

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

THE REPUBLICAN JOB PRINTING
AS YOU LIKE IT

FRANK KELSEY
ALL KINDS OF WELLS
Consult him if you want water.
Broken Bow, Nebr.

EDWARD DODD
PHYSICIAN & SURGEON Diseases of women a Specialty. Office phone 260. Residence 248. All cases promptly attended.

BANGS STU IO
EAST SIDE OF SQUARE
Photographs, Edison and Columbia
Phonographs and Records.
Agents for Chickering, Ivers & Pond and Star Pianos.
WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY

DR. CHRISTENSEN EYE, EAR, NOSE, THROAT AND CHRONIC DISEASES.
Fitting of Glasses a Specialty.
OFFICE IN REALITY BLOCK

Silas A. Holcomb, Edwin F. Myers.
HOLCOMB & MYERS
ATTORNEY
Special attention given to Litigated matters, Probate matters and collections.
OFFICE IN MYERS BUILDING
Broken Bow, Nebraska.

J. L. FERGUSON, R. A. HUNTER.
Notary Public, Broken Bow,
Comstock, Nebraska, Nebraska.
REAL ESTATE-INSURANCE
FARMS AND RANCHES FOR RENT
LEGAL PAPERS DRAWN
Surveying and Platting Neatly Done.

J. B. DUNN
LAWYER
CALLAWAY, NEBRASKA.
Settlement of estates, examining and perfecting land titles, collections and criminal matter. All business will receive prompt attention.

HARRY KIMBALL,
Practical Undertaker
Licensed Embalmer
Business phone, 301. Residence 334B
Broken Bow, Neb.

N. DWIGHT FORD
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR
AT LAW
Armour-Hanna Block
ANSLEY, NEBR.

John S. McGraw
FARM AND CITY LOANS
INSURANCE AND SURETY BONDS
CITY PROPERTIES

CHAS. E. STOUT RESTAURANT
CONFECTIONARY, CIGARS AND TOBACCO.
Broken Bow, Nebr.

Political Announcement.
Being prompted by a desire to lead and direct the educational forces of the great county of Custer, in whose schools I was a pupil nearly 30 years ago, I hereby formally announce myself a candidate for the position of County Superintendent of Public Instruction. I have advocated republican principles for 15 years and am thus asking the distinguished honor of being its nominee at the coming election.
WALTER W. WATERS.
To William T. Huston, Non-Resident Defen-dent.
You are hereby notified that on the 24th day of December, 1888, Mary E. Huston filed her petition in the district court of Custer County, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to obtain from you an absolute divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, non-support and desertion; to secure the custody and control of your minor children, and to procure their appropriate relief. You will answer said petition on or before the first day of March, 1909.
Mary E. Huston, Plaintiff.
By Sullivan & Squires her attorneys

STRICTLY PERSONAL

H. E. Leach, of Arcadia, was a city visitor Tuesday.

W. H. Ford of Walworth was a city visitor Saturday.

George Pelky of Callaway was on hand for jury duty Monday.

John Muivaney of Mason City was a Broken Bow visitor Monday.

S L. Glover, Jr., of Arcadia, was in the city on business Monday.

E S Updike and wife of Merna were city visitors Monday.

C. W. Layton of Cliff township was in the city on business Tuesday.

J. O. Kennedy of Merna came in Monday and reported for jury duty.

People think of your store as your last ad, reflected and represented it.

Fred Klanecky of Sargent was transacting business in the city Saturday.

William Powers of Anselmo was transacting business in the city Friday.

Thomas Lahren, of Anselmo, was transacting business in the city Monday.

William Workman, of Arcadia was transacting business in our city Monday.

Gus Oleson, of Elk Creek Township, came in Monday to be here for jury service.

N. I. Butler, of Gates, was in our city last Friday and remembered this office with a call.

Attorney R. E. Brigger of Callaway is attending the term of District Court here this week.

Ab Butcher, of Lillian precinct, was one of the Jurymen who reported for duty Monday.

A. P. Dobesh' of Ansley, came in on the train Tuesday afternoon to serve on the jury panel.

Get your tickets early for the Military play "Enlisted for the War" Opera House February 22.

G. W. Gestwite was transacting business in the city Friday and made this office a pleasant call.

Don't forget the date of the Military play "Enlisted for the War." Opera House Monday Feb. 22.

There is probably a REASON why you should go to store today-and to read the ads, is to ascertain.

How many "new interests" in life have you found lately? Advertisers are finding them all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ingram, of Anselmo, were city visitors Friday and made this office a pleasant call.

Attorney N. D. Ford and Dr. W. R. Young, of Ansley, were in the city on legal business Monday.

Chairman Ben P. Morris, of the Board of Supervisors, was in the city looking after Board work Monday.

Morris E. Myers, of the Myers ranch on the South Loup, was transacting business in the city Saturday.

The Dollar is still in the customer's pocket—the article is still in your store—if your ad wasn't convincing.

Lawyer J. B. Dunn of Callaway, was in the city this week looking after business in the District Court.

F. E. Delano of Arcadia arrived in the city Tuesday and reported to Judge Hostetler as one of the jury panel.

There is probably a bargain advertised to-day which, if you secure, you would not part with for twice its cost.

David Collier of Arcadia was in Monday on business in connection with the Collier case, which is to be tried this week.

It will only cost you 35c for a reserve seat to see "Enlisted for the War" at the Opera House Monday, Feb. 22.

L. O. Nelson & Co., received on Monday a car of Percheron and Sire stallions ranging from one to three years old.

Mr. F. M. Olmsted, returned from Omaha last Thursday evening after visiting with relatives for the past two weeks.

