

Condensed Local and Personal Paragraphs

J. W. Clay, went to Ansley Monday.

Willis Runyon, of Mason City, was in the city Monday, on his way to Callaway to visit relatives.

Mayor and Mrs. W. A. George went to Omaha last Saturday and are expected home tomorrow.

Sol Gerringer one of the pioneers of this locality who now resides in Oregon, is visiting in the city.

Attorney J. R. Dean has been confined to the house this week, being in that popular class of grip patients.

Frank Madrid and A. J. Heller of Halsey were in the city Tuesday transacting business before the U. S. land office.

Daniel Sage, better known as the long haired poet, was down from Hooker county Tuesday as a witness in the contest case of Descomb Mills against John Ellwood.

William Bogort and sister, Catherine Fritzpatrick, of Buffalo, Nebraska, were in the city yesterday. Each filed on a section of land in southeastern Cherry county.

Judge not, and ye shall not be judged; condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned; forgive and ye shall be forgiven.—Luke vi-37. The city hall has not—as yet—been painted—neither has the Custer block—also.

The Michigan State Evangelist Rev. Baker, is holding revival meetings at the Second Eudell Baptist church this week. He will hold meetings one week at the First Eudell Baptist church commencing Saturday, February first. All are cordially invited.

That season of the year is rapidly approaching when the circus bill posters will attract the undivided attention of the Broken Bow urchin and cause him to connive in order to earn enough lucre to pilot him past the ticket taker at the entrance to the big pavilion.

Berton Haage, of Merna, was a city visitor yesterday. He informs us that he expects to go back to Oklahoma to look after his real estate interests there. He informs us that Harry Kellenbarger has a boy in his home. It is the first grandson of Joe Kellenbarger and wife.

W. L. McCandless, chasier of the Berwyn State bank, came to Broken Bow last Friday and was laid up at the home of his parents for three days during which time he suffered all the pains known to la grippe. Vice Pres. Haumont went down and attended to the wants of bank customers during William's enforced absence.

Clara Jeffords has been appointed post mistress at Mullen. Miss Jeffords is one of Custer county's products. She went to Mullen two years ago where she was employed as teacher. About a year ago she filed on a section of land in that vicinity and is now rewarded with a good position by Uncle Sam which relieves her from actual residence on her land.

Mrs. J. G. VanCott was severely burned on the hands and face Monday by the igniting of gasoline. As has been her custom she was pouring gasoline on the clothes in the wash boiler, when the fluid ignited and burned her as stated. It is a great wonder her clothing did not catch fire, in which event the accident would have proven more serious, although 'tis no small matter as it is.

Hon. F. M. Currie returned to the city yesterday from Mexico whither he went three weeks ago with a party to inspect the gold mine there in which he is largely interested. Next Tuesday he will again leave for Mexico accompanying a party of eighteen. Those who have been there—so far as we have interviewed—express the opinion that the shares in this mine are a perfectly safe investment.

Judge Sullivan lost his white saddle horse Monday, an animal to which he was greatly attached. His son, Lynn, was riding the horse near the Brenizer ranch, south of this city, rounding up some cattle when the horse stumbled over an old road, and fell. He regained his feet quickly, stood for a few seconds and fell over dead. One of Lynn's arms was fractured by the fall, but he was not otherwise hurt.

Comrade Ner Hartley has been one of the numerous grip victims the past week, but is again able to navigate.

County Supt. Pinckney has been on the "under the weather" list, fighting strenuously to break away from an attack of la grippe.

Peter Luddon, of Lincoln, was in the city yesterday. He filed on the Navy Pearson homestead near Halsey, having secured her relinquishment.

Clarence George, of Cumro, who is attending college at Grand Island, visited with his brother, L. D. George of this city, Sunday. He returned to Grand Island Monday.

J. A. Kellenbarger was in the city last Thursday and called to fix his subscription ahead so he would not be deprived of the weekly visit of the REPUBLICAN, which he has read for twenty-five years. Mr. K. is one of the solid farmers between Merna and Amselmo and a mighty good man, says everyone who knows him.

