Lincoln's First Speech.

In 1832 Abraham Lincoln was a candidate for the Illinois legislature. His opponent was Peter Cartwright, the famous pioneer Methodist preacher.

In that campaign Lincoln made his first political speech. It was delivered from a wagon in the street of the village of Poppsville, in Sangamon county. The speech was very short; but like all of Lincoln's speeches, it was sincere and direct.

This is what Lincoln said: Gentlemen and Fellow Citizens: I presume you all know who I am. I am humble Abraham Lincoln. I have been solicited by my many friends to become a candidate for the legislature. My politics are short and sweet. I am in favor of a national bank. I am in favor of the international improvement system and a high protective tariff. These are my sentiments and my political principles. If elected I shall be thankful; if not, it will be all the same.

Lincoln was defeated. Referring in his autobiography to this campaign, Lincoln said: "I ran for the legislature the same year (1832), and was beaten—the only time I have ever been beaten by the people."

But Lincoln's experience proved that the "sober second sense" of the people can be trusted. In the following four campaigns he was elected to the legislature, after which he declined to be a candidate any longer. In 1846 Lincoln was elected to congress, defeating his old opponent, Peter Cartwright.
