A BIG CIRCUS.

The Enlarged Campbell Bros. Consolidated Shows Beyond Comparison.

The great Campbell Bros. consolidated shows which will exhibit in Broken Bow, on Friday, May 10th, has been enlarged on such a scale of liberality as to make it next to impossible to depict its real magnitude. Besides enormous additions to the circus proper, the parade has been increased and is now one of the finest ever seen with this meritorious organization. In the arena display are brought together an assembly of the most famous acrobats, gymnasts, aerial performers, dancers, funmakers and sensational specialists in the world. Most of these artists make their first appearance in this country with the great Campbell Brothers consolidated shows. Foremost among these celebrities are "The Flying Levans," the "Mizuno troupe of Japs," Bishop Bros., double somersault leapers; Neltie Ryland, champion bareback rider of the world; Cossack Rough Riders, in daring feats of horsemanship; the great hippodrome races and other highly sensational acts too numerous to mention.

Among the trained animal features are a herd of performing elephants, educated horses and ponies, high jumping dogs and clown mules. The menagerie annex contains the most complete, exclusive and valuable collection of the world.

The street parade will leave the show grounds at 10 o'clock. Performances at 2 and 8 p. m.

District Court Doings.

Judson Kay vs. Custer County. Appeal from justice court. Kay had a bunch of cattle on April 1, last year. They were assessed to him and he paid the taxes under protest and brought suit to recover, claiming that he had sold said cattle to an Omaha firm prior to April 1, and was merely holding them subject to shipping orders from the Omaha firm. The court held that plaintiff has no remedy in this case by appeal, and decision in favor of Custer county.

Lot C. Morris vs. Martha M. Power. Suit in replevin. By agreement in open court the case was settled and dismissed, plaintiff to retain the property and pay costs.

Alza M. Stewart vs. John Frederick. Damage suit. Case settled and dismissed at plaintiff's costs.

Eli Gist vs. B. & M. R. R. Co. Damage suit. Plaintiff given 5 days to file amended petition and defendant to answer in 15 days thereafter.

Willis Cadwell vs. Margaret C. Smith, et al. Suit for deed. Court held, upon evidence heretofore taken, in favor of plaintiff and against defendant.

Carrie S. Plumb vs. Lizzie Brickner. Foreclosure tax lien. $30.90 found due to plaintiff. Decree of foreclosure and order of sale.

L. A. Wright vs. Christian Burger. Foreclosure tax lien. $28.49 found due plaintiff. Decree of foreclosure and order of sale.

Sherman W. Birge vs. Belle Birge. Divorce. Temporary alimony allowed in the sum of $75 to be paid in cash.

Viola M. Kimball vs. Willis G. Kimball. Divorce. Decree as prayed for by plaintiff granted on April 17. On April 26th motion by defendant for new trial was overruled. Defendant excepts.

Melchior Steinman vs. Anna Steinman. Divorce. Motion argued; taken under advisement by the court.

G. W. Apple vs. A. B. Hartley. Foreclosure tax lien. Sale confirmed and deed ordered.

The American Boy for May.

The contents of the magazine will suit this taste of every healthy-minded reader. Increasing interest will be manifested in the continued chapters of the serials by Tomlinson, Sprague, Stratemeyer, Shute, and Ellis. The second installment of Boys' Fishes and How to Catch Them, gives practical pointers on how to lure the finny tribe from ponds and rivers. Officer Ben is a splendid story of the faithfulness and intelligence of a cavalry horse. Keeping Tab on the World will hold the boys to realize many things that are going on around them, to which heed is seldom given. An Announcement regarding American Boy Day at the Jamestown Exposition tells what progress is being made for that celebration. In addition there are over 66 illustrations. Subscription price $1.00 a year. The Sprague Publishing Co., Detroit, Mich.

S. S. Convention at Ansley.

Those from Broken Bow who attended the District Sunday School convention at Mason on last Sunday were: H. Lomax, Miss Sadie Whitehead, Clyde Walters, Fred Willis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fodge. A good convention is reported by those present, and nothing but words of praise for the hospitality of the entertainers.

An offering for county and state association work was taken in the afternoon amounting to $9.50. At the evening session an offering of $7.30 for the famine sufferers of China thus practicing something of what the S. S. stands for.
