

The Whipple Humane HORSE COLLAR

THE HUMANE Collar confronts the Anatomy of the animal and consequently the draft bears where nature intended it should. This collar has been used on horses having SORE LUMPY SHOULDERS and FISTULOUS NECKS and in every case they have been ENTIRELY CURED WHILE WORKING.

A horse loses no time when working with the Humane Collar. It saves you money for it DISPLACES the OLD STYLE COLLAR, the HAME, the SHORT TUG, the SWEAT PAD, and SAVES your VETERINARY BILLS. Try one this year and you will always use them.

Market Day Sales.

[By Col's. Tindor and O'Rourke.]

The Market Day Sales which are conducted every two weeks at Broken Bow and Anselmo, are proving a great success. The farmers bringing in everything and anything and it is sold for them at a reasonable commission.

One of the novelties of their last sale was a fox terrier which brought $3.00 in the sale ring.

Any one who is thinking of having a farm sale cannot make a mistake by consulting Col's. Tindor and O'Rourke before advertising your sale.

Col. Tindor comes to Broken Bow from eastern Missouri where he has been engaged in Auctioneering for several years, having conducted farm and pedigree sales in a half dozen different states. Next Market Day Sale Feb. 13th.

Willis Cadwell and John McGraw purchased the C. A. Montgomery land of 400 acres in Section 17-18, twp. 18. rge. 20, for $4,000 this week.

Leroy Virgil Sanderson, the twelve year old son of Mrs. John Sanderson, died last Saturday. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Luther, and the little boy was buried in the yard at the family residence near Berwyn.

Undertaker Cole went down on the Wednesday morning train to take up the body of Mammie Knouse, which was in the cemetery between Berwyn and An-

ley. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Knouse had the body taken up in order that it might be buried in the cemetery at Janesville, near Gresham, in York county.

August Buick, of Oconto, was in the city on business Tuesday. Mr. Buick returned last week from an extended trip visiting in the eastern part of the state. He has sold his place on the South Loup and plans to have a public sale the last of February and may decide later to move to another part of the country.

Rev. Robert Moore, of A'Dell, Iowa, arrived in the city last Saturday and occupied the pulpit at the Christian Church Sunday. Rev. Moore will stay here, temporarily, at least, to take the place of Rev. Harmon, who left last Friday for his farm in Colorado. Mr. Harmon expects to move his family out to Colorado soon and make that his permanent residence.

J. M. McIndoo, Sr. and S. D. Gibson, of Sedam, Minn., left last Tuesday morning for their home. Mr. McIndoo has been visiting with his son, Supt. J. M. McIndoo, Jr., of the city schools, and he and Mr. Gibson have been looking over some land in this vicinity with the view of locating here.

Claude Govier, of Weissert, came in Tuesday to bring his brother Fred in to take up his work again in Custer College. Mr. Govier reports that a number of windmills were blown down by the storm last Thursday and the top of one of the old houses out there was blown off.

Rev. R. W. Moore, of Adel Iowa will preach Sunday morning at the Christian church on "Say so", and the theme of his Sunday evening sermon will be "Unturned Cakes". The members of the Christian church extends a cordial invitation to the public to be present at these services.

R. N. Norcutt started to build a house for Joseph Haumont, sixteen miles north of the city on last Tuesday. Mr. Haumont has been living in what is claimed to be the largest sod house in the world. This house is a two story building, with walls four feet thick and was built in the year of 1884.

Walter Godfrey, James Badley and Mads Jensen, all of Callaway were in the city last week and made their declaration to become citizens of the United States before District Clerk George B. Mair. The two first mentioned gentlemen are Englishmen and the last is a Dane. At the end of two years they will be entitled to their citizenship papers.

The second Semester in the city schools began a week ago last Monday. The total enrollment at the present time is 625 and the attendance has been very good, considering the bad weather last week. Quite a number of the pupils have been kept out of school lately on account of the mumps. All of the rooms are preparing special programs to be given in honor of Lincoln's birthday on the 12th.

Dr. Warrick the Hastings Specialist, will meet eye, ear nose and throat patients, and those needing glasses properly fitted at Grand Central in the Bow Friday, Feb. 19. Eyes tested free.
