

UNCLE SAM'S CONSUL! OPERA HOUSE, BROKEN BOW, THURSDAY NIGHT, SEPT 20.

Reserved Seats Now on Sale at Baisch's and Groat's Stores.

The Leaves are Turning Brown

A Poet Would Soliloquize: "Let 'Em Turn," But The Mind of the More Practical Citizen is Busy With Thoughts of Winter Underwear.

The Dennis murder trial has been set for Wednesday of next week.

The school bell is again heard in the land by those not too deaf to hear.

The Custer Baptist association will meet with the Mason church Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mause has sold her residence property, two blocks south of the square, to Dr. R. B. Mullins.

Mrs. Lizzie Langston, returned home yesterday from a visit of a week at Chadron, where she formerly resided.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Bass left last Thursday for Lincoln, where the doctor will practice dentistry in the office of Dr. Davis.

S. K. Warrick, of Alliance, cashier of the Broken Bow State bank, was in the city Tuesday attending to bank business.

Miss Zuie Holcomb reached home Monday from Shelton, Nebr., after visiting for a week with Rev. and Mrs. W. H. D. Hornady.

L. E. Koon, formerly of this city, who is now auditor of the Advent Publishing house was in the city the first of the week, renewing old acquaintances.

C. S. Ellison, of Ansley, went to Omaha last week to consult a specialist and, if necessary, undergo an operation for an operation for a growth on his left eye.

Geo. Willing bought eight gilts and one male Poland China hogs while at the state fair last week. One of the gilts took first premium under the six month's class.

Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Williams, of Tabor, Iowa, arrived Wednesday last week for a visit of two weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Annie McWilliams, who resides four miles from the city.

Mrs. Geo. Zahn, who formerly conducted a millinery store on the west side of the square in this city, has accepted the position of trimmer in the store of C. J. Stevens & Co., at Ansley.

Miss Claire Andreas, of Gordon, Nebr., is in the city to visit her sister, Mrs. H. D. Huntington, until after the big Custer county fair when she will go to Omaha and attend the Ak-sar-ben festivities.

E. F. Myers, of Georgetown, has been visiting for several days in the city with his old acquaintances and schoolmates. He will return in a few days to Massachusetts where he completes his law studies this year.

Hunters are not going out after prairie hens in great numbers nor very frequently. The days are so frightfully hot that fowls killed before 3 o'clock in the afternoon are tainted by the time the cool of evening arrives.

Charles E. Ford, of Chicago, president of the Broken Bow State bank, arrived in the city Tuesday morning and tarried only for one day. He found everything in connection with the institution in admirable condition and came to the conclusion that his presence was unnecessary.

Rev. Levack returned Monday night from Nora Springs, Iowa, where he spent two weeks with the Baptist church of that place. He is very favorably impressed with the country and church prospects. A unanimous call was extended him there, but he has not yet fully decided whether he will accept.

Callaway is to have a water works system. The question of issuing bonds in the sum of $7,500 was submitted to the people and they voted 89 for and 11 against the proposition. This is a move in the right direction toward the making of a city. If there's anything detrimental to the growth of a town it's the voting down of a good proposition. This is a move in the right direction toward the making of a city. If there's anything detrimental to the growth of a town it's the voting down of a good proposition, like the electric light question in Broken Bow, frinstance.

J. H. McGuire, of Arnold, is in the city this week attending court as juror.

Tom Mullins went to Grand Island Monday to attend the Baptist college.

N. B. Predmore, of West Union, was over Monday. While in the city he purchased 40 acres of government land, located in his pasture.

District court convened Monday, with Judge Hostetler presiding. It is a jury term and several important cases are on the docket to be disposed of.

The sprinkle Tuesday was welcome in this bailiwick and served to freshen the atmosphere, which had not been done by a rainfall for more than two weeks—quite a dry spell for these parts.

Jesse Gandy was at Lincoln last week attending the state fair and Bryan's reception. He, with a few others from Custer county, made a personal call on Mr. Bryan at his home Friday morning.

Chas. T. Stewart, of the firm of Haskell & Stewart, Lena, Nebr., was transacting business Monday with the U. S. land office. He purchased at public auction 80 acres of an isolated tract.

If you desire a seat outside "nigger heaven" at the Opera house next Thursday night to witness the production of "Uncle Sam's Consul" you should not delay in having it reserved at either Baisch's or Groat's store. Seats are being taken rapidly.

Miss Jennie Geeseman, of Ansley, assumed the duties of clerk in the Broken Bow post-office last Monday. Of her the Ansley Chronicle says: "Miss Geeseman is a competent young lady and has had several years experience in the Ansley post-office."

Rev. A. J. Hargett, who has supplied the Christian church pulpit the past two months, will go to Lincoln to take a post-graduate course at the State University. He is succeeded by Rev. L. N. Early, of Kentucky, who will preach at the church next Sunday forenoon and remain permanently.

