sale, and we have received Specially for Saturday a nice bunch of long lengths in Calicos which will be distributed during the day at 2 1 2 cents a yard.

It seems to be the general impression that we will have a

Free Grab on Mill Ends

during the last day of the sale, and as we never like to disappoint the public we have set aside a nice bunch of Mill Ends for this purpose, and will, Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock,

Make Mill Ends Absolutely FREE.

Be on hand when the big sign, "MILL ENDS FREE" goes up, to see the fun and get your share.

ANOTHER SEASON IS APPROACHING

and we will soon be off for the Eastern Markets for our Fall Stocks. In selecting a place to make your future purchases just "get in the wagon" with the only house that ever hands you out a bunch of bargains.

YOURS FOR FUTURE BUSINESS,

H. B. DRAKE,
