WHAT IS PE-RU-NA?

Is it a Catarrh Remedy, or a Tonic, or is it Both?

Some people call Peruna a great tonic. Others refer to Peruna as a great eatarrh remedy.

Which of these people are right? Is it more proper to call Peruna a catarrh remedy than to call it a tonic? Our reply is, that Peruna is both a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Indeed, there can be no effectual catarrh remedy that is not also a tonic.

In order to thoroughly relieve any case of catarrh, a remedy must not only have a specific action on the mucous membranes affected by the catarrh, but it must have a general tonic action on the nervous system.

Catarrh, even in persons who are otherwise strong, is a weakened condition of some mucous membrane. There must be something to strengthen the circulation, to give tone to the arteries, and to raise the vital forces.

Perhaps no vegetable remedy in the world has attracted so much attention from medical writers as HYDRASTIS CANADENSIS. The wonderful efficacy of this herb has been recognized many years, and is growing in its hold upon the medical profession. When joined with CUBERS and COPAIRA a trio of medical agents is formed in Peruna which constitutes a specific remedy for catarrh that in the present state of medical progress cannot be improved upon. This action, reinforced by such renowned tonics as COLLINSONIA CANADENSIS, COR-YDALIS FORMOSA and CEDRON SEED, ought to make this compound an ideal remedy for catarrh in all its stages and locations in the body.

From a theoretical standpoint, therefore, Peruna is beyond criticism. The use of Peruna, confirms this opinion. Numberless testimonials from every quarter of the earth furnish ample evidence that this judgment is not over enthusiastic. When practical experience confirms a well-grounded theory the result is a truth that cannot be shaken.

Signs of the Times.

In the household department of a farm magazine we find the following communications:

"I am willing to exchange a well preserved copy of Browning's poems for some geraniums."

"I have a complete edition of Byron, containing all his poems and letters, which I shall be glad to exchange for some watermelon seed."

That an article may be good as well as cheap, and give entire satisfaction, is proven by the extraordinary sale of Defiance Starch, each package containing one-third more Starch than can be had of any other brand for the same meney.

CH!LD SAVING INSTITUTE.

An Omaha Institution That Has Aocomplished Great Good.

This institution has accomplished a great work the past ten years in providing temporary shelter and food for more than two thousand homeless children and afterwards placing them in permanent family homes. These homes where so many little ones have been adopted have been repeatedly visited and are known to be good homes, giving evidence that the homeless ones taken from the institute are now surrounded by moral and uplifting Christian influences with advantages for education and social life and protectron in a financial way. Many of them have already been made the sole heirs to farms and to other valuable properties. Some of the children in the institute were taken from evil surroundings and others from homes of extreme poverty and still others from county poor houses. A few years ago a mother died in western Nebraska, leaving eight children, the oldest being 12 years of age. The father was an invalid receiving help from the county. The eight children instead of going to the poor house were brought to the Institute and are doing well in good Three hundred children annually is the average number sheltered and provided for by this institution. The number on hand daily is from 40 to 60. What would become of these homeless children without this place of shelter and protection? This work is a necessity in our community. In spite of all that has been accomplished and in spite of its being a necessary work it lacks financial support. The officers of late have been struggling with a debt on current expenses. The work after all does not seem to be well known. Surely, in this prosperous section of our country, and in these prosperous times, there is money enough to take care of the orphan and dependent little children. This institution does not send out financial agents to collect funds. It takes about half of arguments. what such agents collect to pay their salaries. There is one field agent of the Institute who travels to visit children, investigate homes, who incidentally receives donations of funds. It is hoped that readers of this article will send contributions, making checks payable to C. W. Lyman, treasurer of the Child Saving Institute, Eighteentn and Ohio, streets, Omaha, Neb. Every penny will go to the benefit of the helpless and homeless. All food supplies have advanced in prices. How can the children be fed during the coming winter? How can fuel be provided to warm the building? How can nurses and helpers se paid to take care of the babies? The readers of this article, friends of the friendless, are looked to for assistance to help answer these questions. If people could only understand and realize the needs there would be generous responses.

BRYAN AND HOME FOLKS.

Famous Painting by Madam Car-Hale Cooley Now on Public Exhibition in the City of Omaha.

Some months ago in this publication was given two pictures of "Milking Time on Gov. Sheldon's Ranch on the Weeping Water," and "The Pioneer Haymakers' Lunch Beyond the Missouri," made from the paintings by Catherine Carlisle Cooley of Omaha. The paintings for some time were in the show windows of prominent Omaha merchants, attracting much attention.