Last week Attorney J. R. Dean went to Lincoln and argued for the defense in the case of John R. Allen vs the Estate of Andrew Allen, in the Supreme court of the state. Mr. Dean feels confident he will win the case as it has been tried in both the County and District courts, and in each trial a verdict was rendered in favor of his client.

The interior of the Globe hotel has been so changed by a thorough renovation and the service has become so vastly improved under the new management that a number of patrons suggested that the name be changed also and the suggestion was considered favorably and now there is no more Globe hotel in Broken Bow, but in its place we have the Her Grand.

For some time past both Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gandy have been suffering with catarrh and as they have been unable to find relief in medical treatment have decided that a change of climate will be necessary to health and happiness, and the chances are they will go to Texas where catarrh is not on the list of ailments of humanity.

The Mason City Star appeared last week in a bran new dress. That is, a complete outfit of new type was used in its publication and the improvement over the old garb it has worn so long is very marked. Bro. Anderson is certainly giving his patrons a neat newspaper and they should not be slow in showing their appreciation by a prompt payment of the subscription price.

The large new residence of J. S. Baisch on the north side near the Episcopal church has been completed and the family have moved thereto this week. Your "Uncle Joseph" freely confesses that he does not care to again tackle the residence building proposition—not very soon, anyhow—unless he is assured that some of the turmoils and anxieties incident thereto are to be eliminated.

DEATH—Florence Smalley, aged 5 years and 4 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smalley, died at their home in Broken Bow, Neb., Jan. 28, 1908. The deceased has never been a healthy child and for sometime past it has been felt that she could not long survive. She had been treated by eminent physicians but their skill and knowledge did not avail. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Thompson, and attended by an unusually large number of friends and acquaintances who deeply sympathize with the family in their sad bereavement.

John O. Taylor, who settled at Berwyn many, many years ago, and opened a general merchandise store when Berwyn was less than a 10 acre plat and not enough citizens to organize a fair-sized husking bee, was a caller last Saturday to pay his subscription a year in advance—which he has done every year for the past twenty-five years—and on Tuesday he was appointed post master at Berwyn. This goes to show that those who are prompt and regular in paying their subscription to the REPUBLICAN are the men who secure the good things that are being constantly handed out. "A word to the wise," etc.

A Great Opportunity. On or about February 5th a salesman carrying fourteen large trunks, each one packed chock full of samples of carpets and rugs, will arrive in the city and remain a couple of days at the furniture store of D. C. Konkell in order to give those of our people—who so desire—an opportunity to select from the stock of a wholesale house. Here will be a variety that you may not have an opportunity of purchasing from again very soon and it certainly behooves all who contemplate purchasing a carpet or rug to call at Mr. Konkell's store on the date above mentioned.

The Broken Bow District Sunday School convention will be held in this city Saturday night and Sunday, February 8th and 9th in the Christian and Methodist churches.

A series of religious meetings will begin at the Baptist church in Broken Bow on Sunday, Feb. 9th, Evangelist S. J. Baker preaching. Citizens are earnestly invited to attend.

Mrs. John H. Russell, of Merna, was brought to this city Monday and examined by the insanity board who found her reasoning faculties greatly impaired and ordered that she be taken to the hospital for the insane.

A team belonging to Judge Reese became frightened by an automobile Tuesday evening, broke from their moorings near the post office and made a detour of the city at a rapid gait, accompanied by a lumber wagon. No damage resulted.

George W. King, whose age was past 82, father of Mrs. Fred Arthur and Mrs. Robest Ledwich, died at the home of the latter, in this city, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., Jan. 28th. Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at the M. E. church.

Since last Thursday only one marriage license has been issued in this county and that was to Edward L. Jameson, age 23, and Mamie E. Ford, age 19, both of Walworth. The situation, therefore, might properly be designated as "matrimonial stringency."

