Death of Francis Wilcox.
 Contributed
 The vicinity of Oconto was shocked on Saturday last, Nov.
 2, when the sad news spread of the sudden death of Francis Wilcox, an old and respected settler of that place.
 Mr. Wilcox seemed to be in exceptionally good spirits during the day and joshed and cracked jokes with his two sons, Sam and Nelson, before they left to go out hunting in the morning. At 12 o'clock he ate a hearty dinner, after which he took a pail and went over to George Thurman's windmill after water. He sat down to wait for the windmill to pump and was found a few minutes after by a son of Mr. Thurman, in a sitting posture, having expired in that position. Heart failure was the cause.
 Deceased was 74 years of age and has resided here since the spring of '84. He leaves a wife and three sons and three daughters to mourn his demise.
 Funeral services were held at the Evangelical church, Monday afternoon and the remains interred in the Oconto cemetery.
