News Notes From Our Assistant Editors

ZUMBROTA ZEPHYRS.

Walter Herrick is husking corn for M. D. Stone.

Tom Rector of Ormsby spent Sunday with John Martin.

Glen Richardson has finished husking corn for A. I. Routh.

Nearly every one is ready for a corn sheller to put in an appearance.

J. T. Cole's and B. B. Sands' will soon be through picking corn.

Oscar Tappan and family were entertained at G. J. Martin's last Sunday.

Chas. Koozer has got home from Ormsby, where he has been husking corn.

Supt. Pinckney visited the Tappan Valley school last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. G. C. Rector visited her mother, Mrs. A. I. Routh, a day or so last week.

Roscoe Callen who has been in this vicinity the last few days has been on the sick list.

M. D. Callen, wife and daughter Maud spent Sunday at Mr. Rector's near Ormsby.

Oscar Tappan and Clarence Franklin have returned from their trip to Gandy. Have not yet learned the results of this hunting expedition.

Seems queer without any parties or gatherings of any kind at this time of the season.

Miss Helen Reneau of Broken Bow visited from Friday night until Sunday evening with Miss Madge Bishop.

E. B. Barber was getting ready to move from Broken Bow back to the farm in this locality the first of the week.

Misses Mabel Routh and Bertha Koozer visited in Broken Bow on last Wednesday with Mrs. F. K. Griffith.

Are all the little children looking for Santa Claus on Dec. 24? Write him a letter, at Broken Bow and make known your desires, and perhaps he'll be more liable to please you.

Some of the young people of Ormsby, were skating in Mr. Holcomb's pasture. The Tappan Valleyites were also trying some of the near by lagoons.

The Extreme cold weather and light snow, has kept the people closer home than usual. I suppose we had better get used to cold, as one would think that Xmas so near it would be strange to have such nice weather as just a little while back we had, to continue until the first of the New Year.

CALLAWAY SIFTINGS.

Lawyer J. B. Dunn made a trip to Oconto on legal business Tuesday morning of this week.

Rev. J. W. Seabrooke was called home to University Place to preach the funeral sermon of a friend.

Presiding Elder Matz, of the Evangelical Church, is assisting Rev. Netherly in the meeting of that church this week.

Dr. Shumate, District Superintendent of the Kearney District of the Methodist Church, preach Sunday night in the M. Church.

Mr. Geo. O. Bengert went to Davis City Tuesday morning on business. He will also visit Omaha before he returns and take in the Great Corn Exposition there which opens Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Gred Payton and Miss Lillian Morgan were joined in wedlock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs. N. M. Morgan, last Tuesday evening, by Rev Netherly. Mr. Austin Miller of Callaway, and Miss Eva Morgan of York served as best man and lady on the occasion. These two estimable people were born and raised here. They have the best wishes of all friends.

Miss Minnie E. Oliphant, evangelist, a cousin of Mr. Roy Barnard, has been visiting here the last week, and several nights addressed the people at the evangelical church, where a series of meetings are now being held. Miss Oliphant is on her way from Callaway to her home place in the east where she has been engaged for evangelistic work. It is too bad she cannot remain longer here for Callaway needs just such workers as bad as any place.

PLEASANT VIEW.

John Lee and father have been husking corn for H. Wooters.

Several from here attended the party at Chas Rudical's Thursday night.

Mrs. D. H. Rudical spent Friday with her daughter Mrs. H. C. Wooters.

Clariss and Willis Selby visited the latter part of last week at Chas Fodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Selby, and daughter spent Tuesday in this neighborhood.

ORTELO.

CUSTER COLLEGE NEWS.

Mr. Mooney of Dunning started to college Monday.

Claud Willis was visiting the school a few days this week.

Mr. Barnes' sister and friend of Litchfield started to college on Monday.

The boys have changed the date of their social to Friday evening the 18th.

Miss Lottie Waterberry spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at Berwyn.

Prof. Cornett was building a hog pen Saturday. Guess he is going into the swine business.

Mr. Klatt will favor the students with a solo the night of their entertainment if his voice permits.

The college and city teams played basket ball Friday evening, the score being 36 to 18 in favor of the college.

Miss Zoah Ward of Oconto has quit college and is teaching the McKinley school. Her absence is missed by all the students.

The Custer College first basket ball team had their pictures taken Tuesday. Mr. Taylor will be unable to take any more pictures until he receives his new camera.

The Third Market Day.

The third market day sale conducted by Auctioneers Tindler & O'Rourke drew a good crowd and a nice lot of stuff was sold for good prices. About twenty head of horses and a number of hogs and cows were sold at the sale. A few farm wagons and other machinery brought good prices.

SOCIETY ITEMS

AFTERNOON PARTY.

Mrs. John Squires and Mrs. Robertson entertained Wednesday, afternoon at the pleasant home of Mrs. Squires. The invitations announced "a shirt waist party" and were issued to eighty-five ladies, in and out of the city. After a pleasant hour a contest was announced and was followed by the distribution of sheets of paper on which was typewritten stories called a "shirt waist romance." Here and there a word was omitted, and the guests were expected to be familiar enough—with all the parts of a waist, that has been in vogue, for these many years—to supply the omission. The contest created much merriment but no one was able to supply all the words. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Squires and Mrs. Robertson were assisted in serving by Mrs. Orr and Mrs. H. H. Squires.

TWO KENSINGTONS.

Last Friday and Saturday afternoon Mrs. I. A. Coleman and Mrs. Fred Ream entertained some of their friends at two Kensingtons, at the home of Mrs. Coleman. Saturday afternoon was in honor of Mrs. Mathews of Callaway, who is the guest of Mrs. George Mair. Late in the afternoon a stray morsel of gossip, a most unusual thing—found its way among the guests—namely—that they were being entertained on millions row, and immediately, without question, the ladies residing on that row became privileged characters. The house was decorated with white chrysanthemums, as were also the small tables at which the guests were served a four course luncheon. Those present and invited were: Mesdames. Lomax, Xanders, Brenizer, Bowen, Baisch, Molyneux, Morgan, W. Martin, Englund, Gutterston, Mair, J. Squires, Mrs. Mathews of Lincoln and Mrs. Helen Smith of Chicago.
