President Cornett, of Custer College, reports an increase daily in the enrollment of students. It is a success from the start, due, principally, to the zealous and untiring work of the president.

Geo. F. Bray, of the Eagle Grocery Co., was an Alliance visitor Tuesday. He don't know whether or not the report is true as to the water being poor and not plentiful in that city as he did not drink any of it.

Miss Margaret Young, trimmer at Mrs. Bean's millinery store, was summoned to Lincoln Monday on account of the illness of a brother, who was operated on for appendicitis. She will return to her duties here today.

Willis Cadwell reached home last Saturday from a three weeks trip to Texas. He reports a large emigration to the coast portion of that state and that land values are rapidly increasing, as an evidence of which he states that a piece of land he purchased there last June, he is now selling to a party at double the price paid then.

John H. Evans, county surveyor of Thomas county, residing at Thedford was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun Monday. Just how it happened is not known further than that he was walking, leading a horse and carrying the gun. The load entered under the chin and lodged in his brain. Undertaker Harry Kimball of this city was summoned there and prepared the remains to be taken to Sutton, Neb., for burial.

The Sunday schools of the northeast district are called to meet in convention at the Gates church on the morning of the 17th of October, at 10 o'clock a. m., with an afternoon and evening sessions. Also at Sargent on the 18th with three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening. State workers Prof. Steidley and Miss Haines will be present and assist the local workers at these sessions. Come and hear them.

The first of the series of entertainments given under the auspices of the Young Peoples Union, season of 1906-'07, was given Monday night by the Dixie Jubilee Concert company at the Temple theatre which was literally crowded. There is a diversity of opinion by those who attended as to the merits of the concert, some contending that it was first-class and fine while others declare that it was not up to the average and coarse. And there you are.

Banker Mackey, of Ansley, is a business visitor in the city today and is also socially passing spare moments with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Vallandingham and Mrs. Scott Cooper leave next Tuesday for Paris, Texrs, to visit relatives for three or four weeks.

The remains are expected to arrive here on the train tonight and funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon. The deceased formerly resided in this county, leaving here about ten years ago. His age was about 80 years. Further particulars today cannot be secured.

At the present writing it doesn't appear that Broken Bow will organize a foot ball gang this fall and 'tis well 'twere thus.

J. C. Bowen's list of good things, with prices attached—on the first page—will certainly attract a number of patrons. The trade mark is there.

John Smalley, who has been at Alliance the past year with Dierks Lumber & Coal Co., returned to Broken Bow Monday night and will work for the company here.

The publication of the list of delinquent tax payers suggests the idea that newspapers might pursue the same policy as do the various counties in the state. That is, publish the names of delinquent subscribers and sell the account to the highest bidder for cash. The REPUBLICAN will take the idea under advisement.

U. B. Church.

The regular quarterly session of the regular quarterly meeting will be held next Saturday at 2 p. m. On Sunday at 11 a. m. Presiding Elder Miller will preach. The pulpit will be filled in the evening by Rev. R. Bellis. All members especially desired present at these services.

Marriage Licenses.

Since the 1st day of this month only two loving couple in this county have been brave enough to declare their matrimonial intentions—one yesterday and one this morning—although the weather is reaching that degree of temperature where sleeping singly is not as comfortable as in the good old summer time. As an inducement for those engaged in the laudable occupation of courting to hurry up, Judge Humphrey says he will put an extra flourish on his signature to the document. When this is known the list will certainly increase considerably:

Walter W. Snyder, Broken Bow..... 24
Ada King, Broken Bow..... 21
Edward Taylor, Central City 49
Ethel Fleming, Doniphan... 30

Twenty-three Years Ago.

(From the REPUBLICAN files.)

"The Swope Brothers are preparing to build a shed, the same length of their barn, on the north side."

"Born to Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Emerson, October 1st, a girl. A friend at our elbow says, three cheers for the Dutchman; three girls in as many months, in that valley, and nary a boy."

"Our friend James Boggs, of Elton has laid on our table some splendid beets, he has also a number of head of fine, full blood Jersey bulls and cows, which we hope to see on exhibition here on the 18th and 19th. We believe he has the only Jersey stock in the county."

"If there is any available land for agricultural purpose left in Custer county within the expiration of ten months it will be hard to find. The valleys and canyons are almost filled with land hunters, and our land office is besieged at all hours of the day and at night by parties making claim to some valuable quarter or half section of Uncle Sam's domain."

"L. H. Jewett, of Lincoln, called Monday he was looking up a location to start into banking. He will return." Mr. Jewett did return, located a ranch near Dunning and is now Uncle Sam's postmaster in Broken Bow.

"The M. E. Society broke ground last Thursday for their new church building, which will be built of brick, 28x40 in size; the masons are at work on the walls and will push the work as rapidly as possible." This building, two blocks south of the square is now occupied by County Treasurer Cavanaugh as a residence.
