IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS PE-RU-NA CURED HIM.

Cold Affected Head and Throat— Attack was Severe.

Chas. W. Bowman, 1st Lieut. and Adj. 4th M. S. M. Cav. Vols., writes from Lanham, Md., as follows:

"Though somewhat averse to patent medicines, and still more averse to becoming a professional affidavit man, it seems only a plain duty in the present instance to add my experience to the columns already written concerning the curative powers of Peruana.

"I have been particularly benefited by its use for colds in the head and throat. I have been able to fully cure myself of a most severe attack in forty-eight hours by its use according to directions. I use it as a preventive whenever threatened with an attack.

"Members of my family also use it for like ailments. We are recommending it to our friends."

The extraordinary popularity of fine white goods this summer makes the choice of Starch a matter of great importance. Defiance Starch, being free from all injurious chemicals, is the only one which is safe to use on fine fabrics. Its great strength as a stiffener makes half the usual quantity of Starch necessary, with the result of perfect finish, equal to that when the goods were new.

Has Seen Much of Life.
John Avery McIlhenny, recently nominated a civil service commissioner, though only 36 years old, has put two girldes round about the earth, has killed big game in Africa and has fought in a real (though small) war. Besides being a former rough rider, he is one of the richest men in Louisiana. His pepper farm on Avery Island, Iberia parish, is famous, and so is the huge factory in which he makes pepper sauce. Two years ago the McIlhennys entertained the president's older daughter, now Mrs. Longworth, in their New Orleans home at carnival time and last year the president himself was their guest.

THE FIRST TWINGE

Of Rheumatism Calls for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills if You Would Be Easily Cured.

Mr. Frank Little, a well known citizen of Portland, Iowa Co., Mich., was cured of a severe case of rheumatism by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In speaking about it recently, he said: "My body was run down and in no condition to withstand disease and about five years ago I began to feel rheumatic pains in my arms and across my back. My arms and legs grew numb and the rheumatism seemed to settle in every joint so that I could hardly move, while my arms were useless at times. I was unable to sleep or rest well and my heart pained me so terribly I could hardly stand it. My stomach became sour and bloated after eating and this grew so bad that I had inflammation of the stomach. I was extremely nervous and could not bear the least noise or excitement. One whole side of my body became paralyzed.

"As I said before, I had been suffering about five years and seemed to be able to get no relief from my doctors, when a friend here in Portland told me how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured him of neuralgia in the face, even after the pain had drawn it to one side. I decided to try the pills and began to see some improvement soon after using them. This encouraged me to keep on until I was entirely cured. I have never had a return of the rheumatism or of the paralysis.

The pills are for sale by all druggists or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

SEIZED BY A LION

By a Lion Hunter.

"Once on the Orange river, in the Hottentot country, I had a close call for my life, with no one at hand to aid me in distracting the attention of the lion. I had only one white man with me, and he was ill of fever. We had dug a pit on a path frequented by lions coming down to drink, but were much annoyed by other animals falling into it.

"On the first night we caught two hyenas; on the second, a panther; on the third, a wild hog. Those would have been prizes had we not been after lions, and lions alone. On the fourth night I stationed a couple of natives in a tree near the path to frighten off all game but lions. They were hunters, and knew the tread of a lion from that of any other beast.

"When going down to drink the lion, generally sniffs the air, probably to find what game is abroad. On a rough path his tread is as heavy as a man's and no one who has hunted him need be afraid of making a mistake.

"On this night, after the natives had driven several worthless animals away, a large lion and lioness came down the path. When first discovered the lion was ahead, but he got the scent of the men in the tree, and stopped short to growl and sniff, while the lioness, who was, perhaps, very thirsty, advanced slowly and went down into the pit.

"The pit was two miles from our camp, and we heard nothing of the row which took place when the lion discovered the trick played upon his mate. He tore around for a spell like mad, and then lay down at the foot of the tree and besieged the men. As soon as it was daylight I left camp on horseback to ride over and see what luck. I rode straight for the place, and when within 40 rods called to the men.

"They answered at once, and though I could not make out what they said, I knew that they were excited over something. I was riding around a clump of trees onto an open space, when my horse suddenly started. Next instant I was on the ground and a lion standing over me, while I could hear the horse tearing away through the scrub like mad. The lion had pulled me down, nearly tearing the back out of my jacket, but not drawing blood with his claws.

"As in a previous case, I was not frightened, because it had occurred so suddenly that I had not had time to lose my nerve. I was on my left side, bareheaded, and the lion stood for a moment with his right paw on my shoulder, looking after the horse.

"The natives saw the fleeing horse, knew very well what had happened to me, and at once descended the tree and made for camp. I did not blame them any and perhaps that very action saved my life. I had time to collect my thoughts in that single instant, and as I had routed one lion by barking like a dog, I decided to follow the same plan in this case.

"But, as I said before, lions are as unlike as men. At my first bark this fellow growled savagely, and gave me a terrible bite on the hip. Had I cried out at this, or made any struggle, he would have finished me at once. I repressed my feelings and played dead. I had a revolver strapped to my back, but it would not do to reach for it.

"After biting me the lion watched and waited for signs of life, and when he could detect none he seized my right shoulder in his teeth, gave me a shake and a twist and next moment I was being carried off on his back. His teeth did not touch my flesh, and as I lay across him on my side my hand struck the butt of the revolver. I had it out of the holster in a second, and then felt that I had a show. Whether the beast felt any movement or not, he growled at intervals, and his breath came back on me so strong that I was nauseated. I intended to fire into him as he was carrying me along, but he was swaying about so that I did not dare to risk it.