Last week the large plate glass was placed in the Cadwell block, which adjoins the Custer National bank building. This improves the looks of the block very much, and if improvements are continued it will certainly become one of the handsomest structures in the city.

A jury term of the District court in and for Custer county will convene at the court house in Broken Bow at 9 o'clock next Monday morning, Judge Hostetler presiding. There are on the trial docket sixty equity cases, to be tried by the judge, forty civil jury cases and one criminal case.

There is but one criminal case on the calendar for trial at the term of District court which convenes in this city next Monday. In this James E. McGough is charged with poking a knife blade into the anatomy of Theodore Leserve with the intent to do great bodily harm—or words to that effect. The alleged attempt to tap the interior department of Leserve occurred at Westerville last fall and created considerable excitement in that vicinity at the time.

By uniting in marriage at Greenfield, Iowa, last Saturday, Don C. Wilson and Miss Eva Gadd sprung quite a surprise on their hosts of friends in this city and vicinity. They arrived here Monday and will remain a couple of weeks before taking up their residence in Omaha where Mr. Wilson holds a position as electrician. The contracting parties are among our most popular and highly respected young people and many bouquets laden with good luck wishes will be extended them.

While Mrs. Bartholomew and her friend, Miss Elsie Raymond, were driving towards the fair grounds Monday evening, one of the shaft pockets on the axle broke, dropping one side of the shafts and frightening the horse, which started to run, but made only a few leaps till the buggy came in contact with a telephone pole. Both ladies were thrown violently to the ground, Mrs. Bartholomew was severely bruised but not injured so badly as Miss Raymond who did not regain consciousness for several hours. That they escaped without more serious injury is almost a miracle. The ladies are now convalesced, Miss Raymond being able to be out of doors today.

Wedding Bells Ring Out.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of E. E. Hogaboom, seven miles west of Broken Bow, at noon on Jan. 22, 1908, in the uniting for life of Miss Goldie Hogaboom and Mr. Frank Neth, in the presence of relatives and friends to the number of about sixty, Rev. Daniel C. Popson, of the M. E. church at Merna, officiating.

Mr. Elvin Hogaboom did the handsome as best man and Miss Mary Neth performed the duties of bridesmaid. Belle Neth was flower girl and Wesley Hogaboom ring bearer.

The bride wore white taffeta trimmed in blue China silk and German silk valencine and carried pale pink geraniums and ferns. After the ceremony the party partook of a wedding feast. The large number of presents bestowed upon the young couple evidenced the high esteem in which they are held in the community in which they reside.

With many Broken Bow acquaintances the REPUBLICAN joins in extending congratulations.

PUBLICATION NOTICE.

To William H. Morrow, Mrs. William H. Morrow, first name unknown, but who is the wife of said William H. Morrow and George H. Morrow.

You will take notice that on the 20 day of January, 1908, Willis Cadwell, attorney, filed a petition against you and each of you, in the District Court of Custer County, Nebraska, in an action wherein L. A. Wright is plaintiff, and William H. Morrow, Mrs. William H. Morrow and George H. Morrow are defendants, the object and prayer of which petition is to foreclose a certain tax lien upon the north-east quarter of the south-west quarter of section seventeen in township fifteen, north range seventeen west in Custer county, Nebraska, existing under a tax sale of said land duly made on the 30 day of February, 1901, for the taxes upon said land for the years, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895 and 1896. Said certificate amounts, with subsequent taxes, interest and costs, to the sum of $24.81, for which amount, together with interest, costs of suit and attorney's fees, as by law allowed, plaintiff prays judgement; that same may be decreed to be a first lien upon above described premises, and for a decree of foreclosure and sale of said real estate. You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 10th day of February, 1908, or said petition will be taken as true and judgement rendered accordingly. Dated January 20, 1908. L. A. WRIGHT, Plaintiff. By WILLIS CADWELL, her Attorney. Attest: GEO. B. MAIR, Clerk Dist. Court. First Pub. Jan. 30-4.