L. M. Bond, traveling auditor of the J. R. Watkins Medical Co., was here the first of the week to look after the companies business in this vicinity. He made F. R. Huxtable, who for several years has been in charge of the company's business here, a flattering offer to remain with the company.

Ed. McCormick, upon whom an operation for appendicitis was performed last Sunday, was very low Tuesday, but there was a change in his condition for the better that night and he is now reported as "doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances."

If you are not ready to come to the big Custer county fair, better hump yourself and get ready 'cause it will be doin' in less than two weeks and your friends are sure coming, even if they bust the whiffle-trees, to see the ostrich beat a hoss in a trotting race. The fair begins the 25th and quits the 28th.

There are many vacant lots in Broken Bow which should be mowed at this time of year. The weeds are tall and going to seed and will be scattered broadcast. This rank vegetation will also catch and hold the snows this winter and help to place the adjoining walks in bad condition. It would add much to the attractiveness of the city now and in the future if the weeds were cut down now.

Robert Frey, who mysteriously disappeared at a railroad wreck at Yuma, Colorado, the latter part of last week, was found near the wreck, unhurt. Mr. Frey was engineer on the train and when the collision came, instead of being buried under the wreck as was at first thought, he jumped and escaped to a place of safety. His brother, Will, of this vicinity was telegraphed and went at once to the scene, but when he arrived found Robert badly scared but not hurt.

Don't forget—your team and vehicle goes in free at the big Custer county fair.

Kendrix Kimball, of Ansley, visited a few days last week with his brother, Harry, the North side picture frame man.

H. B. Iszard went to Ravenna Monday and arranged for the production of "Uncle Sam's Consul" by the Amaranth Dramatic Stock Co., in that city next Tuesday night.

The speed program at the county fair will be the best ever. The dates are so late that other fairs have nearly all been held and as a result there will be more entries in the races than ever before. This is now assured and authoritatively stated, the statement being based upon the fact that more entries have already been made in the speed class than at any fair ever held in the county.

Will Resign as City Marshal. At the meeting of the city council last night Marshal Carnon tendered his resignation, which was accepted and there is naturally much surmising as to who will be named to wear the star. There seems to be a desire on the part of business men that P. M. Towsley, the former marshal, be appointed, as he was efficient and a terror to wrongdoers, as he performed the duties as he took oath to do, enforcing the laws as they are writ.

Attempted to Break Jail.

George Gage, charged with stealing a horse from D. J. Jones, 10 miles south of Callaway, attempted to gain liberty last Sunday night and would perhaps have succeeded the following night but for the watchfulness and discovery of the attempt by Rollie Towsley, the jailer. At present the jail is crowded with prisoners awaiting trial and Gage was put in what is known as the crazy room. Monday morning Jailer Towsley noticed a piece of brick under the bunk and forthwith began an examination which resulted in finding a hole through the brick wall almost large enough for the prisoner to crawl through. He also found a poker with which Gage had punched out the mortar and dislodged the brick. He claims it was not his work, but lest he be tempted to finish the job commenced by someone else he has been placed in shackles and chained to the bunk.

M. B. A. Meeting.

All members of the M. B. A. are urged to attend the regular meeting of the lodge next Friday. At this meeting complete arrangements for the district convention and the banquet to be given in connection therewith will be reported. The committee has secured the use of the Masonic banquet hall, which will be ready for use at that time. It is necessary for all who desire to participate on that occasion to be at the meeting Friday night. No member can afford to miss it.

Fried Chicken Supper.

The Royal Highlanders have arranged for a fried chicken supper, in connection with their regular meeting next Tuesday night at the I. O. O. F. hall. All members who want to have a good time will not fail to be present.

A Serious Prairie Fire.

On Wednesday of last week from some cause a fire was started in the pasture of Reese & Morehouse, eight miles west of the city, and burned up a stack of hay. Among the neighbors that went to help subdue the fire was Mr. Hoagaboon. In the meantime his team ran away, stopping at the stack of hay that was burning and one of the horses had its eyes burned out before the team could be gotten away. It is thought the fire originated by hunters.

Band Concert.

The band will give a concert in the city park tomorrow (Friday) night, beginning at about 8 o'clock. The band is now presenting some new and excellent musical selections under the direction of Prof. F. E. Taylor which is greatly enjoyed by all who hear them.

House Wanted—To Rent.

Man and wife desire to rent a five or six room house—furnished or unfurnished—within five or six blocks of the square. No children and no prospects of any—unless left on the door step. Inquire at REPUBLICAN office if you have goods as specified. 14

Threshing Machine Burned.

Last Friday morning the separator of a threshing machine belonging to Milt Fox was burned at the residence of Charles Coulter, on the west table. The machine had been taken there the evening previous and left in the road over night. As there had been no fire about the machine there seems to be no doubt but the fire was the work of an incendiary.
