

LOCAL LORE AND PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Dan Mauk and family left Tuesday morning for a visit of a week with friends at Hastings.

Dr. Glenn L. McMillan, of Falls City, Nebr., is the name of the affable young man who is performing the duties of pharmacist at the Baisch drug store with accuracy and dispatch.

Mrs. L. E. Cole left on Wednesday of last week for Chicago and will spend a month visiting friends in Illinois. The coroner is behaving himself remarkably well since her departure.

Kenneth Rublee, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rublee, will attend the Culver Military Academy at Culver, Ind., the coming school year, and leaves for that place next Sunday.

Miss Emma Maupin returned the latter part of last week from a ten days visit at Des Moines, Iowa, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Mellie Bass, who will remain for an indefinite length of time.

Citizens are active getting ready for the flower parade on the fair grounds next Thursday. Quite a number will participate and indications are it will prove one of the most beautiful and interesting features of the week's festivities.

The Broken Bowites, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Mullins, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Mullins and Messrs. J. M. Kimberling and A. M. Snyder, who went to Denver two weeks ago and enjoyed themselves sight-seeing in that vicinity, reached home the first of this week.

Townsmen McClure, who was on the state ticket for nomination as one of the railroad commissioners as a socialist, received thirty-six votes in Omaha, which wasn't so bad when one considers that "Mac" is not as well known in Omaha as here in Custer county.

If as many cement walks are laid in Broken Bow next year as have been put down this year, there will hardly be a board walk left in the city when 1909 dawns. This old burg is no slouch in the way of improvements—when the finances are not a complete barrier.

A machine to fold the Custer County Chief was put in operation last week and for a time acted like a freshly roped broncho, but failing in its efforts to throw Theodore Furcell, who was in the saddle, it became docile—all to one—and is now performing its duty nicely.

The Custer county fair is billed, the big prize hog is corned and swilled. The pumpkins that will lift the prize is watched with proud and hopeful eyes and the family mare to win the pot is training for the "county trot."

October crisp will soon be here with softly falling leaf and sere; with frosty morn and hunter's moon, and pumpkin pie—not yet, but soon. The lucky wives of millionaires put up jam and pickle pears, but the most of us denied these boons will pass the winter—"full of prunes."

The Menely Quartette of Chicago gave a most excellent entertainment at the Temple theatre on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. The audience was small but appreciative and all voted that the entertainment was one of the best of the year and congratulated the W. C. T. U., ladies on bringing such a high class concert to the town.

There will be things doing in Broken Bow next week. Indications point to the largest display of farm products and live stock ever exhibited at any previous fair and from all parts of the county—even the furthestmost corners—comes word that the heads of families will attend accompanied by bring wife and children, and it is now certain if the weather is favorable, there will be a larger attendance than ever before.

George S. Porter advertises an auction of his stock and farm machinery on the farm known as the George Willing farm, one and one-half miles southeast of Broken Bow, on Wednesday, Sept. 25, beginning at 1 o'clock sharp. At that time he will offer milch cows, heifers, brood sows, pigs, shoats, 54 acres of corn in field and enough machinery to properly conduct a 640 acre farm. Don't forget the date and be on hand at the appointed hour if you would hear the beginning of Jud Kay's lecture.

Custer College, Broken Bow, Nebraska. Fall terms begins Sept. 16. Write for catalogue.

Attorney Ross G. Moore reached home last Saturday from a visit to New York and reports a fine trip.

Mrs. J. S. Molyneux leaves Sunday night for a visit of a week with relatives and friends at Lincoln.

The Rev. Wm. Buswell will assume his labors with the U. B. church next Sunday. Preaching at the usual hour.

City Attorney Gadd was at North Platte, on Monday, trying a case in which—as usual—he won for his client.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowman expect to leave next Monday for Hot Springs, Ark., to be absent from home three or four weeks.

Mrs. D. M. Amsberry went to Grand Island Monday accompanying her daughter, Lillie, who enrolled as a student at the Baptist college.

Mrs. J. E. Iszard and Mrs. VanAntwerp were out near Lodi three days last week assisting Surveyor VanAntwerp and report an enjoyable time.

John Davison, who is now engaged with the Watts News Co., leaves on the 28th of this month for Albion, Nebr., where he will work in "Pete" Ryerson's drug store.

James Smith, of Blooming, Ill., a Custer county realty owner and a pleasant gentleman to meet, was in the city Monday attending to matters in connection with his holdings.

The first frost of the season in these parts arrived Monday night and played havoc with garden sass and things, but not as seriously in this city as in the surrounding country.

The great Western play, "Wyoming," will be presented at the Temple theatre Monday night. One lady will be admitted free with every paid ticket purchased before 7 p. m., Monday.

"Jack" Benjamin, son of Judge and Mrs. Benjamin, of this city, is with the Della Pringle theatre company this season. The company was at Salt Lake City last week and the papers of that city were profuse in their compliments of "Jack's" clever and professional work.

