In England an imperial commission has been studying the subject of cancer for the past four years, and has annually published the result of its discoveries. Nothing very startling has yet been found, but some progress has been made. Race, climate or special habit or mode of life seems to make no difference in regard to the prevalence of this disease or its arrest. The vitality and the malignancy of the cancer seems to be independent of each other. Innoculation has thus far proved to be the most successful treatment, and it has been found that with some species of tumor this is very successful. Progress has been made and there is hope of an ultimate solution of the difficult problem of dealing with the dreaded disease.

President Roosevelt shows his common sense in his letter to the head of the government printing office—to whom he writes in regard to the proposed changes in the spelling of some words. He says that he does not want anything radical—he thought the experiment was worth trying—to have certain words spelled in a more sensible manner, but if public sentiment does not approve the movement it will fall to the ground with its own weight, and everybody will go back to the old way of spelling these words. It is probable that in a few cases, changes can be made without destroying the value of the words, but the enthusiasts are apt to go too far, and by so doing they injure their own cause more than they help it.

Bryan tested southern hospitality immediately after the bitter criticisms of his government ownership ideas and made it one continual round of explaining. He didn't throw in that rusty hook: "I'll discuss that matter later," but commenced it as soon as he landed in southern territory. Wise guy; Bryan.

The agricultural department states that many of the bottled waters for table use are not what they seem to be. The old spring with its gourd seems to be the only safety in these days.

Governor Folk, of Missouri, who fell ill when Bryan made his government ownership speech in New York, is reported convalescent, now that Bryan has been to St. Louis and gone.

Some people are speculating as to which is the worst—Bryan's bad break in declaring for government ownership of railroads—or the manner in which he is now "hedging."

The kicker is not the man who builds up his own business, or helps Broken Bow, the county or state. The way to succeed is to keep pushing.

It looks more and more like Uncle Sam will have to straighten out the muss in Cuba. It is a short jump from intervention to annexation.

Representative Convention.

The republican representative convention of the 56th district convened in Broken Bow last Saturday.

J. O. Taylor was elected chairman and A. J. VanAntwerp secretary.

It was moved and seconded that an informal ballot be taken for candidates for representatives in the legislature.

The informal ballot resulted as follows:

Warren.....10 Wright.....7
Wilson.....7 Moody.....2
Delano.....1 Mills.....1

A formal ballot was then taken and with the following vote:

Warren.....11 Wilson.....9
Wright.....7 Moody.....5

William Warren, of Callaway, and F. C. Wilson of Anselmo, were declared the choice of the convention.

Speeches were made by Messrs. Wilson, Warren and Thos. Wright.

The following was adopted: "RESOLVED, That our repre-

My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

representatives, if elected, use all honorable means to elect Hon. Norris Brown to the United States senate.

The chairman and secretary were authorized to fill vacancy should any occur.

Struck a Good Flow.
John Mulvaney, on the South Loup, wanted a well of water and several "experts(?)" went down to get it for him, but they never touched it, so he appealed to Frank Kelsey, who took his "old rigging,"—as the other fellows called it—over to Mulvaney's place and about 6 feet from where a hole had been made by an Oconto man, Frank set' er agoing and in just a day and a half he had heaps and plenty of water. It isn't the most expensive machines that get water, but the knowing how—that's where Kelsey glistens.

M. B. A. District Convention.
The M. B. A. district convention held in this city yesterday was a big affair for the local lodge.

The session was called to order at 11 a. m. and R. P. Starr, of Loup City, was elected permanent chairman, and O. E. Barnard of Callaway, secretary.

Chairman Starr and Secretary Barnard each expressed their gratitude for the honor conferred.

The usual committees were appointed and an adjournment was taken to 2 p. m.

Among other resolutions passed was one recommending the board of directors to extend the reserve fund/loans on real estate to central and western Nebraska.

A resolution was passed providing for the District convention locating the future conventions by vote of the delegates.

