CUSTER COUNTY BOY SUCCESSFUL.

Bert Christensen, of Pilche, Nevada, is here visiting his parents for a couple of weeks. Mr. Christensen left Custer county a number of years ago to try his luck in the mining regions in the western part of the country. After prospecting for seven years he made a strike at Pilche, Lincoln county, Nevada, and is now superintendent and principal stockholder in the Pilche Gold and Prince Mining Co., which has a capital stock of $1,000,000.

His brother, Andrew, is also meeting with unusual success since he left here. The following is clipped from the Daily Oregonian which is published at Portland, Oregon:

Andrew Christensen, former special agent of the government at San Francisco, who has been promoted to the position of Chief of Field Division No. 1, of the General Land Office, with headquarters in Portland, arrived yesterday morning and assumed charge of the local office. The keys of office and complete authority over the Oregon division were turned over to Mr. Christensen and he assumed his duties at once.

"There will be no changes in the administration of the land office that I know of at present," said Mr. Christensen. "I will continue to do the same work that Mr. Glavis has done, in assisting bona fide claimants to maintain and protect their rights, and will prosecute persons who fraudulently file upon land."

W. R. Davis, ex-chief of the Oregon division, will leave in two or three days for Seattle, to take charge of the new division which has been created there, and to which he has been promoted, taking with him Special Agents A. R. Bowman, David C. Adams, Andrew Kennedy, Ed. Doyle, S. N. Stoner and Charles McGuire.

A number of other changes have been made in the force here since the rearrangement of the land office division. Special Agent J. H. Alexander left last

Stop Renting and Buy a Home

"Work for Yourself and a Woman"----

Kipling wrote. Most men follow that creed, or try to. Rent payers, however, work for themselves, the woman—and the landlord. Sometimes this fact comes to them with such force that they revolt—and stop working for the landlord.

If you are ready to revolt and want to buy a farm so that the rent collector will be a stranger to you, come in and see us about it.

We will be pleased to render you every possible service in obtaining what you want. There is nothing that will beat a good farm in Custer county and we can show you one that is large or small and is improved or unimproved.