"After carrying me half a mile through the scrub and over broken ground, the lion halted at the head of a ravine, in which he doubtless had his lair. He turned about as if to see if pursuit had been made, and the muzzle of the revolver came against his left hip. I fired at once, and next instant was flung on the earth, while the lion uttered a scream of pain.

"I was on my knees in a flash, but the beast was ten feet away, going around in circles and biting at the wound. He did not notice me in the least, and I sent another bullet into him just back of the shoulder. He uttered another scream, and instead of rushing at me, as I fully expected, made a leap into the ravine, where I could hear him running for some distance.

"I was badly shaken up, but I lost no time in getting out of the neighborhood, and in the course of an hour reached camp. Nearly everybody was out looking for me.

"Now see how inconsistently that lion acted. He came out into the open ground and charged the party of over 20 men, although they had not disturbed him. He had run from me in his surprise. He knocked over a native as he charged, but was then riddled with bullets and gave up the ghost."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too told to the good you can possibly derive from them. Long Sight.
The longest distance ever compassed by human vision is 183 miles, being the distance between the Uncompaghe park, in Colorado, and Mount Ellen, in Utah. This feat was accomplished by the surveyors of the United States coast and geodetic survey, who were engaged, in conjunction with representatives of other nations, in making a new measurement of the earth.

SCALY ERUPTION ON BODY.
Doctors and Remedies Fruitless—Suffered 10 Years—Completely Cured by Cuticura.

"When I was about nine years old small sores appeared on each of my lower limbs. I scratched them with a brass pin and shortly afterwards both of those limbs became so sore that I could scarcely walk. When I had been suffering for about a month the sores began to heal, but small scaly eruptions appeared where the sores had been. From that time onward I was troubled by such severe itching that, until I became accustomed to it, I would scratch the sores until the blood began to flow. This would stop the itching for a few days, but scaly places would appear again and the itching would accompany them. After I suffered about ten years I made a renewed effort to effect a cure. The eruptions by this time had appeared on every part of my body except my face and hands. The best doctors in my native county advised me to use arsenic in small doses and a salve. I then used to bathe the sores in a mixture which gave almost intolerable pain. In addition I used other remedies, such as iodine, sulphur, zinc salve, —s Salve, — Ointment, and in fact I was continually giving some remedy a fair trial, never using less than one or two boxes or bottles. All this was fruitless. Finally my hair began to fall out and I was rapidly becoming bald. I used —s —s, but it did no good. A few months after, having used almost everything else, I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, having previously used Cuticura Soap and being pleased with it. After using three boxes I was completely cured, and my hair was restored, after fourteen years of suffering and an expenditure of at least $50 or $60 in vainly endeavoring to find a cure. I shall be glad to write to any one who may be interested in my cure. B. Hiram Mattingly, Vermillion, S. Dak., Aug. 18, 1906."

HEADS SHAPED TO ORDER.
German Doctor Explains Causes of Various Formations.

At a recent convention of German naturalists and doctors Dr. Walcher, of Stuttgart, in an instructive paper put forth a sensational theory to explain the formation of the shape of the head of infants. He maintained that the head of a child could be molded artificially. He found by experience that when a medium-shaped head is placed in a soft cushion the child turns on its back, or rests on the back of its head, in order to free mouth, nose and face. In this manner the head rests smoothly, and a short head is developed. But if the medium-shaped head of a child is placed on a hard under-rest, like a hair mattress or rolled carpet, the child's head turns aside, as it cannot stand any more on its head than an egg, for the muscle of the back is weakened. Therefore, with continued resting on the side a long head is developed. To prove his assertions the lecturer presented a child whose mother and sister are short-headed. The child at its birth had a short head, now after 18 months it is long skulled. If the child had been placed on its back, according to other experiences its head would have been short-headed. Dr. Walcher did not deny that the shape of the head was inherited, but asserted that it could be greatly influenced by the way the child rested.

COSTLY PRESSURE.
Heart and Nerves Fail on Coffee.

A resident of a great western state puts the case regarding stimulants with a comprehensive brevity that is admirable. He says: "I am 56 years old and have had considerable experience with stimulants. They are all alike—a mortgage on reserved energy at ruinous interest. As the whip stimulates but does not strengthen the horse, so do stimulants act upon the human system. Feeling this way, I gave up coffee and all other stimulants and began the use of Postum Food coffee some months ago. The beneficial results have been apparent from the first. The rheumatism that I used to suffer from has left me. I sleep sounder, my nerves are steadier and my brain clearer. And I bear testimony also to the food value of Postum—something that is lacking in coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason. Always to Be Depended Upon.
When a person gets up in the morning with a dull headache and a tired, stretchy feeling, it's an almost certain indication that the liver, or bowels, or both, are decidedly out of order.

At such times Nature, the wisest and best of doctors, takes this means to give warning that she needs the help and gentle assistance which can best be obtained from that old family remedy, Brandreth's Pills, which has been in use for over a century. They are the same fine laxative tonic pill your grandparents used when doctors were few and far between, and when people had to have a remedy that could absolutely be depended upon.

Brandreth's Pills can be depended upon, and are sold in every drug and medicine store, plain or sugar-coated.

American Idealism.
Since my first arrival in America I have held that the real spirit is idealistic and that the average individual American is controlled by idealistic impulses. Those who may contradict me can not have sounded the depths of the philosophy of Ralph Waldo Emerson, or studied the life and read the speeches of Abraham Lincoln, and considered their far-reaching effect on the American people. In Lincoln's great character nothing can be more striking than the way in which he combined reality and the loftiest ideal, with a thoroughly practical capacity to achieve that ideal by practical methods. This faculty seemed to give him a far-sighted, almost superhuman vision, which enabled him to pierce the clouds obscuring the sight of the keenest statesmen and thinkers of his age—Baron Speck von Sternburg, in Forum.
