Berwyn Breezes.

If it keeps this kind oi weather very long the fruit around this part of old Custer county will be somewhat scarce.

The dance last Saturday night called out quite a crowd. Everybody reported a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Oxford and Miss Jessie Waterbury spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brown in Broken Bow.

James Lee was a passenger for Broken Bow on 39 Saturday evening.

Mr. Earl Pirnie of the firm of Cooksley & Pirnie of Weissert was in Berwyn on business Tuesday.

Albert Smith has just completed his new barn in the northwest part of town.

James Davidson shipped three car loads of fat cattle Monday morning to Omaha.

Pete Goveart shipped a car load of fat cattle to Omaha Tuesday.

L. C. Morris made a business trip to Broken Bow Monday.

Miss Lou Waterbury spent last Saturday in the Bow.

E. S. Fretz made a business trip to the county seat Monday.

Charles Betts spent last Saturday at Broken Bow.

H. M. Coble is hauling material for the fine residence which he intends to build on his farm.

F. G. Perkins is hauling cement for his new house.

Weissert Warbles.

Amy Pirnie has been staying at John Pirnies the last two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mills are the proud parents of twin boys, born Friday the 12th of April.

School closed in District 17, Friday. Miss Mable Mills, the teacher gave a very interesting program.

Hilton Bros., sold a load of potatoes to Mat Steiman Saturday.

Miss Mattie Foote closed a successful term of school in the Dry Valley district Wednesday and returned to her home at Merna.

Zumbrota Zephyrs.

Mr. VanAuken has been papering W. W. Bishop's house, which is being remodeled.

We see Miss Bertha Koozer has a new buggy and harness, thanks to her breakdown one or two weeks ago.

Dave Dewey has moved on Thomas Adams' place.

Charley Hall and John Triplett are breaking sod for J. E. Wilson northeast of town.

Oscar Tappan's were visiting at Stuart Lanterman's last Sunday.

John Triplett and wife were visiting John Koozer's last Sunday

Tree planting seems to be the order of the day. We notice Ralph johnson and Buttler Sands are putting out quite a number, also Koozer and Callen, but not so many.

The Musical Wizard of Wall Street.

Manager Groat has secured the above excellent attraction for the Opera house, April 25th. It is one of the most successful musical comedies ever written, in three acts, for laughing purposes only, and is filled with musical numbers throughout. Included in the cast of this pleasing comedy is the Brownies (Charles and Bessie) who introduce singing, acrobatic dancing and the wonderful singing dog "Hoodoo". The Powers (George and Louise) is another strong specialty that adds very materially to the general excellence of the entertainment. The Rhinehart Sister is a well known sister team whose songs and dances never fail to elicit much merited applause. Mr. and Mrs. Huse N. Morgan are perhaps two of the best known among professional people who have been before the public for years, their ability both dramatic and otherwise being most firmly established. When you add to the above features the fact that this performance is presented under a positive guarantee as to its excellence, with special scenery and magnificent wardrobe, you can rest assured of receiving not only your money's worth in the way of an entertainment, but really something better in the line of musical comedy than you have been in the habit of witnessing outside of the larger cities.

An Awkward Situation.

Germany is chiefly desirous of selling to us her chemicals and a long list of manufactured articles. She takes from us a large amount of raw cotton and considerable pig iron, which she does not tax. But the application of her maximum tariff would put stiff duties on many of our food stuffs, and that is where the shoe would pinch on this side of the water, and it would also hurt in Germany by raising the price of food. The situation is awkward on both sides, and it is difficult to see that anything of importance can be done without the action of Congress.

MADE AN AMAZING MIXUP.

Queer Assortment of Married Couples in Hungary.

After being employed for 40 years as valet to the male companion of his own wife, a man named Ruzizka, once wealthy, but now penniless and imbecile, has been received into the municipal workhouse of the town of Agram, in Hungary. Ruzizka, left an orphan with a good deal of property, married in 1863 Camilla Ostvic, a professional singer. Returning from the church, the bride introduced her husband to Dr. Theodor Sparcek, a lawyer. Sparcek brushed the bridegroom aside and walked on ahead, enjoying a tete-a-tete with the bride. In a little while he turned to the bridegroom and informed him that he (Dr. Sparcek) and the bride were going on a honeymoon trip. The rightful husband might come, too, if he acted as valet. The husband's poor wits seem to have been scattered forever by the announcement. He was helpless, and accompanied his wife on her elopement. In this manner all three lived uneventfully until 1885, when the woman died. Dr. Sparcek then lost no time in finding a new "wife," but seemed disinclined to marry himself. Under threats of dismissal from his valetship, the imbecile was obliged to go through the marriage ceremony for the second time. Another 21 years passed quietly, when suspicion was aroused by Sparcek selling Ruzizka's properties. The guilty lawyer then fled with the second Mme. Ruzizka, leaving his unfortunate "valet" absolutely penniless.

WINDOWS BEFORE THE DOOR.

Maid's Queer Idea of Providing Ingress for Firemen.

The things people do when they have a fire in the house would make a book full of exceedingly funny reading. The other day there was a fire out on Westminster place, and the maid, as is usual with maids, got very much excited, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. After the fire was extinguished she was relating incidents and declared that her first thought was to open all the windows. "I went and threw up every window," she said. "But," remonstrated the lady of the house, "why did you do that?" "Why, to let the firemen in," said Mary. "But couldn't they get in through the door?" asked the lady. "Oh, they never does," said Mary with conviction; "they never waits to go to the door, but jumps in through the windows," and she smiled in thinking of her own presence of mind in remembering the vagaries of firemen.
