Home People Recommend Him.

A paper circulated by an old friend of N. T. Gadd's in Buffalo Scott's county, Iowa, has been sent to this city. The paper is signed by 140 of the residents of Buffalo where Gadd was born and raised. The paper states that Gadd's father was one of the foremost physicians in that part of the country. We quote the following from it:

"Nate was always a student. He worked hard and whatever of education he has, and that is beyond the ordinary, was grubbed for himself. No young man was more thought of than he; he was always courteous, gentle and kind—generous to a fault, with the courage of a lion."

"What he pledges, we feel sure that he will carry out, and we bespeak for him the success that he deserves."

When Nate left Buffalo a mass meeting was called and resolutions of regret passed.
