Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

We publish our formulae
We banish alcohol from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor

Ayer's

Many a boy is called dull and stupid, when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills will do such boys a great deal of good. They keep the liver active.

Last Saturday evening a crowd of young folks surprised Miss Bessie Johnson of this city, it being her eighteenth birthday. She received many useful and pretty presents. Various games were played and a delicious lap supper was served. All present reported a good time.

James Bobblets of Oconto was quite seriously hurt Saturday while returning from Oconto to his home on the South Loup. He was trying to get in his top buggy after shutting a gate, when the team started. He got tangled up in the lines and was internally hurt and for some time was unconscious. Dr. Mullins was called to attend to his injuries and when the doctor left him Sunday noon he had regained consciousness and was doing nicely.

Automobile Accident.
Another automobile accident occurred in the city Sunday afternoon. Luther Miller, Charles Brittain and the Misses May and Nellie O'Brien was driving east on the road to the fair grounds with Miller's fancy single driver when the horse became frightened at an approaching automobile and shied to the right of the road which was badly guttered out and his "gig" stuck in one of the gutters. The vehicle tipped over throwing them out. Miss Nellie O'Brien sprained her ankle and Mr. Miller sprained his ankle and bruised the top of his head.

THEY DO SAY

That some women say b'gosh when she means something worse

That if you wish to be happy yourself you should strive to make others happy.

That false pride does this country more harm than a bad yield of crops.

That a rolling stone gathers no moss. But just think of the push it gets.

That eggs at thirty cents per dozen should make hens feel proud of themselves.

That many a good church member has been spoiled by electing him to office.

That a man full of booze is like a fish out of water. About all he can do is flop around.

That there are great many people, like Esau of old, who are bartering their soul for a mess of pottage.

That the merchant who advertises in the newspaper has the interest of his town and community at heart.

That Broken Bow becomes a better and busier Broken Bow every time a merchant advertises for increasing trade.

That the buzzing of a bumble bee around your ears is preferable to a nagging wife. Yet you feel like swatting both.

That some people let you know with their tongues that their brains rattle in their heads like peas in a dried up pod.

That when the devil dresses up in his best and goes to church some church member there is about to backslide.

That a woman has just as good a right to swear as a man, but to hear one use cuss words gives a swearing man the cold shivers.

That the political pot in Custer County has commenced to simmer and the predictions are that it will be boiling over by the first of March.

That some young men think they are it when they part their hair in the middle and get behind a cigarette. Others have a right to their opinion.

That when a man or woman has reached the age of forty they can not help but smile when they look back to their teens and remember their first love.

That after some people have talked all day, it would be hard to discover anything worthy of remembering even if you used a fine tooth rake on their talk.

That there isn't much difference between a man and a woman. A man spends about half of his time hunting his hat and a woman half her time in buying one.

That a wild hieneskites or some other kind of animal, has been seen in the southwestern part of the county. Wonder what kind of liquids they are drinking down there?

That some men are like Judas Iscariot who betrayed the Savior for thirty pieces of silver. Their greed for money is so great that they will sacrifice friendship for a few cents.

That a man who uses tobacco will lie, beg and steal. Now don't get mad. Wait a minute! If he hasn't got any, he will beg a chew or smoke and if he can't get it any other way he will steal it. Now about the lie. He will tell the beggar he is just out when a ten cent cut reposes in his pocket.

A letter from Fred Alberts, one of Broken Bow's old soldiers who is up at Hot Springs, S. D. for his health states that he is getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Scholtz of Occola, Nebr. were visiting in this city last Thursday.

Della Hopkins left for Dunning Friday morning on a New Year's visit.

DR. CALDWELL'S CURE FOR CANCER

Authorative Instances of the Treatment's Curative Results.

Treatment Produces Almost Immediately a Complete Relief From Pain

Cancer as a rule has no respect for person, climate, altitude or position. It is found as often in the large cities of the United States as it is throughout the country. Dr. Caldwell, affirming hercine known as a result of her experience in her large continued practice. Years of the largest and most successful practice in the northwest is evidence of the superiority of her ability and integrity. Dr. Caldwell furnishes her own medicine. Her laboratory is known to contain the largest assortment of pure medicines of any laboratory to be found throughout the United States. She is directly interested in each patient, therefore when she treats them and the medicines are prepared directly under her supervision she knows that the patients are getting just what she intended them to have.

We publish below some recent cures:
Mrs. John Wibbles, Wolbach, Nebr., cured female, nervous and kidney disease. Had been given up by a number of doctors and told that she must be operated on. Today is sound and well.
Mrs. Frank Henderson, of Spaulding Nebr., cured of heart disease, female, liver and kidney disease. Had suffered for many years.
Mrs. S. E. Hanley, Kearney, Nebr., cured of a complication of many diseases. Had been to many doctors previously.

Frank Colton, Oakdale, Nebr., says: "I was an invalid for eleven years from stomach and heart disease. I had been given up as incurable by five doctors, and concluded to give Dr. Caldwell a trial. After three months treatment I was almost well; I continued it two more months and from that day to this which is seven years, I have been a well man." Mable Swanson, Greeley Center, Neb., cured of long standing nervous disease. Dr. Caldwell will make her next visit:

The old time school of medical ethics an unwritten law prohibits advertising. Not that the plan of advertising detracts or interferes with any physician's professional ability but is not considered by doctors as a whole as a fair and square deal. In fact in the doctor business, the code of medical ethics and the adhering to that plan of ethics is what we might term a trust, a law or an understanding which binds physicians socially to carry out a certain plan of laws formulated and known to themselves only. Dr. Caldwell has always believed in letting the good things be known.

Diseases of women, which require more ability and skill in their treatment than any other class of diseases are treated with the greatest success by methods original with Dr. Caldwell and 90 per cent of the usual operations are avoided. Operations, as is well known, even the slightest of them, are attended with danger, and when a system of treatment is so effected as to render a cure possible without operating it is certainly one to