M. F. Young who is making his home with his son, Frank, at Lincoln, is in the city this week renewing acquaintance with his old time friends. Mr. Young says Frank has a very pleasant and comfortable home in the Capitol city and he enjoys the new home very much.

Mr. Teagarden and the pupils in his room were given a rich treat Wednesday a. m., by the classical rendition of two well selected musical numbers by Prof. Myers assisted by the Misses Bowen and L'Amereaux. Such exercises have a decidedly wholesome effect upon the pupils of our schools.

Fred Ream started for Lincoln in an automobilious last week and succeeded in getting two miles beyond Ansley. There it went dead and, carefully covering it with a tarpaulin, left it. Securing a farm team he went to Ansley and proceeded on his journey via the B. & M. railway.

Leslie McWilliams who, for several years has been foreman of bridge gang in the Black Hills for the B. & M. R'y arrived in the city yesterday for a few days visit with relatives and acquaintances. Mr. McWilliams surprised his friends by bringing with him a wife—a bride of four months.

It will be of interest to our readers to know that the Young Men's Christian associations of Nebraska and though them the associations of the world have in your midst a representative, J. M. Kimberling. He is the corresponding member for this community. Through him, our young men going away from home may get an introduction to Y. M. C. A. leaders that will be of material assistance to them. A number of our young men are thinking of going away to school or to enter business and should see Mr. Kimberling and learn from him directly as to the help he can give. He can also secure for every man in the community a state membership ticket which gives privileges in every association in Nebraska.

Mrs. C. B. Cox and son Ralph, who have been visiting and sight-seeing on the Atlantic coast states the past six weeks, returned home yesterday, and C. B. was still alive though they stayed two days longer than he expected.

Tuesday, Sept., 10th at the M. E. church parsonage, Rev. Thompson until in marriage C. E. Ankney of this city and Miss Ellen M. Wiem, of Boone, Iowa, who arrived here that morning. Mr. Ankney has secured the new Stevenson residence and the young people will at once begin housekeeping.

We note from the North Bend, Nebr., newspaper that Miss Bertha Allen, of Mason City, was married at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dr. C. O. Eiglers, at North Bend, on Wednesday of last week, at high noon to C. E. Walrath, of Omaha, where groom is engaged in the lumber business and the newly married couple will make their home. From the published account we infer the wedding was a very elaborate affair.

Held-up the Mail Carrier.

One day last week when Dill Nash, who drives the Round Valley and Elton stage was returning home from his trip he was accosted and beaten by one Jim Carlin, when about three miles from Broken Bow. Carlin, it appears, had some old grudge against Nash and proceeded to satisfy his grudge after having partaken of his fill of prune juice and alcohol. It is a serious charge to waylay the United States mail and we understand the postal authorities are investigating the case.

The New Barber Shop.

Charlie Gadd has opened the new shop near the depot and invites all who desire a smooth, easy shave, a hair cut that will please them, or a bath, to call at the new place.

The shop will be open Sundays from 8:30 to 11:30 a. m., for baths only.

Ladies, Attention!

Mrs. Penn wishes to announce to the ladies that the elegant line of new fall millinery is complete in every respect.

Laides, misses and childrens cloaks at bottom prices, also skirts and waists, and an elegant line of furs and neck pieces. I also have a special line of new styles in corsets, one style which laces in front, particularly adapted to the stout figure. Also hosiery and underwear.

MRS. LAURA PENN.

Farm For Sale.

720 acres, one mile from Broken Bow city limits, 500 acres under cultivation, balance fine pasture, all fenced and cross-fenced, two good gravel wells, good frame house and barn. Will sell all or a part. Terms to suit purchaser. 14-1f C. W. EDWARDS.

The Banks Will Close.

The Broken Bow banks, in order that the officials and employes may attend the best county fair ever held here will be closed during the afternoons on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next week.

They will, however, open at 8 o'clock in the morning—one hour earlier than usual—and remain open until 1 o'clock.

All persons having business of importance with these institutions will govern themselves accordingly.

While Attending the Fair

don't forget to call at Mrs. Penn's for that new cloak or hat.

School Teachers Assemble.

A most pleasant gathering of the teachers of our city schools occurred at the North Side School building Monday, Sept. 9th, between the hours of 4 and 6 p. m. After a short business session, in the office, the teachers, who have previously taught in our schools, were dismissed. However, the "trusties" failed to go home, but quietly retired to the primary room where a dainty repast was in readiness, which had been so elaborately prepared by Prof. McIndoo and Jesse Teagarden, and so anxiously looked upon by the Misses McConnell, Downey, Hill, Farrell, Crumbly and Mrs. McIndoo. At the proper time Prof. McIndoo told the new teachers among whom are Misses Clark, Roman, Lindley, Keaton, Fulton and Chastek, that they would do observation work in the rooms below, but to their surprise and delight they met their associate teachers in a formal way. After which ice cream and toasts were in abundance. The event was both enjoyable and entertaining.
