Good Company For 1909.

You are careful what choice of friends the young people of your household make. You do not open wide the door to those whose speech and behavior betray ill-breeding and lax morals. Are you as careful to shut it against books and periodicals that present vulgar and demoralizing pictures of life and its purpose? Perhaps you are among those who have found that The youth's Companion occupies the same place in the family reading that the high minded young man or woman holds among your associates.

The companion is good without being "goody-goody." It is entertaining, it is informing. In its stories it depicts life truly, but it chooses those phases of life in which duty, honor, loyalty are the guiding motives. A full description of the current volume will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address on request. The new subscriber who at once sends $1.75 for a year's subscription will receive free The Companion's new Calendar for 1909. "In Grandmother's Garden," lithographed in thirteen colors.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION. 141 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass.

HUSBANDS FOR CONVICTS.

Women in French Prisons Enjoy Privilege of Marrying in New Caledonia.

French female convicts enjoy a privilege not granted to female convicts in other countries—that of having husbands provided for them by the state. Only these husbands must be convicts.

Every six months a notice is circulated in the female penitentiaries calling upon all women who feel minded to go out to New Caledonia and be married to make an application to that effect through the governor.

Elderly women are always very prompt in making such applications; but they are not entertained. The matrimonial candidates must be young and exempt from physical infirmities.

The selected candidates have to sign engagements promising to marry convicts and to settle in New Caledonia for the remainder of their lives. On these conditions the government transports them, gives them an outfit, and a ticket-of-leave when they land at Noumea.

Their marriages are arranged for them by the governor of the colony, who has a selection of well-behaved convicts ready for them to choose from; and each girl may consult her own fancy within certain limits, for the proportion of marriageable men to women is about three to one.

It has happened more than once that pretty girls have been wooed by warders, free settlers or time-expired soldiers and sailors, instead of by convicts. In such cases the governor can only assent to a marriage on condition that the female convict's free lover shall place himself in the position of a ticket-of-leave man and undertake never to leave the colony.
