The present legislature is entitled to much credit for the good work it has been able to accomplish this session. As is always the case there are some members that have not been able to please all their constituents, but, take the membership as a whole, they have been faithful to the demand of the public.

Should a patient be told what ails him? is a question that is again being discussed by physicians. The average medic will not indorse the idea.

Much opposition is developing against the methods of congress in subsidizing expositions. The general effect of the expositions is to advertise the localities in which they are held at the expense of the rest of the country.

Some of the great geniuses who have long ignored the press now gladly welcome the humble reporter. Railroaders Harriman is a recent illustration of the fact.

It is announced from New York that Thawing will soon be at an end. The daily newspapers will then have space in which to publish a list of John D. Rockefeller's donations.

No, Isabelle, it is not absolutely necessary—in order to hold a job on the Panama canal—that the laborers wear pajamas.

So many successful Chautauquas have been held in this state during the past two or three summers that it will soon appear that Broken Bow is falling behind in enterprise and the march of progress if it does not get in line in this progressive and uplifting movement.

The appointment of Frank A. Harrison, as deputy clerk of the Lincoln division of the Federal court, meets the hearty approval of the REPUBLICAN.

Farmers in some sections of the country have allowed their fields to become infected with noxious weeds as a result of the use of unclean seeds. This is a serious matter because of the loss to the crop through the damaged grain and decreased yield.

How would you like to be an Omaha-iter the coming summer since the ice trust has "spake?" It says ice wasn't so frightfully thin and scarce the past winter, but the increase in the cost of labor to cut and sawdust it down was so enormous the price will be the same as last summer.

Wyoming bachelors have sent a wholesale wail to the pretty girls of Iowa. There are hundreds of unmarried men in that state just pining for a pretty maiden, while in Iowa the number of unmarried women is so great that a $25 tax is proposed against the Hawkeye bachelor as a plan to promote matrimony.

It has often been asked where the name of the Gateway City to Nebraska originated. As near as the REPUBLICAN can learn by guessing—the guess being superinduced by a dream, with nightmare accompaniment—a part of the city is located on a spot where a dazlingly beautiful Indian maiden fainted and fell in it, and her name was O-me-ha-ha.

The value of a Chautauqua to a town or city is apparent from many points of view. It affords a meeting place for the best people of all walks of life. It knows no creed, no political partisanship, no "ism." It is a platform on which all are treated from the same point of view—the desire to know the truth.

It appeals alike to the professional man—doctor, lawyer, teacher, preacher—to the farmer and to the substantial business man. In the camp life the city and town man is afforded an opportunity for himself and family to spend a week or so in the open air. To the farmer it affords the enjoyment of community life—a social privilege denied him the rest of the year.

For Coughs and Colds. There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

Ayer's Pills increase the activity of the liver, and thus aid recovery. in political and social life are engaged in assembly work and can be brought to your front door in this movement.

The features of entertainment offered at the Chautauquas are an important part of the programs. They are naturally of the best—must be if the Chautauqua is to be placed on a permanent and sound financial footing—and they afford a much needed relaxation to the tired worker with hand or brain.

Obituary—Kinkaid. Skiles W. Kinkaid, whose body was laid to rest Friday March 22nd, 1907, would have reached the age of 74 years had he lived until May.

Responding to our country's call for patriots in the Sixties, Mr. Kinkaid enlisted in Co. A 14th Iowa Infantry, and served as a soldier over two years. The six pall bearers were also soldiers of that war.

He seemed in his usual health on Friday, March 10th, when he, with his wife, drove to South Loup, a distance of 20 miles, expecting to enjoy a visit they had long been planning at the ranch of Diah Woodruff, whose wife is a daughter of Mrs. Kinkaid. Shortly after arriving Mr. Kinkaid remarked that he felt very tired, and shortly after going to bed seemed to grow very weak.

His son from Plainfield and daughter from St. Paul came and were with him till the end. Mr. Kinkaid had lived in Broken Bow about a year and was held in high esteem by all, and in loving remembrance by those who had opportunity to become well acquainted with him. His immediate surviving relatives are a wife, two sons and a daughter. G. A. W.

Death of Robert Brindle. DIED—At his residence in the south part of the city, Saturday morning, March 23, 1907, Robert J. Brindle, of lung trouble. Age 34 years.

The deceased had been a resident of this vicinity for the past twenty years. He was a native of Canada, having immigrated to this country when thirteen. Some fifteen years ago he was married to Miss Cora Sigler, who, with three children survive him. His illness dates back to the 6th of January, when he gave up his work as shoemaker, but his condition was not considered serious until the past month, since which time he failed rapidly.

Some three weeks ago he went to Deadwood with hopes that the change of atmosphere would give relief. The change proving for the worse his father-in-law, Geo. Sigler, who has resided in the Black Hills for the past twelve years, accompanied him home and remained with him to the last.

His funeral was conducted from the Catholic church Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, the Royal Highlanders, of which he was a member, in charge. The attendance at the funeral was very large, as the deceased was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends.

Shot-up the Town. Joseph Schall, a well-known character in the vicinity of New Helena, by the cognomen of "Friday" has been hanging around Anselmo recently and last Saturday an attempt was made to arrest him by a posse armed with small bore pistols and clubs. He carried a Colts automatic revolver, which is equal to a rifle, and he held the posse at bay by constant firing until a freight train, which he boarded, pulled out for the west. One of the bullets from his gun took effect in Consable Lewis' left leg just below the knee, making a bad wound. When the train reached Dunning the whole town was loaded and turned out as a reception committee to receive "Friday."

We desire to express our gratitude to the relatives, friends and neighbors who so kindly endeavored to make lighter for us the cares and sorrow incident to the sickness and loss of our beloved husband and father. MRS. S. W. KINKAID,
MRS. JOHN BUFFINGTON,
MR. EUGENE KINKAID.

Dunning Doings. The party at Miss Beattie Wilson's in honor of Nina Joslin was highly enjoyed by every one present. The free dance given by W. H. Jones was a great success. Although it was attended by some booze fighters and other fighters a nice dancing party would not be allowed to be spoiled by such imposters. L. H. Jewett, of Broken Bow, is in Dunning this week. The new cement building of Franey & Neumann is under construction. A dance will be given at the Robinson Bros., new hall next Friday eve. F. E. Parks and family visited in Arnold last week.

Weissert Warbles. Jim Mattox and family spent Sunday at Lew Town's. Lucy Pirnie, Ama Pirnie, Art Cooksley and Clarence Barnes, made up a party that spent Sunday at John Pirnie's. Revival meeting at Rose Valley closed Sunday night. The Farmer's Telephone Co., held a meeting at weissert Monday evening. Miss Eva Woods of Dry Valley spent Sunday and Monday with Hattie Town. Grandma Govier is slowly improving in health. Her many friends are pleased to note that she is able to be about again. Peter Case's baby, that has been very sick with lung fever, is slowly recovering.

Weissert is on the boom. The latest addition is the new dwelling house being erected by Art Cooksley & Earl Pirnie. The party at Town's Monday night was well attended and those present report a good time and Miss Hattie an ideal hostess.