The advertised store is the progressive store and attracts the patronage of all who believe in progress, in enterprise.

Mr. Ray Drake, of the firm of The Paine Granite & Marble Works of Grand Island made this office a pleasant call Tuesday.

J. L. Ferguson, the Comstock real estate man, was in the city this week as one of the twenty-four men subpoenaed for jurors.

A store which advertises only occasionally justifies the inference that it is only occasionally that it has anything to advertise.

J. M. Scott, of Sargent, Nebr., who was the former superintendent of the schools in this city, was in the city on business Wednesday.

H. S. Clouse who is the mail carrier on the Star route between Broken Bow and Georgetown, has purchased a grocery store in Sumner.

A store's ads are a part of a store's service to the public—perhaps the one part of it which saves most of your time and money.

Harry Eliza and Edith Whittle of Anselmo were in the city as witnesses on a divorce case which came up in the District Court Monday.

James and Louis Lang, who live South-west of Callaway, were in the city Tuesday on a road matter which was up before the County Board.

S. A. Robinson, of Oconto, and his mother were in the city last Friday. Mrs. Robinson took the train for Hyannis to have a visit with her daughter.

"A fine cage won't feed the bird;" nor a good store building mean a successful store. In the case of the store, the advertising campaign provides the "feed."

Rev. Harmon, who is the former pastor of the Christian church, returned to this city Saturday from Colorado where he has spent the past week on his ranch.

25c and 35c are the prices for the Military play at the Opera House on Monday evening, Feb. 22. Seats will be on sale next Friday morning at the usual places.

If the "cash capital and surplus" of your home amounts to even a modest sum, you are able to buy things when they are cheapest—not merely when they are needed most.

A. S. Case, of Lincoln, was in the city Tuesday representing the Farmers & Merchants Insurance Co in the case of Hopkins vs Farmers & Merchants Insurance Co.

"A mole-hill every minute is a mountain in a year," and the old saying carries its lesson to those merchants who prefer not to advertise at all—rather than to advertise modestly.

W. D. Hall, of Sargent, was in the city this week on business. Mr. Hall is one of the best deputy assessors in Custer County and was re-appointed as deputy assessor for the Sargent precinct, tho he is a Democrat.

James Sampson, who lives about seven miles out of the city, secured his final citizenship papers before Judge Hostetler on Monday. Sampson is of Danish descent and has been a resident of this country for about ten years.

Bruggman & Stienway, the tailors who have moved their tailor shop over Konkel's furniture store, received their spring stock of goods this week, and are now prepared to furnish any one hand made suits. Men desiring made to order clothes should consult them.

The Washington dispatches states that Albert Kleeb has been appointed postmaster at Elton to succeed E. Haumont who has resigned. William F. Forest has been appointed postmaster at Walworth to succeed L. O. Rublee who resigned.

Campbell & Son have moved their candy kitchen from the South-side square into the room formerly occupied in the Dierk's block by Bruggeman & Stienway. The building vacated by the Candy Kitchen will be occupied by C. E. Beavers, who expects soon to put in a 10 cent store.

Dr. C M. Headrick physician of the Sanitarium department of the Hastings City Hospital, will visit Broken Bow, Monday Feb. 15th., Office at Grand Central Hotel. All chronic diseases treated by modern successful methods. Consultation and examination free.

Ernest Wray Oneal the popular lecturer will fill the next date on the local Entertainment course on Febr. 19th., at the Temple Theater. Mr. O'neal's home is in Aurora. He is a very powerful platform speaker, a student and a deep thinker. His lectures are an immense fund of oratory, given in a well modulated voice under perfect control and with a pleasing delivery and a good platform appearance. The Omaha Bee speaks of Mr. Oneal as a most effective and eloquent speaker.

Tickets for this entertainment will be on sale at Haerberle's drug store February 17, 1909.

J. H. Chapman of Kearney, who was the former editor of the Ansley Chronicle and the Republican, was in the city the first of the week shaking hands with his old friends here. Mr. Chapman at the present is making his headquarters at Kearney as an employee of the Trans-Mississippi Grain Company.

The Anselmo Sale. The Market Day Sale at Anselmo last Saturday held by Managers Tinder and O'Rorke of this city was well attended in spite of the bad weather Saturday morning and everything sold that was put up for sale. The sales are attracting a good many buyers from outside of Anselmo and the managers state that the stuff is bringing good prices.

Marriage License.
E. M. Cunningham, Arnold, 21
Elsie E. Maxon, " 21
Clarence L. Dixon, Callaway, 21
Arwena Lang, " 18

IF YOU BUY A CAR BEFORE YOU SEE THE

JACKSON

Do not look at the Jackson afterwards because you will always regret that you did not buy it. Note the size of our engine and its hill climbing abilities. See our Motto: "No Hill too Steep, No sand too Deep." I will be glad to demonstrate the Jackson to Prospective buyers.

J. S. McGRAW, Agent

MORE BARGAINS

IN REAL ESTATE

WE just purchased to-day FEBRUARY 11, 80 acres, the North half South west quarter section 30, range, 20 township 19, through J. S. McGraw. This 80 is located near Walworth, Nebr., in Middle Loup Valley, and is for sale at $1500.00 cash, it is worth $25.00 per acre.

The 280 acres that were advertised last week I think is sold, report of sale will be announced next week.

If you have a bargain to offer call on us, if you want to buy a bargain call on us:

Willis Cadwell

Broken Bow, - - Nebraska