HIGHEST TYPE OF CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN

Churchmen Who Know Judge Taft Render Him This Sincere Tribute.

The Attitude of the Republican Candidate Towards Religion and a Life Which Shows Adherence to the Best Ethics and Morals.

"Because he is the highest type of the Christian gentleman." This is the way in which I heard the pastor of a Methodist church in southern Illinois end an argument with a layman on the train coming to Cincinnati from St. Louis, writing a staff correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Bishop J. C. Hartzell of the Methodist Episcopal Church, discussing the religious beliefs of Bryan and Taft, after calling on the latter, said: "Which of these men I shall vote for will not be decided by their religious beliefs, but what they are as men, and by the principles and policies they stand for in the administration of the government."

Remembering that Mrs. Taft is a Presbyterian, but that Miss Helen Taft was confirmed in the Episcopal Church in Washington last winter at the same time that Miss Ethel Roosevelt, daughter of the President, was confirmed, I wondered as to Mr. Taft's church affiliation.

"Mrs. Taft and children are Episcopalians, and the Secretary frequently accompanies them to St. John's Church, where, also, he has a pew. While Mr. Roosevelt goes to the German Reformed Church, his wife and family, who are Episcopalians, attend historic St. John's Church, where they sit only one or two pews removed from Mrs. Taft and her children."

This Methodist testimony indicated to me the broad and liberal view of Mr. Taft in religious matters. In looking through the file of this same publication—the Western Christian Advocate—I found a discussion of both nominees, in the course of which it was asserted:

"The sympathies of both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan are very broad, and they worship easily and naturally with any Christian denomination. Whichever man is elected, the country will have, therefore, a President of clean life, lofty principles and Christian convictions."

Opinion of Negro Clergyman. On the same afternoon, when Bishop Hartzell called, Rev. James G. Robinson, pastor of the Baker Street African Methodist Church of Dayton, Ohio, called at the headquarters in company with W. H. Jones, one of the leading colored lawyers of the same city. Mr. Jones was proud of the fact that he is president of the Colored Taft Club, the first one to be incorporated in the United States, and Rev. Mr. Robinson admitted that he is president of the Board of Directors of the same club.

"I believe," he said, "Judge Taft will be elected by a safe and comfortable majority, not simply because he is a Republican, nor am I speaking because I am a Republican. But Judge Taft represents all of the ideals of the true Christian statesman."

A GOOD INVESTMENT

Nebraska Reaps Large Returns From Republican Rule in the State.

When a man invests his money in any enterprise he usually does so with the expectation of reaping something of profit; of drawing something in the way of dividends from his investment. The people of Nebraska have "invested" in the republican party in recent years. It is reasonable that they ask what have been the profits to the people; what dividends have the people received for their investment of confidence in the republican party?

The Nebraska republican platform of 1906 contained seven important pledges to the people of the state, everyone of which were "redeemed" by being enacted into law by republican votes in the legislature and approved by governor Sheldon.

1.—A memorial to congress to enact a law compelling railroads to pay their taxes at the same time and in the same manner as private persons are compelled to do.

2.—Direct Primary Law. Twenty-seven republican senators, fifty-three republican representatives, a majority in each house, enacted the bill.

3.—Anti-Pass Law. Twenty-five republican senators, sixty-three republican representatives, a majority in each house, enacted the bill.

4.—Railway Commission Law. Twenty-six republican senators, sixty-two republican representatives, a majority in each house, enacted the bill.

5.—Employers' Liability Law. Twenty republican senators, fifty-nine republican representatives, a majority in each house, enacted the bill.

6.—Municipal (Terminal) Taxation of Railway Property. Twenty republican senators, fifty-one republican representatives, a majority in each house, enacted the bill.

7.—Pure Food and Dairy Law. Twenty-six republican senators, fifty-six republican representatives, a majority in each house, enacted the bill.

Each and everyone of these measures were promptly approved by the republican governor of Nebraska, Hon. George L. Sheldon, who has again been selected by the republican electors of the state at the recent direct primary election to head the republican state ticket as the candidate of the party for re-election to the high office he has so ably filled during the past two years.

WHAT TAFT WILL DO.

Here is a positive declaration by William H. Taft which should reassure the friends of President Roosevelt.

"If elected I propose to devote all the ability that is in me to the constructive work of suggesting to Congress the means by which the Roosevelt policies shall be clinched."

Taft is making a good impression by his thoughtful speeches. Bryan is as clever and as interesting as ever—and as superficial.—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.
