

CUSTER COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

VOL. XXV.

BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1907.

NO. 36.

The jeweler's reputation is the greater part of his capital. People are naturally suspicious of the jeweler because he handles a commodity with which they are not familiar. For this reason the jeweler's reputation is much harder to keep unsullied than is that of any other tradesman.

I endeavor to build upon a solid foundation by making nothing but truthful statements in my store and in my advertising.

A. E. Anderson
AND ORIGINATOR

Dunning.
Postmaster L. H. Jewett, of Broken Bow, is in Dunning this week.

J. A. Owen proprietor of the Dunning hotel went to Broken Bow on Monday and for a three days stay.

Miss Eva Hellock has gone to reside on her homestead south-west of Dunning.

Reverend Evens was here to fill his appointment on Sunday evening, but as a traveling minister happened to be in town he was invited by Mr. Evens to take the pulpit, which he did and did it well.

A crowd of Dunning young people will attend an entertainment at Brewster on the 14th.

The new hall is nearing completion and one of the dances will be held there on the 14th. This will be the first time it is put to use.

Two dances are announced for the 14th. The dance business will certainly be rushing.

The play of "Tony the Convict" is being practiced with vigor. The date for its production has not been announced, but will probably be within the next two weeks.

Union Hill.
August Pfrehm is husking corn today.

Nellie Sullivan took charge of her school last Tuesday.

Charley Allison and family started for Idaho last Monday.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Bitters are improving slowly.

Lee Leap and Willis Marsh went to Omaha with cattle last week.

Mr. Ready, father of Mrs. Lafe Harris, got his arm broken last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Deal visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pfrehm Friday.

Mrs. H. Ash went to Broken Bow last Saturday and visited over Sunday.

Miss Deo Sullivan returned home last Tuesday, after teaching three weeks for her sister, Nellie.

John Wineken says that people should not be allowed to put up ice, as it brings cyclones and hail storms.

We understand that Henry Pfrehm, of Worth has invested in some fine thoroughbred chickens.

Mrs. Lewis Grim, of Grand River, Iowa, mother of Mrs. Henry Pfrehm and Mrs. George Semler, arrived in Sargent Friday night.

We regret to learn that C. W. Ruse has sold his farm, west of West Union, and bought Henry Jager's farm across the river. They will be greatly missed in the neighborhood. Especially in Sunday school, as they are both good Sunday school workers.

Lee Park Locals.
Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Urban on last Sunday.

Bad and muddy roads are mostly discussed these days by those having hauling to do.

Mr. Swallow who went to the Pacific Coast last year has returned to this country to attend to his affairs here, needing his attention. He reports fine weather on the Coast.

Mr. John Urban has a public sale advertised. We hope to see a large crowd of enthusiastic buyers there the day of the sale.

Mr. Ted Marsh shipped one car load of cattle last week.

Mrs. Jno. Wall returned last Saturday from Eureka Springs where she went some weeks ago for her health.

Several of our farmers have corn ungethored and now since the snow has gone will improve the opportunity in getting it gathered.

Zumbrota Zephyrs.
Mrs. Oscar Tappan and family visited at her brothers, Clarence Franklins, last Sunday afternoon, and her friends are pleased to see her out once more, after her long sickness.

Nine McComas has the corn huskers in his field this week.

John Koozers father and brother, Frank Koozer arrived here on a visit last Friday evening, returning to Kenesaw Tuesday morning.

Joy Koozer expects to husk corn for Henry Blackwell.

Mrs. Ralph Johnson was visiting at Henry Johnson a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bishop and daughter Miss Zoe, visited at John Stewart's last Friday.

Hereafter We Close on Sunday

I have been in the retail drug business for twenty-seven years. Many times since I have been in this business I have seriously considered the subject of closing my store on Sundays, but not until the present time have I had the nerve to do so.

However, I am going to commence now. It is my belief that a retail drug store is no more justified in keeping open on Sunday than any other store. It is true that every drug store should be in a position to fill prescriptions for its customers on Sunday, therefore,

On and After Sunday, February 24, 1907

my store will be open from 8:30 to 10:30 a. m., for the purpose of filling any doctor's prescriptions which my customers might wish to have filled.

Before 8:30 a. m., and after 10:30 a. m., the store will be closed.

I believe that on account of closing my store on Sundays my action will meet with the entire approval of all the people in this locality. It will give me pleasure to receive written or personally expressed opinions from my customers, or anyone in the locality, regarding this move.

I thank the public for the support they have given me during my business career—the support which has made my present business possible.

Ed. McComas,
BROKEN BOW, NEBRASKA.
