Political Announcement.

Being prompted by a desire to lead and direct the educational forces of the great county of Custer, in whose schools I was a pupil nearly 30 years ago, I hereby formally announce myself a candidate for the position of County Superintendent of Public Instruction. I have advocated republican principles for 15 years and am thus asking the distinguished honor of being its nominee at the coming election.

WALTER W. WATERS.

To William F. Huston, Non-Resident Defendant.
You are hereby notified that on the 24th day of December, 1908, Mary E. Huston filed her petition in the district court of Custer County, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to obtain from you an absolute divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, non-support and desertion; to secure the custody and control of your minor children, and to procure their appropriate relief. You will answer said petition on or before the first day of March, 1909.

Mar. E. Huston Plaintiff.

There's a flock of new facts—interesting and important—every day about every worth-while store.

A fact is worth nothing to one person—and hundreds of dollars to another. There are some facts of that sort in to-day's ads.

The right person will not know that you want to buy it, or care whether you want to sell it, unless you advertise.

L. S. Emphfield of Anselmo, spent Tuesday in Broken Bow.

Work For A Niscent Pencil

If a "Knowing Pencil" could mark across the face of every advertisement in this issue IT'S ACTUAL VALUE TO YOU—to you personally, to you NOW—you would be interested, wouldn't you?

Couldn't you make a pretty accurate appraisal yourself? It will not take much clairvoyancy on your part to find opportunities, price-concessions, chances to buy and sell—and to estimate the money worth of these to yourself.

Besides—making such an appraisal is an education for you. It will teach you to know "your own interests" at sight—to weigh and consider propositions that appeal to you, and to discard those that do not. And, after cultivating the habit of marking the ads, that are important to you, you will find yourself the owner of

A Pencil That "Knows Things!"
