Some of the editors of the state are urging the preachers to be better "mixers."

The plan of "trial marriages" having failed of general indorsement, a New York man who was sued for breach of promise...

Most people have a mistaken impression regarding the American Society of Equity. It was established on the broad principle of the general good of mankind...

There is one good element in the fight between the cattlemen and the packers over who shall bear the loss of diseased cattle.

The Chicago Record-Herald—with a penchant for statistics on current events—reports the drowning of 159 people since May 1.

Every late report from the fertile fields of the state adds further proof to the original generality that it is silly for just common people to get nervous about the way Providence will fix the crops.

Sensational writers of Yellow-back detective stories have not yet recovered from their envy at being out-classed—and with the real performance—by Murderer Orchard.

One puzzling thing for the public is why the reform leaders generally become bigger crooks—when given the opportunity—than the other fellows.

Traveling men for coffin houses report they do not have to compete with mail order houses, as no man ever orders his that way.

The defense in the Haywood trial at Boise, Idaho, is proving what Orchard admitted—that he was a liar.

In another generation or two—if preventative measures continue to be developed—disease will be a disgrace.

The lock-jaw crop—as a result of the toy pistol and fireworks—will be ready to harvest after today.

The professional crop killers and the inordinate boomers are both working over time.

Collector of Internal Revenue is one of the coveted positions within the disposal of the Senators of Nebraska that has not yet been disposed of because of the conflicting demand of the friends of several candidates.

The report that President Roosevelt was beaten in a game of tennis by his son doesn't necessarily put the president in the "mollycoddle" class.

More Work for the Postmaster.

Until orders from the postmaster general every postoffice in the country must weigh and classify all mails sent out for a period of six months beginning July 1.

To Kill Dandelions.

A solution has been discovered that is fatal to that pernicious flowery weed, the dandelion, of which there has been such an immense crop in evidence in Broken Bow this summer.

Of Interest to Everybody.

To whom it may concern: I have examined the program of the Broken Bow Chataqua and am sure that no such opportunity has ever been offered to the people of Custer county to enjoy a season of intellectual and social improvement.

Well acquainted with several of the numbers on the coming Chataqua course and knowing the others by reputation, I am sure Broken Bow and vicinity has never had such a rare opportunity before, nor will likely have such again soon.

The Exact Purpose.

No more practical illustration of the value of the American protective tariff policy could possibly be given than is presented in a recent statement made by the national bureau of statistics.

One Day Ahead of Time.

The glorious day which—like Christmas—comes but once a year and always on the same date, July 4th, occasionally reaches Broken Bow on Thursday, and when it does the REPUBLICAN force humps itself in order that they may properly observe and perpetuate in a highly appropriate and fitting manner the anniversary of the day their forefathers "fit" to establish—the day of American freedom and independence.

This year, the greatest of all great days arrives here on Thursday and readers will probably observe that the REPUBLICAN force has taken on the necessary "hump" and it is issued one day previous to its regular day.

A Heavy Hail Storm.

Last Thursday afternoon the elements joined forces and descended upon a portion of Custer county west and northwest of this city and gave the residents a surprise in the shape of a hail storm.

The clouds which furnished the fury were certainly fierce looking and thunder and lightning in abundance and plenty to spare, accompanied the hail.

So far as we can learn the following farmers sustained damage by hail: Henry Wooters, Frank Weisenrider, Frank Reed, Fred Ingraham, John Deich, James Predmore, G. R. Russom, Dan Predmore, Charles Fodge, Florian Jacobs.

Ryno Rumbblings.

Mrs. C. E. Conley left hurriedly for Missouri last week to see her brother, Frank Lyle, who is reported very sick.

Mrs. McCall will continue to run the finances of school district No. 141 for awhile.

Mrs. Reeves was called to Iowa last Wednesday to see her mother, who is very low.

Assaulted and Stabbed

Because of a Trivial Matter, Edwin McGraw Shoots Theodore Leserve Three Times With a Knife.

Last Friday evening at about dusk Westerville was thrown into a severe state of excitement by the report that Theodore Leserve, aged 23, had been stabbed in three places by Edwin McGraw, a self-boasting "bad-man," aged about 50 years.

Col. Leserve, father of the victim, informs us a warrant for the arrest of McGraw was issued, but that the officers whose duty it was to make the arrest would not tackle the job and at about 12 o'clock McGraw rode away on a horse and up to the present time has not been apprehended.

McGraw was in the employ of George Welsh. Leserve had driven a team belonging to Welsh who told him to leave them harnessed when he put them in the barn as they would probably be used again that day, which was last Thursday.

The wounds received by Leserve were promptly and properly dressed and will not prove fatal unless from complications. McGraw has been at odd jobs in the Westerville vicinity the past year and boasts of being a "bad man," claiming to have been a member of the James gang and raided with Quantrell.

A heavy rain and hail storm visited the eastern part of this section last Thursday doing quite a lot damage to the crops and gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Longfellow returned home last week from Dunning where they have been on their claim.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Thoms visited at Mr. and Mrs. Vannice's in Union Valley, last Sunday.

Most of the farmers are busy this week stacking alfalfa.

Dry Valley Doings.

(Received too late for publication last week.) June 26, 1907.

Last Sunday was Children's Day at the Coburg Sunday school, and a large crowd gathered and several from adjoining towns were present and rendered some very appropriate declamations, songs, etc., and assisted very materially in making the program first-class in every particular.

Harvesting will soon be here and the first wheat sown will do to cut Celebration day, July 4th.

The annual school meeting was held at the Columbia school house for the election of a moderator and such other business as is customary at such meetings. J. W. Amos was elected moderator and John Jours treasurer.

It is reported that Dr. Prest, of Comstock, will be married today to a lady from McCool, York county. We extend congratulations to the doctor and wish both his bride and himself a long and happy wedded life.

A dance was held at Jno. Shaddens last Saturday and about 75 were present. Refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed by all and the young people stepped the "light fantastic" till 4 a. m. Sunday.
