CHURCH ABOUT COMPLETED

People Of Cliff Table Will Dedicate Building About The First Of April.

The Union church on the Cliff Table twelve miles west of Merna, is nearly completed. The exterior of the building is all finished and the steel ceiling has been put on. The plastering of the church commenced last Tuesday and it is expected that the church will be ready for dedication about April first. The church when completed will cost about $2000.00 and the people expect to put in about $400.00 worth of furniture making the total cost in the neighborhood of $3,000.00. The church is 30 x 40 feet with an incline floor; the annex for the pulpit is 12 x 16 feet and the vestibule is 8 feet square with a belfry over it. The seating capacity of the church is about four hundred. The members of the church expect to have a regular pastor as soon as the building is completed and dedicated. D. E. Bauder is the contractor and builder.

Coming Back For Three Nights.

The Benjamin Stock Co. will play a return date at the North Side Opera House, for three days, beginning Monday the 8th of March. The company is just the same as on their previous engagement but the plays and specialties will all be new. As announced on their last night they will play "A Night in China Town." The greatest sensational Comedy Drama ever written. This play was written especially for Miss Dot Karrol, the young lady who made such a hit playing the soubrette parts. "The Cowboy and the Girl," will also be presented. In this play Mr. Fred Frink, that funny man, has his pet comedy part, and he will make you laugh as never before. Mr. Beach and Mr. Benjamin both have equally strong parts and play them as such a finished actor can. May Shannon, Frank Elliott, Glen Crawford, and Mr. Hamlin have good parts and are equally clever.

Mr. Benjamin has five new plays in the Repertoire and will present three of the best ones on the above dates. The new plays are as follows: Tempest and Sunshine, The Cowboy and the Girl, A Night in China Town, My Partner, and My Wife's Aunt.

Mgr. Groat, Patrons of the Opera House and the press were unanimous in saying that the Benjamin Stock Co. was practically the best ever coming to Broken Bow. You don't run any risk of being "stung" in going to see this show. We all know its good. Seats are on sale at the usual place and a number of reservations for season tickets have been made. Those who were disappointed in getting their usual seats last time had better hurry as the house will no doubt be sold out each night in advance.

JEWEL KILLED ACCIDENTLY.

L. A. Jewel, of Ansley, died Friday afternoon from an injury received while loading sand. Jewel was loading his wagon with sand about three and one-half miles south of Ansley when the clay caek which he had undermined in loading the sand began to crack and give way. Seeing the danger he tried to get out of the way but the wagon was backed up to the bank so that as the clay caved in it threw him against the endgate and it struck him just below the eyes, cutting a bad gash in his nose and face. He lived about three hours after the accident and was conscious up to a few minutes of the time he died.

Mr. Jewel came to this county in 1884 and settled on a farm in Cat Creek between Ansley and Georgetown.
