

LOCAL LORE AND PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. Carl Foote and son, Stiles, of Dunning, are in the city for a few days' visit.

Miss Effie Shinn went to Lincoln last Monday and is spending the week there visiting friends.

Some people cannot understand why some restaurants have to raise the price of pork and beans five cents just because beans have gone up a cent on the quart.

Senator and Mrs. H. B. Glover, of Comstock were city visitors yesterday. They came over to attend the reception advertised for Senator Burkett and teachers in the Junior Normal.

Last Thursday, June 13, 1907, in Broken Bow, Nebr., Rev. J. R. Teagarden spoke the mystic words which bound in matrimony Mr. Geo. E. Stern and Miss Susie Woodruff, both of Arcadia.

A citizen was heard to remark, a few days ago, that the water in Muddy creek would be all right for domestic purposes if it would only settle. There are quite a number of people in the Muddy creek valley ditto.

P. J. Simonson returned home this morning from Omaha whither he went last Sunday with a car of fat cattle. He sold on a market not as high as he would have liked, but at a price that was satisfactory and profitable.

On account of the late spring farmers will be kept busy the first part of next month and in order to give them a chance to celebrate why wouldn't it be just as well to postpone the 4th of July till some time in August?

City Attorney Gadd doesn't believe ordinances were made just for the fun of it, nor that he would be true to his oath if he did not enforce them and he declares that if the riding of bicycles on the sidewalks is not discontinued at once he will show the performers there is an ordinance prohibiting such stunts.

A game of baseball Tuesday at Ansley between the Ansley and Broken Bow teams resulted disastrously for the latter, the score being 9 to 0. A return game will be played in this city tomorrow afternoon and the Bow boys will endeavor to heal their sore spot by "turning the tables" on the visitors.

The new grocery store is now open for business in the Union block, east side of square. Proprietor Ankney says if the people of Broken Bow and vicinity desire to purchase the best class of groceries at a very low price and will take the time to call, or phone, he will instruct them—free of charge—how it can be done.

There is no doubt now but that the American Eagle will holler loud and long at Merna on the 4th as Prof. J. R. Teagarden, of this city, has been secured to pull feathers from the tail of the grand old bird in the way of delivering the address of the day. Those who attend may rest assured they will be edified with a really patriotic address.

Rev. J. D. Brady of this city writes that there are seven hundred delegates in attendance at the State Sunday School convention, in session at Hastings, this week, twenty-nine being from Custer county. He says there isn't a building in that city large enough to accommodate the crowd and meetings are being held in two churches at the same time.

The W. C. U. will give a Silver Medal contest in the M. E. church Tuesday evening, June 25, 1907. The contestants are: Mildred Hall, Lucy Jeffords, Bird Beckwith, Milly Walters, and Clara Dodds. The medal is on display in Baisch's drug store window. Miss Douglass, Prof. Taylor, Mr. Gadd and Mr. Lewis will furnish the music. Program begins at 8:30. Admission 25c and 15c.

Fred Baisch made one of his characteristic pedestrian stunts down the avenue as though seven demons were after him a few nights ago when it was pitch dark, and collided with a settee in front of the City Shaving Parlor. He made a few remarks to one lone star that could be seen and satisfying himself he was still alive proceeded home without further accident. His left hand pained him considerably the next day and yesterday an examination revealed a fractured bone in his left hand which necessitated its being encased in splints.

Mrs. Henry Hontz and daughter, Florence, of Brownlee, arrived in the city Tuesday evening to visit relatives and friends until Saturday.

Regardless of the muddy roads a large number of county friends came to town last Saturday and those who remained till 5 o'clock were detained an hour longer by the heavy rain storm.

Mrs. J. R. Dean and children, Paul and Dorothy went to Kearney, Monday, to visit friends while the attorney is chasing "greasers" over the mountains of Mexico in an endeavor to secure a gold mine.

The county supervisors, after a session of two weeks, during which time a large amount of business was transacted, adjourned last Saturday evening. A regular stated session of the board will convene July 9th.

On Sunday, June 16, 1907, Mr. Sam Lentz and Miss Lena Brownell were united in marriage by Rev. J. R. Teagarden at his residence in Broken Bow. The young couple at once commenced housekeeping in the southeast part of the city.

A drive out into the country will convince almost anyone that nature is doing her level best to make money for the farmers and everybody else for next fall. Both corn and wheat are in good condition and the outlook at present indicates a heavy crop.

