When a store advertises only now and then, it is—perforce—a “now and then” sort of a store.

J. N. Weeth and wife of Ansley were in the city last Saturday visiting their daughter who is here attending school.

Cy. Brenizer left Tuesday morning for San Antonio, Texas, where he expects to spend some time. He will join a party of tourists next week to the Gulf Coast.

Judge H. J. Shinn went down to Lincoln the first of the week to see whether the Democratic war horses in the state Legislature are working in the harness as they should.

Who is your “popular author,” among the ad-writers of the city. This author has something new to say to you today—of course.

You can be sure that, when a store has a bargain to offer you it will tell you so in its ads.

O. J. Shaw of Aurora came up Wednesday morning to further consider putting in an electric light system and find out about what action the city council had taken relative to the franchise he had submitted.

Sam L. Miller of the firm of Miller and Kennedy hurt his side quite seriously Wednesday morning. He was standing on a chair in the score when it tipped over and he fell striking his side across the back of the chair. No bones were broken but he will probably be laid up for a couple days.

You are most cordially invited to attend the services at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday. Subjects, 11 a. m., “Put on thy Strength O’Zion,” 7:30 p. m., “Lost Fellowship.”

The famous Gospel songs of Chas. W. Alexander will be used and the Male Quartette will sing.

J. E. Aubrey, Pastor.

Broken Bow, - - - Nebraska.UNSTABLE*POLICY*IN REAL ESTATE

A CERTAIN man in Broken Bow wanted to buy 160 acres adjoining one of his farms. He knew the agents name who had charge of the farm he wanted to buy, but desired to save the commission; so he goes to a local bank and inquires, “Does so and so, a real estate man, buy drafts of this bank in remitting rent monies to his eastern Clients, and do you know the name of his client who owns land adjoining my farm and his address?”

If I should mention the color of this man's whiskers you would know who he was. This man does not appreciate the fact that the real estate man does more for him than any other man in his community. The simple truth is a real estate man is very foolish to do business with any client who will not protect him in his commission.—We believe we can render any man good service, whether buyer or seller.
