A Splendid Record.
In reply to a letter written by Jules Haumont, the following splendid endorsement of Sup't Pinckney was received:

STATE OF NEBRASKA,
DEPT. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
J. L. MCBRIEN, Sup't.
Lincoln, Neb. Oct. 19, '07.
HON. JULES HAUMONT,
Broken Bow, Nebraska.

MY DEAR SIR:
Yours of the 15th inst., received. I consider Sup't H. M. Pinckney one of the strongest county superintendents in the state. He has no superior in his work. He holds with HONOR first grade county certificate, earned on examination before our state board of examiners for county certificate with the following grades:

Algebra..... 90	Botany..... 100
Geometry..... 99	Physics..... 90
Agriculture..... 90	Bookkeeping..... 100
Civics..... 91	Drawing..... 91
Theory..... 94	Arithmetic..... 99
English Compo..... 98	Geography..... 99
Grammar..... 90	History..... 94
Mental Arith..... 100	Orthography..... 100
Penmanship..... 100	Physiology..... 100
Reading..... 93

This places his scholarship beyond question.

Sup't Pinckney served as a member of the Legislative committee appointed by the last State Teachers' association. No member of this committee rendered the state better service than did Mr. Pinckney. Especially is this true on the measure appropriating $50,000 for the weak, short term districts in the Northern and Central counties of this state. Sup't Pinckney appeared before Governor Sheldon in company with Sup't Stephens, Inspector A. A. Reed and myself in behalf of this measure which means so much for Custer and all counties north and west of it. The great object of this measure is to provide, so far as possible, for seven months of school in those districts voting the limit of taxation and yet not able to hold, without state aid, more than three months of school. I think it will be safe to say that at least one hundred school districts in Custer county will profit by this measure. It was Superintendent Pinckney's knowledge of conditions in his county and his great desire to secure aid for these districts in need of help that made him such a valuable member of this committee.

Without any disparagement to any of his predecessors in the office of county superintendent of Custer county, I make bold to say that no man has ever rendered Custer county greater service in this office. This is an office that should be removed from politics as far as possible, making merit the sole test. When so measured, Sup't Pinckney will never be found wanting.

I sincerely hope that the good people of Custer county, regardless of political affiliations, will see to it that Superintendent Pinckney is continued in this office for another term at least. He can do much more efficient service in his second term than in his first. Experience in this office counts for something even though the best qualified man in the state were filling it.

Yours for the public schools of Custer county and Nebraska,
J. L. MCBRIEN.

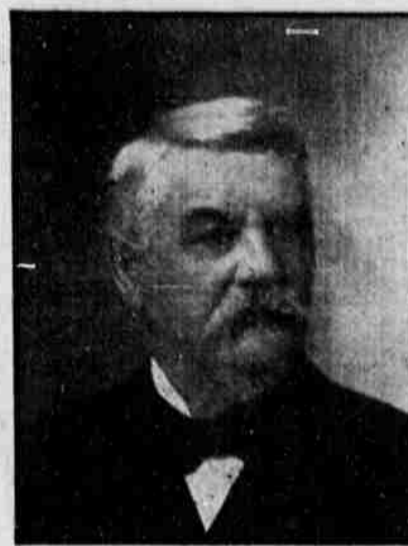

Faithful to Trust Reposed in Him.

Hon. M. B. Reese was born in Macoupin county, Illinois, in 1839, a farmer boy, and doubtless would still be a farmer with a ranch 100 miles square for a workshop somewhere in western Nebraska, had he not injured an arm about the time he was ready to branch out, and this turned his attention to another profession, for in those days a farmer didn't get to use a riding plow or cut cornstalks by proxy as they do now. While he was living on the farm Judge Reese completed the course prescribed by the country schools, and then worked his way through a seminary near his home. He was admitted to practice and removed to Osceola, Ia., Illinois having become entirely too eastern for him. He lived in Iowa from 1865 to 1871, when he heard the call of the prairies and removed to Plattsmouth, where he again hung out his shingle.

Practically the entire life of Judge Reese in Nebraska has been spent under the limelight. He was a member of the constitutional convention in 1875; district attorney of the Fourth judicial district for three terms; supreme judge, and dean of the law department of the state university. All positions of the greatest importance. How well he has done his duty and how faithful he has been to the trust reposed in him, is answered by the endorsement given him by his party at the late primary election. Judge Reese was slow to ask for this endorsement, and only allowed the use of his name after many newspapers and many people had called upon him to again assume leadership.

The republican candidate is a

HON. M. B. REESE.

magnificent specimen of physical manhood, about 6 feet tall and broad in proportion. He has snow white hair and lots of it, and a long white mustache. He is a good specimen of the man who is strong enough to blaze a trail in a new country or lead an old country out of a rut. And he is even tempered, good natured, a wit and an orator. He catches an audience with his humor and he holds them while he clinches his arguments. In 1887 he served as grand master of the Masons, and he has always taken great interest in the lodge. In 1899 he received votes for United States senator though he was not an active candidate for the position.

He should receive the entire republican vote and doubtless will receive many of the votes of the opposition parties because he stands for the very best in state government. He is one of Nebraska's best men and will make a splendid record on the bench.

COME HEAR THE MUSIC
Borrows Fifty--Signs a Note for a Million

The above incident occurs nightly in the third act of "A Millionaire Tramp" which will be presented at the Opera House, Monday evening, October 21. Of course the fifty is only stage money and the note is not genuine, but Harry Chandlers, the tramp, and Doc Staley, the villain, in the play, furnish the audience with a scene of intensity during the proceedings. The story of the Play is one that appeals to all classes alike and furnish many good hearty laughs. The scenic end of the performance leaves nothing to be wished for. On the parade about noon the manager will throw away money. Seats going quick.