Strong pleas were made for Lexington, Loup City and Alliance for the next biennial convention by Mr. Ratcliff, Starr and Kennedy respectively. The speech of Kennedy captured the convention and Alliance was chosen as the next convention city.

The delegates elected to the Supreme convention were R. P. Starr, Lizzie M. VanSant, of Anselmy; O. E. Barnard, of Callaway; and D. M. Amsberry, of Broken Bow.

A general supper was provided at the Masonic hall for the delegates, at which over one hundred participated. A number of toasts were given. Among those responding to toasts were Supreme Director Scott, State Manager Hayman, Dr. Pickett, Mrs. VanSant and Jesse Wilson.

After the supper the members and their guests returned to the lodge room where a literary program was carried out.

The address of welcome was extended to the delegates by Joe Pigman which was happily responded to by R. P. Starr, of Loup City, recitations, songs, speeches and instrumental music occupied the time until 10 o'clock when the work of initiation was exemplified by the team there being several candidates inducted into the mysteries of the order.

The day was very much enjoyed by all.

The delegates paid high compliment to the entertainment furnished by the Broken Bow lodge.

The Custer Baptist Association.
The Custer Baptist association held at Mason City, September 14, 15 and 16, was quite largely attended, notwithstanding the rain and bad condition of the roads. There were about sixty delegates there including Dr. Henry Williams, of Des Moines, Iowa; General Missionary Pope and Dr. Sutherland, of Grand Island; and Rev. Biggs, Sunday School Missionary, of Omaha. The sessions from the beginning

The Broken Bow Hospital.

A hospital is not a place to suffer and die, but a pleasant home where sanitary conditions and careful nursing assists nature to restore a healthful activity of body and mind. At the Broken Bow Hospital all cases are carefully treated by the latest and most approved methods. Dr. and Mrs. Bartholomew constantly in charge. Dr. Bartholomew also has a general and office practice and answers all calls promptly, whether in the city or country, night or day: Phone No. 61.

were highly interesting and profitable to all. The Sunday sessions drew a crowded house. Dinner and supper were served in the town hall where the best of the land was provided in abundance for all. The officers elected for the ensuing year were D. M. Amsberry, moderator; Mrs. J. H. Kerr, clerk, and G. W. Ryan, treasurer.

The association will be held next year with the Bethel Union church, being on Friday before the third Sunday in September, continuing for three days.

The Missionary committee elected for the ensuing year consists of Rev. J. R. Woods, chairman, the moderator and clerk of the association, Wm. Elo, of Eudell, and Rev. Jewell, of Anselmo.

One of the interesting features for the delegates returning home on the west bound train Sunday night was the long wait in the depot at Mason City. The train that was due for the west at 12.48 a. m. did not arrive until 5.30 a. m. The crowd was so large that only half could be seated and no opportunity was offered for sleep or rest. A portion of the time was occupied in singing songs, recitations and select reading. Among those who thus put in the night waiting for the delayed train were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. N. Amsberry, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Mooney, Misses Florence and Myrtle Amsberry, Frona Zimmerman, Mrs. George Streeter, Archie, Hazel and Gladys Meeks, Madge Morris, Pearl Alpin, Master Ray Shepard, Claude Hoover, Chas. Turpin, Army Dewey; Messrs Ben Larson, Mr. Neilson, of Anselmy; Mesdames Apple, Callen, Mr. and Mrs. Amsberry, Cora Woollers, Maud Holcomb, Roy Lowe, and Jas. Loyd, Pearl Loyd, Pearl Martin, Maude Apple, of Broken Bow; Mr. and Mrs. T. Maxon, J. H. McGuire, of Arnold; Mrs. B. W. Lowe, of Callaway; J. W. Conley, of Oconto; C. O. Lind, of Gothenburg; J. B. Osbourn and wife, of Pilot; and Mrs. A. B. Cornish, of Lodi.
