

Choose Your Paint Yourself

A man should take such precautions as he can to safeguard any investment he makes. A house owner's expense for painting is very often larger than it would be if he personally looked after the material put upon it. There is often a difference of three years in the wearing of two different paints. Certainly, in this case, time is money. If you will see that Pure White Lead mixed with Pure Linseed Oil is used on your house, you will place your painting bills on a reasonable basis. You can tell the pure lead from the adulterated kind by the brand. The standard brands by which others have been judged for years are Twenty-three Years Ago.

The following items were published in the REPUBLICAN 23 years ago:

"Another new post office in Custer county. This time it is located at Somerford, with James Pierce as postmaster." Although twenty three years has passed the same postmaster, Jas. Pierce is looking after Uncle Sam's interests at Somerford—where he has built up a fine home and is in easy circumstances, with his children on farms around him.

"A. W. Gandy has the carpenters hard at work on his new residence, north of the Muddy. It will be 26x26 feet two stories in height. The location is a very pleasant one." The building above mentioned is the one now occupied by C. W. Luce. After selling his land to the Lincoln Town Site company Mr. Gandy built a large house in the south part of the city, where his widow now resides.

E. Varney, merchant, and daughter, of Westerville, spent last Sunday in town visiting G. W. Trefren's.

Major Ellison, of Algernon, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Mr. Riverton, of Pennsylvania, called on Tuesday. The Major reports the hail storm on the 12th did considerable damage in his neighborhood.

O. K. Granger returned a few days since with his bride from Ohio.

The county official directory twenty-three years of the following: Wilson Hewitt, county clerk; J. S. Benjamin, county judge; Jesse Gandy, sheriff; J. S. Kirkpatrick, county attorney; D. M. Amsberry, supt. of schools; Dr. T. N. Waterbury, coroner; county commissioners, L. W. F. Cole chairman, Jas. L. Oxford, Jas. D. Haskell.

The names of the republican central committee twenty three years ago were as follows: Dist. No. 1, S. C. Stuckey; No. 2, B. L. Brisbane; No. 3, C. A. Hall; No. 4, Lewis Wambgsang; No. 5, Isaac Merchant; No. 6, J. W. Norton; No. 7, T. Woodard; No. 8, W. F. Slingsby; No. 9, D. M. Amsberry; No. 10, C. H. Jeffords; No. 11, Jud Kay; No. 12, M. H. Deem; No. 13, Alvin Harris; No. 14, A. W. Squires; No. 15, W. H. Road; No. 16; J. L. Cobb. Benj. L. Brisbane was chairman of the committee and D. M. Amsberry, secretary.

The W. C. T. U. society held its meeting at the residence of Mrs. John Wests last Saturday. Mrs. H. F. Miller was elected president; Mrs. J. Benjamin, vice-president; Mrs. Geo. Trefren, secretary; Mrs. J. West, treasurer; and Mrs. Hutchinson, corresponding secretary. It was voted to commence active work in behalf of a circulating library and an entertainment will be given at the hall Saturday evening, July 28, to raise means to assist in the work." This probably was the first move to establish the city library which now has several hundred volumes.

Mr. Bates, who lives fourteen miles north of town while coming home from West Union on the 12th was caught in a hail and rain storm. A large hail stone struck him on the right arm between the elbow and shoulder, bruising and causing the blood to flow. He thought his arm was broken, but examination found it was not, yet he will have to carry his arm in a sling for some time.

The Ortelto items says Ortelto is looming up and crops look splendid. D. F. Weimer, M. Jacquot and Wm. Lohr have arrived home from Kearney, each with a wagon loaded with a Halliday wind mill, which they expect to have running at their respective farms in a few weeks.

Obituary.

James J. Johnson was born September 12, 1820, in Jackson county, Ohio. On the morning of June 26, 1906, he died, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charlie Chapman, three miles south of Walworth. He was married to Mary A. Corbett, of Virginia, on January 9, 1840. To this union was born ten children.

About twenty years ago he came to Custer county and resided on the farm adjoining the one where he died. He remained there until age compelled him to give up work since which time he has lived with his children.

Three weeks previous to his death, he came to his daughter's to spend his remaining days, which were very few. For about 60 years he was an active church worker, which is a record few have.

He leaves an aged wife and seven children to mourn his loss.