Another painting by the same artist is now on exhibition in the Nebraska metropolis and is receiving much favorable criticism. This later acquisition is a painting of William J. Bryan, Mayor James C. Dahlman and members of the Nebraska "Home Folks" delegation who met the Nebraska statesman on his return from Europe. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Cooley, the picture is publicly shown for the first time, and that, too, alongside of the famous painting of the renowned artist, Rosa Bonheur, whose pupil she was. Mrs. Cooley is the woman who presented a $5,000 painting to Alice Roosevelt, the white house bride, and who has made portraits of Blaine, Conklin and other distinguished people. This famous painting is now on free public exhibition at Nicoll, the Tailor, Karbach Block, Omaha, Neb.

NO STAIN ON HIS RECORD.

That's Where the Driver Had the Best of the Preacher.

A New York clergyman, who often spends his vacation in fishing the streams of the Adirondacks, was on one trip adopted by a handsome set-.er dog, which insisted on following nim from camp to camp, as he moved along the stream.

One day he met a party of men working upstream with a native guid-The guide immediately recognized the dog as his own property.

"Trying to steal my setter, are you?" he shouted at the clergyman. 'I'll have you to jail for this! There's a law in the woods just as big as you have in the city."

The clergyman endeavored to explain that he was an unwilling companion of the dog, which had refused to be driven away, but to little effect until he added a two-dollar bill to his

"It's queer what strange things happen to a man up here," he said to the stage-driver who later carried him away from the woods. "That is the first time I was ever accused of stealing a dog.'

"Yes, sir," replied the driver, sympathetically, and added, after a moment's pause, "For myself, sir, I have never been accused of stealing anything."-Youth's Companion.

Delicate Shade of Meaning. A keen retort is credited to the late Dr. Haig-Brown, master of Charterhouse.

His brother-in-law, Dr. Porter, the master of Peterhouse, another famous English school, wrote him, inquiring his precise meaning in a certificate that a boy's character was "generally" good.

"When I say generally," he replied, 'I mean not particularly."

Not to Be Wasted.

Ben Cary had near his house a swamp, which was a breeding-place for herds of man-eating mosquitoes. Some enterprising neighbors, who learned of the crude oil treatment, went to Ben and tried to persuade him to exterminate the pests.

"Exterminate 'em?" said Ben. "Not much. Not much. Why, Mis' Cary an' I just paid $32 for screening the side plazzer that she's been pestering me about for years. How we goin' to get any good of it, if we kill off the skeeters?"-Youth's Companion.

With a smooth iron and Defiance Starch, you can launder your shirtwaist just as well at home as the steam laundry can; it will have the proper stiffness and finish, there will be less wear and tear of the goods, and it will be a positive pleasure to use a Starch that does not stick to the iron.

WHEN MILESTONES CHEER.

They Always Gladdon the Heart of the Pedestrian.

In a valking trip a milestone along the way is the most companionable fellow in the world; your spirits rise as you near him as though you were about to greet a human friend, and they keep almost consistently on his high level till his brother a mile distant advances to meet you.

And when you overlook one of this friendly company because of an encroaching bank or screening boughs, says the Travel Magazine, his neighbor further on comes to you doubly welcome. At the latter end of this passage in the journey your spirits flag a trifle as though oppressed by a sense of desertion. You may even scowl at the overhanging bank which is more than a party to this conceal-

Those worthy persons who attend to the roads should see to it that every milestone within their province stands out frankly from its leafy background. Observance of this, however, would rob the wayfarer of that leap of the heart which is his when the stone tells the story of two miles done rather than one. For however much the landscape and the minute world at his feet may claim the footfarer's admiration he is still keenly alive to the virtue of decent distances covered in his day's journey.

Saw It Come Out of a Cow. A little city boy and his sister Dorothy were taken to the country for the first time.

The two children were happy as the day was long. In the late afternoon they watched the cows come home, heard with delight the tinkling cowbells, and the little boy even went to the barns to see the milking done.

At supper, just as Dorothy was lifting her glass to her rosy lips, the boy cried out:

"Oh, Dotty, don't! You musn't drink that milk. It's not fit to drink. It came out of a cow; I saw it."

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Wisdom of Solomon. In a dog case at Felixstowe, England, one witness testified that the dog whose loss was being sued for was worth $125, while another swore it was worthless. So the judge awarded $62.50 damages as a fair average.