W. S. Metcalf drove in from Walnut this forenoon and will return this afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. M., who has spent a couple of weeks in the city. He reports crops in fine condition in the north part of the county and the farmers all pleased over the prospects.

The name of Al. Fonda, chairman of the board of supervisors, is frequently mentioned in connection with the office of sheriff, in fact so frequently and favorably that the gentleman will undoubtedly become a candidate and as he is well-known throughout the county will make a strong race with chances for winning largely in his favor.

From correspondence received Supt. Piuckney estimated that nearly two hundred would enroll at the Junior Normal and he seems slightly disappointed that there are but 98 in attendance. He should not allow a little thing like that to bother him, but just think how the fellows at Alliance feel when they figured on three hundred and have less than eighty in attendance at their Junior Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Cole left last Monday for Omaha, taking their 11 months old child to have an operation performed for a growth in its throat, but before reaching there the little one died. The body was returned to this city and funeral services held this forenoon at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. J. R. Wood, of Mason City. In their great bereavement the parents are deeply sympathized with by this community.

Considerable space in this issue of the REPUBLICAN is consumed by a communication from County Clerk Pigman upon request of the county supervisors. Our thousands of lady readers will not, perhaps, enjoy reading it as thoroughly as they would had Mr. Pigman dealt with fashions and what to wear, but the several thousand tax payers in the county will go to it with a certain amount of interest.

Rufus G. Carr, the sage of Doris Lake has issued a flaming red, white and blue 4th of July poster inviting everybody to come to Doris and celebrate. Prizes are hung up as follows: $35 for a ball game, $25 for shooting, $35 for horse races and $5 for foot races. There will be plenty of amusement. Merry-go-whizz, dance and fireworks with an oration for a bracer.

Now, while so many cement walks are being laid would be a good time to put up—or rather down—the names of the streets. Where a cement walk is put down at the corner of a block, impress the names of the intersecting streets in the cement, while it is soft, just as the name of the company performing the work is done. The REPUBLICAN believes that if the council will act on this suggestion it will be found a good plan and save the expense of putting up street names when Broken Bow becomes a city of 100,000 population—a few years hence.

Rev. James C. Dorris, of Partello, Michigan, who is visiting relatives in the city, will occupy the pulpit at the M. E. church next Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock.

Getting Ready for the Fair.

A meeting of the directors, of the Custer County Agricultural association was held last Saturday at which Jules Haumont was elected secretary.

R. E. Brega and F. W. Hays tendered their resignations as members of the board of directors, which were accepted and C. H. Miller and H. Lomat were elected to fill the vacancies.

It was decided to hold the annual fair from Sept 17 to 20 inclusive.

The by-laws were changed so that on registered live stock, where there is but one entry it shall be awarded first premium.

Various committees were appointed and all have begun work having in view the best and most successful fair ever held by the association and neither labor or expense will be spared to attain this result.

Off for Mexico.

A bunch of twenty Custer county citizens left Broken Bow Tuesday morning for Mexico to see the country and inspect the gold mine in which Hon. F. M. Currie of this city and B. F. Young of Callaway are twentieth owners. The party occupied a combination Pullman sleeping and buffet car in which they will both eat and sleep during the trip which will consume about twenty days.

The itinerary of the trip is to Kansas City, then to San Antonio, Texas, where a day will be spent. From there to San Louis Potosi, for a day, then to the City of Mexico, and from there 180 miles south to Balsas, two miles from which station the mine is located.

Mr. Currie says there are 400,000 tons of ore in sight which assays from $30 to $40 of gold to the ton and the object of the party going is to be "shown," which he says is the easiest job he has ever undertaken. Denver capitalists have offered two million dollars for the property, which was refused, as the ore in sight is valued at four million, and only the Creator knows how much more there is on the property yet uncovered.

The party is composed of the following named residents of Custer county: F. M. Currie, J. G. Brenizer, H. M. Sullivan, G. W. Apple, J. S. Molyneux, J. R. Dean, I. A. Reneau, H. W. George, Ed. McComas, Dr. R. C. Talbot, Broken Bow; B. F. Young, Callaway; Robert Beers, Sargent; W. E. Warren and F. C. Wilson, Anslemo; L. W. Wilson, Merna; T. J. Arthur, Comstock; John Baron, Ord, and two others who did not want their names published and which could not be learned.
